

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. E. W. Lester will begin a series of special revival services on Sunday, Dec. 2nd, at Marysville, N. B., assisted by Evangelist A. P. and Mrs. Gouthey.

Brother Lester reports good meeting. We reported Rev. F. T. Wright as visiting relatives and friends, but we have since learned he was seeking recuperation and other things—in the woods.

Meetings and Sunday School good, with good attendance in Woodstock Church. They have added a teacher training class in the Sunday School.

We have learned that Rev. W. E. Smith will not hold services at Woodstock, as stated by us in a previous issue, as it will be too late before he can begin.

The little holiness band of people at Meductic are enjoying much blessing in their cottage prayer and testimony meetings, and also in their Sunday services.

Rev. H. C. Mullen, of North Head, Grand Manan, preached at Woodward's Cove, Oct. 21st and Nov. 4th. We are glad to know that some of our pastors are endeavoring to reach places outside of their parishes. All should heed the admonition, "Do the work of an evangelist."

The special services being held by Pastor L. T. Sabine at Port Maitland assisted by Rev. H. S. Dow and Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen are being well attended and a good interest manifested. Brother Sabine is thinking of holding a series of meetings at Brazil Lake also.

Millville Church is retaining its strength, the young converts growing in spiritual life. Brother and Sister Keirstead are planning a series of special services in the early spring with the assistance of Evangelists H. S. and Mrs. Mullen and others.

Gifts for building the church at Meductic Church can be paid to Rev. H. C. Archer, Fredericton; Rev. W. B. Wiggins at Woodstock; Rev. P. J. Trafton at Hartland; Rev. H. S. Dow at Meductic; Brother B. N. Goodspeed, Penniac, or the Editor of the Highway.

Evangelist F. W. Foster reports good meeting at Fredericton. The attendance has been good from the beginning; the church has been refreshed and much blessed and a considerable number have been at the altar. Brother Foster remained until the 28th.

Sister I. F. Keirstead spent Sunday, the 25th, with the church at Royalton and enjoyed a good time preaching the word, and was invited to hold a missionary meeting on Monday evening, and also services on the evenings of the 27th and 28th. Sister Keirstead will attend the quarterly meeting at Hartland, beginning on the 29th inst.

Rev. W. W. Howe reports a good interest in the St. John Church of which he has recently become pastor.

PERSONALS.

The Rev. E. H. Post, well known to many of our readers, has been granted the honorary degree of D. D. by the Oskaloosa College, Oskaloosa, Iowa. Our brother's abilities are worthy of this recognition.—Wes. Methodist.

Dr. Post was our special evangelist at Rivedside Camp Meeting a few years ago, and also at Woodstock in a meeting, and was much liked by our people.

Sister Simon McLeod's present address is 79 Laurel street, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Sister H. E. Cox is in poor health. She is stopping at the home of her son, Howard, at Rosedale, N. B.

Sister J. D. Shaw and Miss Edna Shaw arrived safely in Oklahoma in four days after leaving Hartland. Their address is 428 West 31st street, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Sister R. C. Manning, formerly of St. John, N. B., has removed to 823 Shaw street, Toronto, Ont. Sister Manning says: "I prize the Highway highly. The past year has been one of sadness and suffering but amid it all Jesus has been very precious to me. I love him and mean to be true and expect to be among the number that John saw, and praise my Saviour forever and ever."

Brother L. A. and Sister Morrell and Walter and Junnie enjoyed a week camping by a beautiful lake near Stanley, N. B., recently. Mrs. Morrell gives a very beautiful description of her impressions of the grandeur of the forests in a letter to her intimate friends.

Sister C. A. Cliff, of Preston, Iowa, made a very pleasant visit to her friends in New Brunswick recently. Sister Cliff in a letter says: I am still on the way, and looking unto Jesus for all my help and comfort. He never fails me. I have been trusting in him for many years.

Brother J. L. Belyea, of the Rockdale Hotel, Beulah Camp Ground, is stopping with his son, Mr. Domville Belyea, 127 Water street, St. John West, for the winter. Brother Belyea says that several trees blew down on Beulah Camp Ground in a recent storm, but no cottages were damaged.

Mrs. J. L. Eagles says: When I have read the Highway I send it to old ladies in Kent County, who never get out to church, so I feel it is a blessing in my own home and also to the ladies who cannot go to church.

Dr. J. E. Jewett, of Woodstock, is improving slightly but is still weak.

Mrs. Ada Brown, of Lower Brighton, has gone to Bridgeport, Conn., to spend the winter with her son, Mr. Myles Brown.

Brother and Sister Stephen Thomas, of North Head, Grand Manan, are spending the winter with their daughter, Mrs. S. C. Page, of Caribou, Maine.

Brother Joseph H. Brown, of Cayley, Alta., has paid his subscription for the Highway to 1920. How far is yours paid in advance?

A PLACE OF TEMPTATION.

The wilderness seems to still be a place where people need go well provided for self-protection. Some of our pastors resort there for rest, but they provide themselves with a government guarantee against attacks from game wardens, then they carry, rifles and ammunition, to protect themselves from attacks from moose, deer and partridge.

We presume it is still a place of desperate temptation—to shoot.
