

OBITUARY.

MRS. A. B. BROWNE.

Mary A. B. Browne, relict of Josiah Browne, of Middle Simonds, passed away to enjoy the bliss of heaven, on Sunday morning, December sixteenth, in the ninety-sixth year of her age, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Nixon, Hartland, N. B., with whom she has resided, and been tenderly cared for, during the last six years of her pilgrimage. Her maiden name was Stickney. She was born at Stickney, Carleton Co., May sixth, 1822. She was converted at fifteen years of age, and her conversion was remarkable. A few years later there came an intense longing in her soul, to be filled with God. After considerable anxiety, she consecrated herself wholly to the Lord, and one night after she had closed the school (for she was then a teacher) she remained to wrestle with God, and the glory and power came into her life. She was deeply moved upon to go into special work for the Lord, which she did and had souls for her work. She was a remarkable woman, and was full of zeal for God up to the very last. The writer will never forget her songs of triumph, fervent prayers and words of advice and warning. She was much engaged about the salvation of those around her, and had the happy privilege of seeing Mr. D. H. Nixon brought into the fold, and we trust her prayers will be answered for others. She leaves to mourn their loss, two sons, Franklin in North Carolina, and Wallace in California, and a large circle of relatives and friends. Mrs. D. H. Nixon and Mrs. Walter Jackson are nieces. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon at the home, the writer officiating. Our sister had selected the text to be used, Rev. 1-5,6, and was so anxious that the preacher should magnify the power of Jesus' blood. We rejoice in her coronation, for she lived the life of the righteous and in consequence died the death of the righteous. To God be all the glory. The saints are gathering home; what a meeting there will be as Jesus will soon return.

ALBRIGHT.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Albright have been called upon to pass through the deep waters of sorrow, in the death of their only child, a boy of three months. They came into Hartland from Windsor, Car. Co., on Saturday, to spend the Christmas season with Mrs. Albright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nevers, where the child was taken sick and died on Monday morning, Dec. 24. The funeral service was held on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Perley Quigg officiating, assisted by Rev. P. J. Trafton. Mr. and Mrs. Albright have the sympathy of a large circle of relatives and friends in their bereavement.

MRS. GEO. H. HUSON.

Dear Highway: Again ye are called upon to report the death of one that had been a member of our little band from its earliest days, in the person of Mrs. George H. Huson. Sister Huson had complained of not feeling well for some days, but only a day before her death had her case been considered serious and ended in her entering into eternal rest on the afternoon of the 12th inst. She leaves to mourn their loss, her husband, Mr. Geo. H. Huson, and one son, James A. Huson, of Calais, Me., two daughter, Mrs. Chas. E. Grossarth, of Burlington, Vt., and Mrs. F. S. Groves, of Milltown, Me. Two brothers, J. L. Stewart, of Chatham, N.B., and Isaac Stewart, of Nortondale, N.B., and one sister, Miss Louise Stewart, of Chatham, N.B., and two grand-children and a host of good friends. Sister Huson was born at Advocate Harbor, N. S., leaving there early in life for New Brunswick, and finally settling in this city. She was 71 years of age. The funeral service was conducted by her pastor, assisted by Rev. John Jones, and Capt. Major, of the S. A., on the afternoon of 14th inst.

S. H. CLARK.

THOMAS CANN.

On Monday, December 10th, at his late home at Gardner's Mill, Digby Co., N. S., Thomas Cann, in the 42nd year of his age, passed gently away, after a few weeks' illness of Bright's disease. The occasion is particularly a sad one indeed, as he leaves a young family of five children and a wife in the N. S. Hospital, Dartmouth, where she has been since last spring. The deceased was the only surviving son of Sister Rebecca Cann, besides whom and his family he leaves four sisters, Mrs. Chas. Sollows, of Port Maitland, Mrs. Arthur Cook, Millie and Grace, of Gardner's Mill, and a large number of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The funeral services were conducted by the writer and the remains were laid to rest in the R. B. cemetery. Bro. Cann declared himself to be trusting in Jesus as his Saviour. To the sorrowing family and friends we extend our heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement. Beloved, let us look to Jesus who is the resurrection and the life.

LEWIS BEAL.

The funeral of Mr. Lewis Beal took place at the Reformed Baptist church at Beal's, Maine, on Dec. 11th. Rev. T. W. Moses conducted the service.

Mrs. Phenetty M. Small.

Duty demands that once again we report the death of one of our number. On the early morning of Dec. 10th, Mrs. Phenetty M. Small, wife of Charles Small, departed this life in the sixty-fifth year of her age. Sister Small was a member of the North Head Reformed Baptist Church, and was very faithful in all her duties as a member. Before her final illness which began in August of the present year she rarely missed a service of the church. If Sister Small was not in her accustomed place, one of two things was the reason—she was either ill herself or was attending someone else that was.

Sister Small leaves to mourn their loss, a husband, four sons, Herbert, Harry and Ralph of this place, and Clayton, somewhere in France, besides a sister, Mrs. George Flagg, of this place, and a large circle of friends. Interment was made in the village cemetery on Dec. 12th.

PRESENTATIONS.

We again acknowledge the kindness of our friends. A few gathered at the parsonage on Friday evening, December fourteenth, and after spending a pleasant time together left us the better off by eleven dollars. The friends at Lower Brighton, Victoria Corner and Gordonsville made me a present of a nice new pung. Words fail to express my gratitude to these good people for all their kindnesses. We have received many kind tokens at this season. Keep on praying.

DONATIONS.

On the evening of December 19th the friends at Port Maitland gave us quite a surprise when they gathered at our home and after an evening spent profitably in conversation and song, presented us with a purse of $16.50 besides groceries and other articles. We appreciate the kind words of Brother Warren Sollows as he feelingly spoke of our labor and walk among them. The pastor replied expressing gratitude for their kindnesses and offered prayer when the company dismissed.

Also at Sanford on the evening of December 20th at the close of the prayer service the kind friends there loaded our buggy with choice edibles, such as sugar, preserves, butter, beef, etc. And again on the following Sunday evening after the preaching service at the same place the members of the congregation gave us a purse of $23.00 in cash. We esteem highly these tangible tokens of respect and good-will from the people of both churches and thank them kindly for their thoughtfulness of us at this time, and especially as the cost of living is so high.

We enjoy very much laboring with these people and pray that, whatever time we may work together, God shall abundantly pour out His blessings upon us in the salvation of souls and the sanctification of believers.

Yours in His Service,
L. T. and MRS. SABINE.

MEDUCTIC CHURCH.

A meeting was held at Meductic to consider building a Reformed Baptist Church. Rev. H. S. Dow was asked to preside. Mrs. H. S. Dow was appointed secretary.

Those present voted unanimously to build a Reformed Baptist Church and to purchase the lot and material from Mr. T. Dickinson, who has a foundation already built. The building to be 28x44 to be built of cement blocks (which are now on the ground ready for use). The people are taking hold in real earnest and the work will be begun as early in the spring as the weather permits.

A building committee was appointed with Rev. H. S. Dow as treasurer.

We appreciate the response to the Highway appeal and the general interest being awakened. Let us take hold with a will and put this church up as a thank offering to God for His blessing constantly flowing to our hearts and homes.

Let every gift be accompanied by a prayer for God's blessing upon Meductic and the little church to be erected.
