

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Six persons were baptized by Pastor S. A. Baker on the evening of the 30th.

Rev. H. S. Dow suffered a relapse and is still very weak, but is in hopes to be able to get away to Grand Manan for Sunday, Feb. 4th.

A brother writing from Hartland Church says:

Brother Trafton is with us; our meetings are good. The old fire is still with us. I am determined to keep it burning in my soul. We have shouts of victory quite often. A good many of our older ones have gone to heaven, and some have moved away, but the fountain is still open. We hope to see you once more at Beulah—the dear old spot where many battles have been fought out and victory came to many souls.

In a letter from Brother P. J. Trafton, he says, "The meetings are good all round the circuit. I have the blessing on my soul."

Rev. H. Smith Dow was not able to meet his dates at Grand Manan on account of a severe case of lagrippe.

Rev. S. H. Clark and wife are meeting with excellent success in their meetings and Sunday School at Calais, Maine.

Rev. E. W. Lester says:

Our meetings continue good with good old fashioned altar services. The Lord is surely blessing us.

The Reformed Baptist praying band conducted services at the Friends Church, Fairmount, Sunday morning. They will conduct services at the hall in Perth, N. B., Wednesday evening of this week.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard, of Fort Fairfield, spent a week attending the Sunday meetings in Boston. While there he met a friend he had baptized 15 years ago, and another who was converted in a meeting in which he assisted Brother Archer 20 years ago in Moncton, N. B.

Rev. T. W. Moses and wife wish to acknowledge the kindness of a number of their church members who presented them with a sum of money as a Christmas gift, as a token of love to the pastor and wife; they also received a number of other useful gifts which they appreciate very much.

Rev. T. W. Moses baptized four converts on the 14th inst. and expects others later on. The interest in his services is good. He says: "I am finding out that God is ready and willing to save all that will let him save them. His power is unlimited."

Dr. Sanders in a letter dated Nov. 24th says: Last Sunday was communion at Balmoral. We had a good day with full house. Five new converts were baptized and taken into the church and a child was presented to the Lord. Next Sunday I hope to be at Ntungwini, across the Pongolo, for our big Sunday.

Evangelist F. W. Foster will go to Oxford, N. S., on the 31st inst. to conduct a ten days' series of meetings in the Pentecostal church with Pastor G. W. Henderson.

The Church and congregation of St. John gave their pastor, Rev. G. B. and Mrs. Trafton a generous donation recently.

Brother Trafton says: "I am not discouraged preaching holiness, if thousands do go the other way; it is the Lord's way of Salvation."

Rev. H. C. Mullen has got up a very nice duplex envelope for church offerings printed in black and red. It is very neat, and would be a fine thing for all of our churches. Brother Mullen says:

We are enjoying good regular services with good congregations. I am a firm believer in the systematic giving plan—and think the duplex envelope a great idea.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead organized a Sunday School at Hunter's Home, Queens County, when at that place recently.

THE MONEY ARRIVED.

All of our readers who contributed toward the purchase of Balmoral Farm in South Africa will be glad to know that the money has reached Dr. Sanders all right. The power of attorney has doubtless reached him before this time, and the next thing we will look for is the news that the Farm is the property of the Reformed Baptist Alliance.

OBITUARY.

The funeral service of Wallace, aged 18 years, son of Mrs. George Kinney, who died at the Fort Fairfield Hospital of typhoid fever, was conducted at the Robie Church on the afternoon of January 7th by the writer. This boy was a very fine fellow and had just finished fitting himself as a telegraph operator when he was stricken down. Much sympathy is felt for his folks as he was the only child.

G. S. HILYARD.

Mrs. Nelson Hillman.

Effie Crawford Hillman, a well known and highly respected resident of South Newbridge, passed peacefully away on Sunday night, aged 41 years.

She had been in failing health for several months.

She was a loving wife and a good neighbor. She was the youngest daughter of Mr. Arthur McLean. She leaves a sorrowing husband, an aged father and two sisters, Mrs. Jarvis H. Tompkins and Mrs. Arthur Porter, both of Minot, N. D.

Wilcox.

A letter from Eugene E. Wilcox, of Wood Island, Grand Manan, reports the recent death of his youngest child, aged 3 months. This makes the fourth of Brother and Sister Wilcox's family of seven children that has been called away from them.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 26th, 1917.

One of the dear old saints, Sister Aunty Brown, aged over 90 years, who is exceedingly bright in her mind and Christian experience, and can quote scripture and the old hymns by the hour, lives with her niece Mrs. D. H. Nixon, of Hartland.

Aunty Brown lives so near heaven she sometimes expresses a wish to be there.

Brother D. H. Hayes says:

Enclosed find my renewal for the Highway. We appreciate it very much in our home and are always glad when it comes that we may hear from the brethren in other fields. I am glad to say that Jesus saves and his blood cleanseth me. Glory to his name.

Brother J. F. Bullock had a mysterious explosion of gas in his house from which Mrs. Bullock suffered from burns, and the young woman who was in the kitchen at the time was so badly burned she was taken to the hospital. The damages to his house and furniture is estimated at $2,000.

Sister I. F. Keirstead is in the Victoria Hospital at Fredericton, where she underwent a surgical operation on the 26th. We pray for her speedy recovery.

Sister F. W. Foster, who accompanied her husband during the services at Moncton, expects to return to her home in Fort Fairfield, Maine, on the 31st.

Mr. Lawson Brown says: Please find enclosed renewal for the Highway. I like the reading of its clean pages. It is as clean religiously as I can find. Would that more would read it.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE HIGHWAY FUND.

Several brethren and sisters when paying their subscriptions for the Highway have added small contributions to the Highway Fund. If these gifts come in any considerable number we will open a list in the Highway.
