Rev. E. W. Lester and Brother Thomas Mitchell expect to go to Beulah this week to make preparations for the meeting of the Alliance and camp meeting.

The revival interest is still going on the Millville circuit. Brother Keirstead began special services at Lower Hainesville on the 25th. He held seven meetings the previous week, driving 68 miles, and made 18 calls, despite the bad roads and weather. The Praying Band held two meetings at Upper Hainesville on the 20th and several were at the altar for prayer. The meetings at Millville are well attended and full of "joy and gladness."

Sister Keirstead expects to visit St. John before going to Beulah.

Rev. H. C. Mullen has received and accepted the unanimous call to remain pastor of the North Head, Grand Manan Church for another year.

Brother W. R. Carson supplied for Rev. W. W. Howe at Salem, Kings County, over Sunday, the 13th. He also visited Ripples two weeks previous and held three services. Brother Carson says that Sister Lillian Young, our crippled sister who attends Beulah Camp meeting in her wheel chair, as being in poor health, but strong in faith.

Will the pastors please stir up the members to contribute, and if the deacons cannot attend to it, will they see that some one will collect it. Don't forget it, please.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

A service was held in the Reformed Baptist Church, Hartland, N. B., Sunday, May 20th., at 3 o'clock p. m., in memory of Lee Crandlemire, who died from wounds received in the battle of Vimy Ridge, France, April 9, 1917.

Lee was born at Brookville, Car. Co., some twenty years ago. He was converted in the early spring of 1910 and united with the Reformed Baptist Church. He enlisted in the 140th Battalion in November, 1915. He went overseas with his unit in September, 1916, and in October went over to France a draft to fill the 25th Battalion. He received a gunshot wound in the eyes, at Vimy Ridge, April 9, and died the next day. Lee was a good boy and a friend to everybody. His letters were always full of encouragement and cheer.

The service was largely attended and was under the direction of Rev. P. J. Trafton, assisted by Rev. H. S. Dow. Text: 2 Sam, 1-26. He leaves to mourn their loss, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Crandlemire, and three sisters, Mrs. Fred Thornton, Eva and Hazel, all residing in Hartland. A little mound of earth somewhere in France, with a little cross at the head, marks the last resting place of an only son and brother, and brave soldier. The young people arranged flags and flowers, and the choir rendered some appropriate selections. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the entire community.

P. J. Trafton.

NORTH HEAD (GRAND MANAN) NOTES

Prayer meetings good. Good spirit, good attendance. About forty in attendance three successive prayer meeting nights.

Sunday school slightly increased both in attendance and interest.

Two Adult Bible Classes fully organized to International standard.

A Men's Class taught by H. C. Mullen, numbering fifteen members. Name, "Prospectors." As the word implies, we have a forward outlook, and also are looking for hidden treasure. Class motto, "In all things Charity." We wear the International Class emblem, a red button with white centre. The red represents sacrifice, or the blood, and the white purity. We must go through the blood before we come to purity.

The Ladies' Class is taught by Mrs. Mullen and numbers about twenty. They also wear the Adult Bible Class emblem.

We have also the Pocket Testament League in our Sunday School. Over a dozen have "signed up" already and more will follow. Bro. Harold Ingersoll, one of our promising young men, is acting very efficiently as local secretary.
