

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

The monthly missionary meeting was held in the Moncton Church on the 10th inst. The attendance was good, and an excellent meeting was enjoyed by all. Sister W. D. Blakney presided. A good offering was given. The meetings of the church are unabating in interest.

Rev. S. H. and Mrs. Clark had the unpleasant experience of being driven from their residence at Calais, Me., by fire last week. Their work still continues to succeed.

Rev. H. S. Dow returned home from Grand Manan on the 2nd inst.

We hope all will carry out the proposals of Rev. B. Colpitts' letter.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard says: Our meetings are good. We are expecting to have baptism here as soon as the river opens.

I never enjoyed better health in my life. We had three at the altar at Robie last Sunday, two converts, one for the blessing of sanctification.

The editor visited Norton on the 2nd inst. and held three services with Brother Sutherland, who has preached in the Reformed Baptist Church for the past six months. The interest is encouraging and the people will be glad to have one of our ministers to take the work there at the expiration of Brother Sutherland's engagement, May 1st. Brother Sutherland is much liked by the people.

A letter from Brother A. J. Marsten reports the meetings at Woodstock good.

The special services at North Head Church held by Pastor H. C. Mullen and Rev. H. S. Dow were productive of much help to many, although hindered much by bad roads and weather. Rev. L. T. Sabine baptized twelve persons at Brazil Lake, N. S., on the 8th inst., and received twelve into the membership of the church of that place.

Rev. E. W. Lester reports the meetings at Penniac as a grand success and interest unabating.

Licentiate Perley Briggs reports very encouraging conditions on the Royalton circuit.

A UNION REVIVAL AT CARIBOU, MAINE

A very successful union revival has just closed at Caribou, Maine. While the services have been held in the Methodist Church, the Methodist, Baptist and Free Baptist churches have united in the services and will share in the results. 424 persons are reported to have professed conversion. Rev. J. M. Currie and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mosher were the special workers.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Our missionary societies will please press their work, for we have only two or three more monthly meetings before the meeting of the Alliance.

We should have more for the home mission work this year. There are many new places where holiness has never been preached, and there are fields which are not self-supporting, and some that need reviving. Let us press the work this coming summer with renewed vigor.

Brother Sherwood holds a responsible position in connection with the schools of that city, and is still active in holiness mission work.

We received a very interesting letter from Brother and Sister J. H. Seeley, of Inglewood, Cal., this week. All their friends will be glad to know they are enjoying good health in body and joyous victory in their souls.

Rev. S. H. Clark will go to Beulah as soon as the frost is out to prepare for the Alliance and Camp Meeting.

One writer fears that we will make an idol of Beulah. We will sound the alarm if we discover any danger.

Thanks for gifts and renewals for the Highway. We need a general response.

We will make a list of contributors for the next issue. Get yours in before the 28th.

Only five more issues of the Highway before the Alliance.

erected and general rejoicing is manifest in the whole neighborhood.

There are quite a number more hearts that are deeply moved, and we are praying and trusting that they may be soon brought into the light. Some have been led into the experience of perfect love, and at last evening's meeting most of those who have professed conversion came forward seeking sanctification. To God be all the glory.

Saved and kept through Jesus.
