

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

The Hartland Praying Band held their monthly meeting on April 9th at the home of Brother Harvey Belyea.

Rev. P. J. Trafton is planning special services by the assistance of Rev. H. S. Dow at Lower Brighton and Gordonsville.

Evangelists H. S. and Mrs. Mullen expect to be ready to take up the evangelistic work again about the middle of May. They will probably join Brother Dow in the work about that time.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard is enjoying excellent health again and his meetings are good.

Rev. S. A. Baker has received a unanimous call from the Moncton church for a second year as their pastor.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead baptized 17 converts at Millville and gave the right hand of fellowship to 14 new members on the 22nd.

Millville revival has again demonstrated that there is no difficulty in financing a meeting if salvation is put before the financial in its purpose. In this way they were more than victors, for they covered their expenses and as a little side gift presented Brother Ziba Orser with $40.00.

Rev. H. S. Dow preached at Lower Brighton Sunday, 8th, and at Woodstock for Brother Wiggins on the 15th, and at Southampton on the 22nd.

Rev. A. H. Trafton says the work at Meductic is very encouraging; good interest; some have started in the Christian life recently. He preaches there every two weeks.

Revs. P. J. Trafton and H. S. Dow are beginning a series of special services at Hartland, N. B.

The editor and Mrs. Baker celebrated their 36th wedding anniversary on the 26th.

Rev. B. Colpitts, of Woodstock, N. B., visited Rev. H. H. Cosman at Littleton, Me., and preached in his church at that place on the 22nd, morning and evening.

Jonesport Church has been presented with a parsonage and Sister Slipp reports good interest in her work.

A NEW PRAYING BAND.

Tuesday evening we organized the Millville Union Praying Band with a membership of forty-one, thirty of these being new converts. It brought joy to our hearts to hear each one testifying for Jesus, all with shining faces and glad hearts. Bro. R. Jones was appointed President; Bro. C. Jones Secretary, and Brother H. Tompkins Treasurer.

The first meeting of the band was invited to the home of Brother and Sister Tompkins the first Tuesday of May. One young man asked for baptism and several special requests for prayer came in.

We believe this to be a splendid move in the right direction. A praying band is the life of any church and proves a source of strength.

Riverside Camp Meeting Aug. 3-12.

The Reformed Baptist Alliance opens June 27th.

PERSONAL.

All will be glad to learn that Dr. J. E. Jewett, who underwent a serious operation at the military hospital at St. John, is on the way to recovery.

We appreciate the following good words for the Highway from Rev. G. A. Sellar, of Kensington, P. E. I.

"We continue to appreciate the coming into our home of your paper, because it continues to stand so strong and true as an 'advocate of scriptural holiness.'"

Mrs. H. E. Story, of Whitier, California, came to St. John, N. B., last week on account of the serious illness of her brother, Dr. Jewett.

Brothers W. T. Andrews and L. S. Kinney, of Fort Fairfield, Maine, and John Golding, of Peel, N. B., and Ziba Orser and wife, of Hartland, attended and assisted in the revival meeting at Millville.

Miss Ida Dickinson, of Blackie, Alberta, is visiting her old home and relatives at Lower Brighton. Miss Dickinson has been in the west for ten years.

Brother Charles Mutch, of Woodstock, has so far recovered as to be out again after a tedious run of typhoid fever.

We received a nice letter from Brother F. E. MacLardy written in England April 5th. His address for the present is 709936 Advanced Signal Base, France. He says: I am determined to live close to God and keep my covenant in my new surroundings in France where so many snares await one. Hold him up in your prayers.

We were very glad to receive a letter last week from Erland Maxon, of the 26th Battalion, who has recovered from his wounds. He has been in the conflict at the front for two years and twice wounded. He is one of our true Christian boys.

Brother W. N. McLean, of North Head, Grand Manan, passed through Moncton on the 17th inst. on his way to Little River, Quebec, where he will be engaged in business for two months. We enjoyed a very pleasant call from him while in the city.

Miss Mabel E. Lewin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewin, of Benton, N. B., passed through Moncton on her way back to England on the 26th. Miss Lewin has been nursing in the military hospitals in France, having gone over in the Harvard unit two years ago. She came over with the wounded Canadians last week and had a few days with her parents at home.

The many friends of Rev. H. H. Cosman will be pleased to know that he is to remain for the fourth year as pastor of the F. B. Church. Mr. Cosman has proved himself to be an energetic and efficient leader, not only in the spiritual interests of the church, but in its financial affairs. —Aroostook Times.

Brother Cosman is now engaged in special services at the Ridge, Maine, assisted by Rev. E. E. Harris.

Brother A. S. Parlee is now a pulman car conductor between Halifax and Montreal.

Sister Mrs. Edward Conley says: "I love the Highway not only because it keeps me in touch with its dear people but also its plain teaching of holiness."

MISSIONARY LETTERS.

We received just after the form was closed letters written Feb. 20th and 24th from Dr. and Sister Sanders and others. One thing mentioned is the death of our missionary horse. The Lord knew it before we did and provided $200 to purchase two horses.

When there is nothing better to be said about a pleasure than there is no harm in it, there is not enough good in it to justify a Christian in indulging in it. Look out for that no harm Devil.—H. S. Dow.

DON'T FORGET.

We trust that our people will not forget the Missionary funds. The salaries must be paid in our foreign work, and we want to press the spread of holiness in the home field as never before. We did nobly last year in purchasing our missionary farm. Let us make a grand effort this year in the home work.

SEVENTY-SECOND BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED.

The brethren and sisters of the Victoria church gave Sister S. W. Shaw a surprise when they gathered at her home to help her celebrate her 72nd birthday. They spent a very pleasant evening, and before leaving, Rev. P. J. Trafton on behalf of the company presented her in a few well chosen remarks a sum of money as an expression of their love and esteem, Auntie was all broken up, and could only weep her thanks. After prayer by the pastor the company retired to their respective homes.

A GENEROUS GIFT.

We recently received the generous gift of over $200 to be sent to Dr. Sanders to be used for missionary work in connection with our mission not already provided for, the donor feeling that God led him to give it in this way. While obedience is better than sacrifice," it may also require sacrifice.

S. A. BAKER,
Treasurer.

MARRIED.

Pierce-Gray.

At the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Israel Gray, East Brenton, Mr. Thos. H. Pierce, of Cedar Lake, and Miss Emma Gray, of Brazil Lake, were united in marriage on April 21st. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. T. Sabine, of Port Maitland. Only immediate relatives were present.

Nevers-Pelkie.

At the home of the bride's parents, Gordonsville, Car. Co., Sylvia B., second daughter of Frank and Susan Pelkie, was united in marriage to Arthur F. Nevers, of Goldstream, Car. Co., Wednesday, at 4 o'clock p. m., April 11th, 1917. Rev. P. J. Trafton was the officiating minister. Mr. and Mrs. Nevers will reside at Goldstream.
