

The King's Highway.

An Advocate of Scriptural Holiness.

And an Highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The Way of Holiness—L. 35-8.

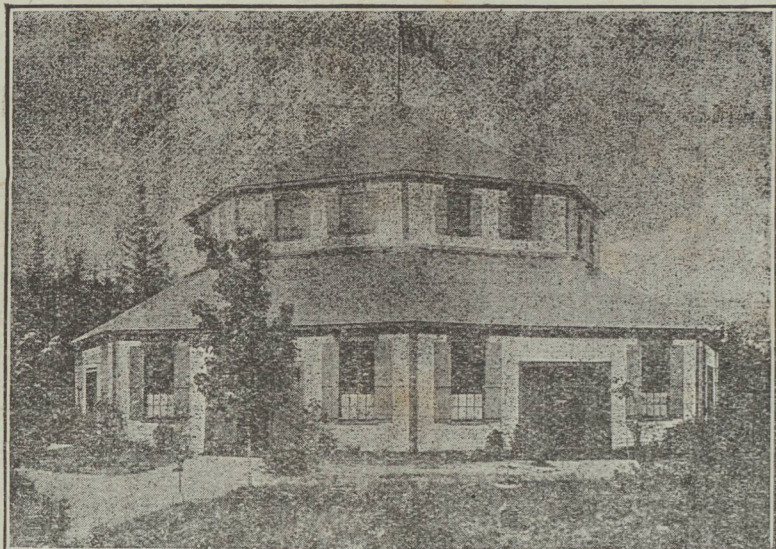

VOL. XXVIII.

MONCTON, N. B., MAY 15, 1917.

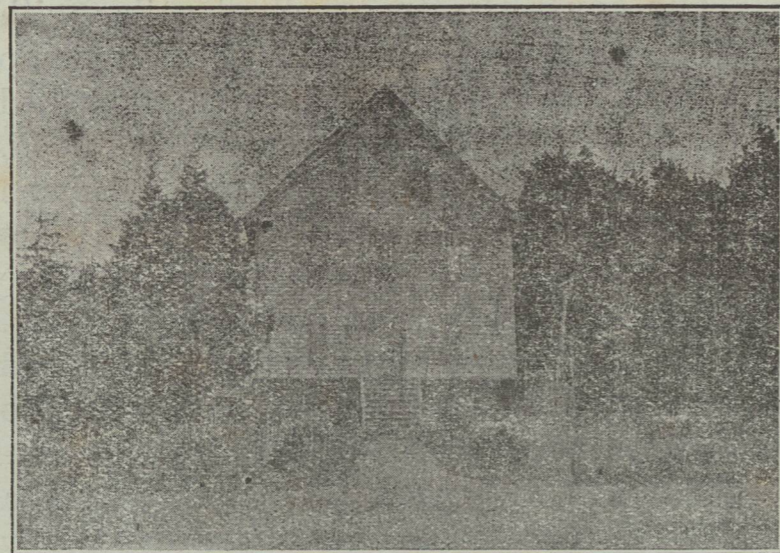

NO. 21.

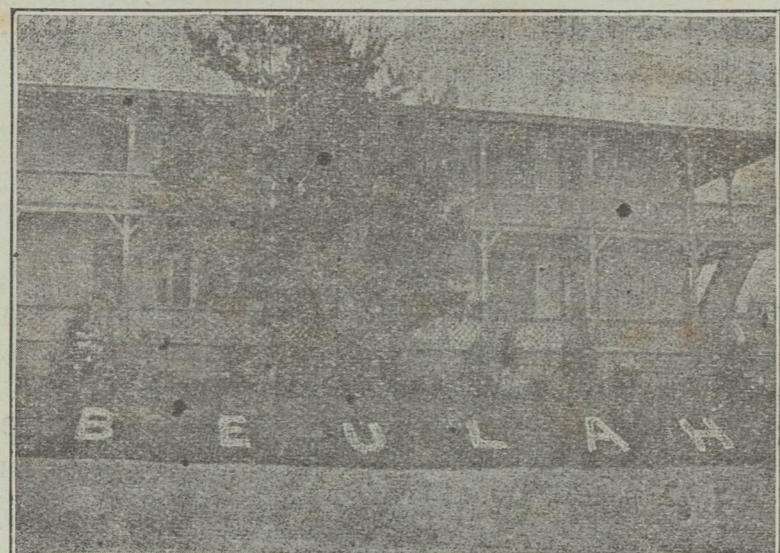

Beulah Camp Ground Hotel.

Beulah Camp Ground Tabernacle.

Cedardale Dormitory.

Riverview Dormitory.

ALLIANCE AND CAMP MEETING.

Don't forget that the Reformed Baptist Alliance convenes at Beulah Camp Ground Tabernacle on June 27th.

Beulah Camp Meeting will begin June 28th. Revs. W. E. Smith, of Monroeton, Pa., and F. W. Foster, the Farmer Evangelist of Fort Fairfield, Maine, and other visiting workers, will assist in the meeting. Brother H. S. and Sister Mullen will be special singers.

Brother J. F. Bullock will be in charge of the instrumental music.

We will probably use the song book, "Songs of the Kingdom," again this season.

PLENTY OF HELP, AND A GREAT MEETING IS ANTICIPATED, AT BEULAH CAMP MEETING.

Letters just received brings the good news that Rev. W. E. Smith, of Monroeton, Pa., who is an able preacher of holiness, and a man who has had much experience in the work as pastor and evangelist, will assist in the entire meeting.

Also Brother F. W. Foster, "The Farmer Evangelist," who has been greatly blessed during the past winter with splendid success, will also be one of the workers, and we are expecting—all of our own ministers—and several visiting brethren and many lay-workers. Beloved, let us lay aside the labours and cares of life, and gether at this feast of spiritual blessing.

Let there be a preparatory season of special prayer in all our churches and homes.

This is the time of the world's greatest need; millions of torn hearts need divine solace and comfort.

Come with every selfish purpose cast aside, and the one grand purpose in your hearts to be helpful to all up to your full strength and ability. Get help by helping.

We always pray for all to come who will help, and get help, and those who will be injurious to the services to be kept away from the camp meetings—which includes all side-trackers—and those circulating subscription lists. To all such we positively object. All money raised at these meetings must be done by those who are regularly appointed, and for general purposes. Don't come, nor send people to the camp meetings to raise money. The great object of the camp meeting is to get people converted to Jesus Christ, and sanctified wholly—"Baptized with the Holy Ghost and fire."

The two great essential works of Grace—personal and scriptural salvation. The invitation is to all Christian ministers and people who can lay aside—for the time—all denominational distinctions, and enter into a grand united effort with the above object in view.

The management of these camp meetings have proven to all unbiased people who have attended the services, that their object has been much larger than denominational purposes.

The grand spiritual purposes of these camp meetings have been and will be maintained.

We repeat—The Camp Meeting is not a money getting enterprise. This is proven by the fact that the Alliance will not permit the grounds to be used for any purposes that they would not permit their churches to be used for.

Thousands of people have received great spiritual blessings at Grand Old Beulah Camp Ground. Don't forget the dates—June 28-July 8, 1917.

SONG BOOKS.

"Best of All Complete," with supplement, and "Songs of the Kingdom." 20 cents to any address. A few "Best of All Complete" in cloth binding, 35 cents.

One free for new subscription for the Highway.

S. A. BAKER.

A young man came to a wise Rabbi:
"Good Master, when must I repent?"
"The day before you die, my son."
"But I know not the day when I shall die."
"Then you had better do it now, my son."

Get the pattern of your life from God, and then go about your work and be yourself.—Phillips Brooks.

"He who, in poverty, or sickness, or solitude, can preserve a merry heart and cheerful countenance is a benefactor to society."

H. C. Mullen, Dec. 16