

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. P. J. Trafton has received a unanimous call to remain another year on the Hartland circuit. Brother Trafton has done very faithful work on this circuit and deserves the appreciation of his people.

Judging by the post mark on a recent letter from Brother Coy, he has been at Bridgewater, Maine, recently. We are glad to note the activity of our older brethren.

Rev. W. W. Howe preached at Norton Station Sunday evening, 6th inst. Rev. G. B. Trafton is expected to preach there one Sunday this month and the brethren would like to correspond with another of our ministers who can spend a Sunday with them before the meeting of the Alliance. Address C. L. Murphy, Norton, N. B.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead is continuing special meetings at Upper Hainsville; souls are being saved.

The Millville praying band conducted the regular services for Brother Keirstead on the 5th at Norton Dale, Maplewood and Maple Ridge, and had a day of victory. Some of the members are assisting at Up. Hainsville also.

Brother Keirstead baptized three more young men the last Sunday of April and gave the right hand of fellowship to two at the evening service.

Rev. H. C. Mullen baptized two persons and received three into the church at North Head, Grand Manan, on the 22nd of April.

Millville Church is enjoying much blessing and are very active in the work on the circuit. As a result of the recent revival many homes have been richly blessed and family altars erected.

A worker in every church as successful as Sister I. F. Keirstead would solve the problem of increasing the number of subscribers for the Highway.

Rev. S. H. Clark says: Our meetings are still good with good congregations and reports the following contributions: C. P. Phillips, $25.00; L. C. Watt, $5.00; Rev. F. T. Wright, $5.00; Rev. H. C. Mullen, $2.00; Mrs. J. W. Greenlaw, $1.00. These amounts have come to us since we were burned out and have been very helpful to us. I am perfectly satisfied with the job on hand, both temporal and spiritual.

Rev. P. J. Trafton baptized several persons on the 13th. Full report is not to hand in time for this issue.

Brother E. M. Tingley, of Moncton, is seriously ill.

Brother Chester Culberson writes: I am growing spiritually and God is marvelously blessing me these days. Glory to his precious name.

It is a wonderful blessing that not only preserves our young men who go to strange cities from floods of pleasure that sweep so many down to sin and ruin, but can cause them to increase in spiritual strength and life in the very midst of these whirlpools of worldly pleasure and sin.—Ed.

Brother E. B. Lilley says: I enjoy reading the Highway very much and look for the good things I find in it, and it seems to grow better. Brother Lilley has changed his residence. P. J. TRAFTON.

MRS. JOHN FLAGG.

Sister Mrs. John Flagg, of North Head, Grand Manan, died in the hospital in Boston on the 5th inst. Her remains were brought home for burial on the 10th inst.

Jeremiah Dickinson.

Another of the members of the R. B. Church at Lower Brighton and an old and respected resident, has passed away in the person of Jeremiah Dickinson, aged 76 years. Brother Dickinson has been in failing health for some time, and this world has held very little attraction for him since the death of his beloved wife, a little less than two years ago. He has been making his home with his youngest son, Gordon, at Newburg Junction. His passing was sudden on Monday morning, May 7th. The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, a short service at the home and the remains were taken to the church, where a large congregation of relatives and friends had assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed. The services were under the direction of the writer assisted by Rev. H. S. Dow. A choir rendered some beautiful selections. The body was laid to rest beside that of his wife. Two sons survive, Willie, of Upper Brighton, and Gordon, with whom he lived. His trust was in Jesus and he longed for "the home over there." "They are gathering homeward, one by one."

HOLD STEADY.

Don't get frightened at the small increase in board at Beulah Camp Meeting. It will cost you just as much or more at home.

There will be no objection to people boarding themselves if they wish.

TITHING.

Evangelist F. W. Foster does good work in his services by holding the definite tithing system as the Bible standard of providing for the church. And he practices what he preaches. This kind of preaching counts.
