THE TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL CAMP MEETING AT BEULAH CAMP GROUND.

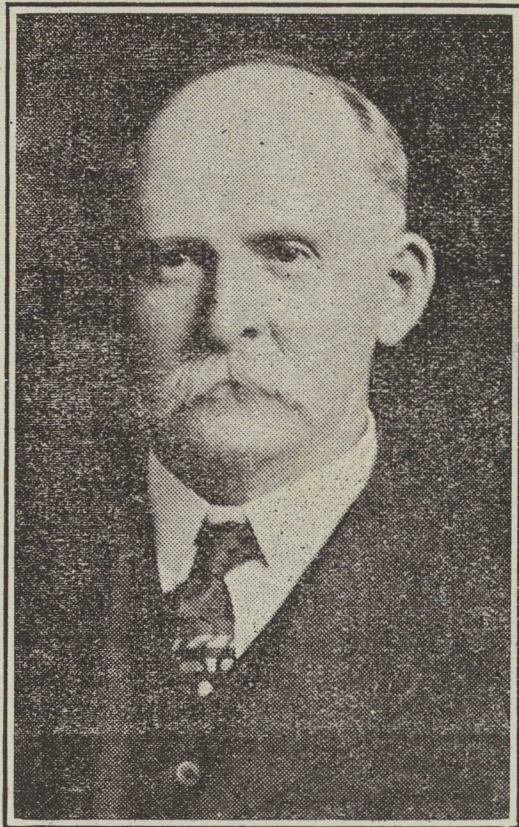

This is to be our 24th Annual Camp Meeting at this grand old rally ground, twenty-four successful meetings, never a failure from any point, steady, grand progress. There has always been souls saved and sanctified every year. Grand men and women have declared the gospel of full salvation to thousands of people; thousands of souls have been saved, sanctified and encouraged and refreshed. The Lord has surely put his seal upon this grand work, the extent of which will not be known until the great accounting day when every man will receive his reward according as his work shall be.

We trust that our older people will come to the meeting. If they lack the means the younger members should in some kindly way provide it. Only a few more meetings and partings for many of us. Some one is missing every year. The people who are now carrying on the work of the churches should come; this is their work also; they need the refreshing and help which will be found at the camp meeting. The younger people should come as it will soon be their time to take up the work that the older people must soon lay down and they need the fitting that experience imparts. We all need the refreshing which falls upon us in response to united faith and prayer, and we should heed the admonition of the Apostle, "Not forsaking the assembling of yourselves together as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another: and so much the more as ye see the day approaching." So come at the beginning and remain until the close.

OBITUARY.

THE LATE EDGAR MARSHALL TINGLEY.

Edgar M Tingley.

The Moncton Church has suffered another loss in the death of Brother Tingley, who was a man who truly loved the church, and never considered any work or sacrifice was too much to devote to the church. To fully appreciate what he was to the Moncton church one must be a regular attendant. Brother Tingley was a man whose "goings were established;" he could certainly be found at one of three places, at his work, his home or the church. He gave these three places his undivided time and attention. We could scarcely say too much of Brother Tingley's life and service in the places named. He was in the true sense "a servant of all" in the church and Sunday school, and is greatly missed by the people and the children and was greatly devoted to his class of boys. He had a deep interest in all the services and always took part. He prefaced almost every testimony he gave by the words, "I am glad I'm alive." These words will live long in the memory of all who have heard him. We clipped the following from The Daily Transcript and Times:

MONCTON LOSES HIGHLY RESPECTED CITIZEN.

Mr. Edgar M. Tingley, C. G. R. Foreman,
Passes Away at His Home.

Moncton has lost one of its most respected citizens in the person of Mr. Edgar Marshall Tingley, who passed away at his home on Park street shortly before eight o'clock this morning (June 8th.)

Mr. Tingley had been in failing health for the past few months. Many in Moncton and throughout the province will be shocked to learn of his death.

The late Mr. Tingley was born at Harvey, Albert Co., on August 18th, 1859. He went to the United States when quite a young man and later returned to St. John.

On March 12th, 1882, he married Huldah Kinnie, of Harvey, Albert County. His parents were Samuel and Nancy Tingley, of Harvey, Albert County.

Mr. Tingley was converted at the Baptist Church, Harvey, in the year 1878. When he arrived in Moncton, twenty years ago, he became a member of the Reformed Baptist Church of this city.

Mr. Tingley was an employee of the C. G. R. shops where he was held in high esteem by all the men. He has held this position for the last few years. He leaves to mourn besides his wife, one son, Gordon M., and five brothers. The brothers are Daniel R., of Rhode Island; J. Calvin, of Arlington Heights, Mass.; Otis K., and Asa A., of Midway, Albert Co., and Miles E., of Riverside, Albert County.

Since coming to Moncton, Mr. Tingley has been a member of the Reformed Baptist Church, and has taken an active part in all departments of the church work.

Mr. R. B. Kinnie, instructor of Manual Training of this city, is a nephew.

THE FUNERAL OF EDGAR M. TINGLEY.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of Edgar M. Tingley on Sunday afternoon from his late residence, 35 Park street, Rev. S. A. Baker, pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church, conducted the service at the house and the grave. The hymns sung were: "He'll Wipe Away All Tears" and "We shall Walk the Realms of Glory." The floral tributes were beautiful, testifying to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. An extra barouche was required for the floral tributes. Interment took place at Elmwood Cemetery.

The pallbearers were Messrs. F. W. S. Colpitts, L. Donald, I. A. Steeves, Alex. Barnett, A. G. Good and D. H. Berry.

The late Mr. Tingley was a prominent and active member of the Reformed Baptist Church. On Sunday evening an impressive memorial service was conducted in that church by the pastor, Rev. S. A. Baker.

Stephen G. Fowler.

Aged eighty-one years and six months, died at his home at Carlisle, Carleton Co., N. B., of heart trouble. He leaves to mourn his death a widow and five children, three sons and two daughters, also seventeen grandchildren, besides a large circle of friends. His end was peace. Funeral was held at Cloverdale Union Church on May 28th. Rev. J. D. Wetmore conducted the services. Text, Isaiah 33rd Chapter, 17th verse, "Thine eyes shall see the King in his beauty; they shall behold the land that is very far off."

Mrs. Evans.

Alice, beloved wife of Richard Evans, passed away at her daughter's home June 8th, aged 49 years. Mrs. Evans had been ill for several months at her home in the west, and came home recently, wishing to die among her dear ones. She suffered intensely with cancer. She leaves to mourn their loss her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Spurgeon Marr, of Nackawick, and one son, Sergeant Carl E. Evans, of C. M. S. C. Halifax, besides five brothers and two sisters. Much sympathy is felt for her family, especially her husband, who was on his way home from the west, and got only as far as Montreal. The funeral was largely attended, and was conducted by Rev. I. F. Keirstead at Millville. Sister Evans died trusting in Jesus.
