

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead is in Queens County, N. B., on a short visit with friends, and will hold a few meetings while there.

Rev. Henry Smith's address is P. O. Box 473, Halifax, N. S. His many friends will be glad to read his letter in this issue.

Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer spent Christmas week with Brother A. G. and Mrs. Good at Moncton. Brother Archer preached for Pastor S. A. Baker Sunday evening, 23rd inst.

Rev. H. C. Archer is actively engaged in securing names of voters to petitions for the repeal of the "Scott Act." He spent several days in Kings County last week, with good success in his work.

Rev. H. S. Dow preached on the 23rd at Green Bush and Meductic.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard began a series of special revival services at Fort Fairfield, Maine, on the 28th, assisted by Rev. H. S. Dow and Rev. H. S. and Sister Mullen. Let all the churches unite with them in prayer that they may enjoy a great victory.

Rev. T. W. Moses writes: Just a few lines to let you know we are still pressing the battle. God is with us in all of our meetings. We are still working on the new vestry; cold weather makes progress slow. Kept by power divine.

From Rev. P. W. Briggs: Dear Bro. Baker: Will write you a few lines to let you know that we are enjoying the blessing of the Lord and the Lord is in our midst and He is saving souls and sanctifying believers for which we praise Him. Yours in the work of the Lord, Perley W. Briggs.

Rev. A. H. and Mrs. Trafton spent Christmas with Rev. P. J. Trafton and family at Hartland.

Rev. P. J. Trafton and several of his members will join Rev. W. B. Wiggins in an all-day meeting at Woodstock on New Year's Day. Brother Trafton held a service Christmas day at Hartland.

MARRIED.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Nichols, at New Tusket, Digby, N.S., Dec. 12th, when their only daughter, Florence M. Nichols, was united in marriage to Charlie W. Greene, of New Tusket, by Rev. P. W. Briggs, in the presence of the near relatives. After the ceremony an excellent supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Greene expect to reside at New Tusket.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

A Brother in Boston, Mass., in sending his renewal for the Highway added the price of a year's subscription and requested us to send the Highway for a year to some Minister. Thanks Brother W. E. C., we will do it.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

At times when we have given the Highway at special offers many of our subscribers have sent it to members of their families and friends. A considerable number of these have not been renewed. If renewals for these do not reach us before January 30th they will be discontinued.

S. A. BAKER.

PERSONALS.

Brother B. N. Goodspeed, who has been on the publishing committee of the Highway from its first issue 29 years ago, says: "I am just in fair health these days. The Lord is with me in my declining days."

Brother Tuck says: "As I live and give, I enjoy the blessing." The blessing is manifested by these two characteristics. When one is truly living there will also be giving.

Miss Jessie Tedlie, of Lower Brighton, arrived home last week from Alberta, where she has been teaching.

Brother A. Thornton of Hartland is in a very weak state of health. Sister M. B. Cox of the same place is also in very poor health.

Sister F. H. Lock, of Amherst, N.S., is slowly recovering her health after a tedious case of typhoid fever.

Brother George B. Thomas, who has been a reader of the Highway from its early publication, says: "We enjoy reading the Highway so much we look forward to its coming, as we like to hear from the brethren both at home and in the foreign field. We hope the New Year will be one of great success."

Miss Luella R. Brown, of South Devon, N.B., spent Christmas with Mrs. Baker, at Moncton.

Bro. Herbert Thurston, Principal of Truro High School, is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thurston, Sandford, N. S.

Brother F. T. Kimball says: "We are all well, and doing the best we can these awful times. Our son has not been called yet (to the U. S. army) but expect he will be soon. We expect to begin special services soon. Brother Hilyard preaches the whole truth."

Sister Duncan Reed of Fredericton, made a mis-step in going down stairs at the residence of her niece, Mrs. George Kilburn, and has since been unable to walk. Sister Reed is up in the 80's and has always been active. We trust she will soon be restored again. Mrs. Baker received the present of a nice quilt from Mrs. Reed which she had made herself.

Rev. Z. M. Miller has changed his address to Houlton, Maine, R.F.D. 3. Brother Miller says: "My testimony is, I am still living in Caanan-land, holiness is my theme, and I realize the Lord to be very precious these days. I enjoy reading the Highway very much."

Clayton Dickinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tart Dickinson, of Meductic, one of our Christian young men, enlisted in the 65th Battery, at Woodstock, on Dec. 5th. On the evening of the 11th a number of the people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson and spent a pleasant evening and presented Clayton with a wrist watch. He was also presented with a safety razor by his intimate friends.

Mrs. Annie L. Foley says: "I enjoy the Highway very much; always look forward to its coming."

Sister Miss Alice F. Sterritt says: "Jesus is my refuge unfailing, and the comfort of my life. These are days in which we must pray as never before."

Brother P. L. Cosman who is in the service, says: "I get the Highway regularly and am pleased to follow your doings."

Mrs. C. J. Ellis writes: Enclosed please find renewal for the Highway, and for the Supplementary Fund. I think the Highway is a lovely paper, and would not be without it for anything. I am trusting in the merits of Jesus; He is precious to me this morning.—Norwood, N. S., Dec. 28th.

Brother W. C. Grant has set a good example, by enclosing with his renewal for the Highway a new subscription. If all would do this how easily we could double our subscription list.

MEMORIUM.

In loving memory of George B. Storey, who died Dec. 31, 1916.

A GOLDEN WEDDING.

Bro. and Sister Charles Knox, of Upper Hainsville, celebrated their 50th anniversary, Tuesday, December 18th.

They were surrounded by their four daughters, twelve grand-children and three great grand-children. About thirty-five of the invited guests met to congratulate their old friends on this grand occasion. A very pleasant afternoon and evening was spent with music and singing. Then Sister Charles Palmer read the following to the bride and groom:

"Looking now from western windows,
Out of life's declining day,
May no regrets, doubts or sorrows
Cloud or mar your onward way.
May the days to come be peaceful,
May the joys of life remain,
May the sunset be resplendant
Over lives not lived in vain."

Old and young sat down to tables laden with all that heart could wish.

Bro. Knox is a Deacon of the U. B. Church and has attended district and quarterly meeting for year, thus following in the footsteps of his father who, he says, attended district meetings for twenty-five yearst of wedded life.

Sister Knox is a real pillar of the R. B. Church, and with her children are always found in their places at the church when health will permit.

Thus we may say our Brother and Sister are Union Baptists.

Ministers of each denomination have always found a warm welcome in their home, and usually leave better off financially than when they went.

We again extend congratulations and best wishes for many years yet of happy wedded life to these dear pilgrims.

I. M. K.

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

Fifty years of sun and shadow,
Fifty years of wedded life.
You have walked life's path together,
Kind and helpful man and wife.
Great and many are the blessing
That your pathway have bestowed;
Children fair have crowned your union,
Flowers of life, now fully blown.
They who saw life's morning with you
Greet you on this festal day;
Bring you their congratulations
With the hope you long may stay
With us all, your friends and neighbors,
Where you've dwelt so well and long,
Shared our grief, our burden's brightened,
Helped the weak and made them strong.
