

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

On account of not being able to get assistance at the right time Pastor L. T. Sabine, of Port Maitland, N.S., decided not to hold the tent meeting he was planning until immediately after camp meeting at Riverside, 1919.

Rev. F. T. Wright spent last week with his father, W. H. Wright, at Fort Fairfield, Maine.

Rev. S. H. Clark reports services good and attendance since Beulah Camp meeting very good.

Reports from the tent meeting at Middle Southampton up to Aug. 28th says: "We are at work in the old tent again; the interest is good for such a busy time of the year; there is some move in the meetings all the time. We had a big crowd all day Sunday, the 25th. Quite like camp meeting."

The walls of the Meductic Church are nearly up; they could be finished in a short time if workmen could be obtained.

Services are being held in the new church at Jonesport, Maine.

Pastor S. A. and Mrs. Baker, and some members of the Moncton church, visited Lutz Mountain church and held service on August 28th.

Rev. H. C. Archer spent last week at Beulah Camp Ground, returning home on the 7th for the Sunday services.

Sister I. F. Keirstead returned on Monday, 2nd inst., from Jonesport, Maine, where she spent two Sunday with the Jonesport Church. While there she held two missionary meetings, one at Beals and one at Jonesport, beside the other services. The people appreciated Sister Keirstead's visit very much.

A good day was enjoyed at Moncton on the 8th. Brother H. N. Loomer led the laymen's meeting at 10 a. m., followed by a well attended communion service at 11 a. m., conducted by the pastor. Three persons requested prayers at the evening service.

The second district quarterly meeting convened with the Grey's Mills Church on the 12th inst. Probably some special services will follow the quarterly meeting.

PERSONALS.

Five new subscriptions from Sister P. C. MacKenzie, of Saskatchewan.

One new subscription from Sister J. C. Bent, of Everett, Mass.

Rev. H. S. Dow, one new subscription. We should have a thousand new subscriptions this year.

Mrs. Fred L. Houghton says: "We give the Highways away after reading them, they are good papers. We think it a good way of spreading the gospel of holiness."

Rev. G. W. Henderson has moved to River John, N.S. He sent us a new subscription this week.

Brother Henderson says: "My testimony is, Jesus saves me. His precious blood cleanses my heart from all sin; to Him be all the glory."

Mrs. P. J. Trafton returned on Friday, Aug. 23rd, from Southbridge, Mass., where she had been to attend the funeral of her mother on Aug. 18th.

Mrs. Claud McMullen has returned from the hospital in Woodstock, where she underwent a serious operation, much improved.

We are glad to hear from our readers from afar off and those who are near. Among those from whom we have recently received letters are Mrs. Simon McLeod, of Long Beach, California, who is dear to many of our readers, who was one of the first who entered into the blessing of "perfect love" in New Brunswick. Another letter we appreciate highly is from Sister Mrs. Adelia Tracy, of East San Diego, California. Sister Tracy was formerly a resident of Waterville, Carleton County, who also was among the first to embrace the fulness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ in New Brunswick. Three sisters have stood unwaveringly in the experience and testimony for over 30 years, and have been regular readers of the Highway from its first issue until the present.

Still another letter—from Sister P. C. Mackenzie, of Brownlee, Saskatchewan. I think Sister MacKenzie was formerly of Kings Co., N. B. She is another faithful and devoted follower of Christ and deeply interested in the holiness work, and a constant reader of the Highway. Enclosed in Sister MacKenzie's letter was Five New Subscriptions for the Highway. The true children of God gladly receive our holiness paper, but it is hard to get it into the homes of the unconverted.

Sister MacKenzie desires the prayers of the holiness people as she is to undergo a surgical operation in October. Speaking of the Highway she says: "I don't know of a better paper to put before my children in their homes than the Highway. They all like it, because it is free from all advertisements and it teaches pure holiness."

Another letter of special interest is from our dear young brother, Chester Culberson, now in camp at Bramshott, England. He says: "Your welcome letter came yesterday. I am very glad to hear from you, also to know you had a good time at Beulah Camp Meeting. I would have loved to be there, but Jesus knows what is best. I have not received much mail of late. Tonight I received a letter from my sister. I will have to hurry as it will soon be time for Bible study. I have not been there this week. so I am planning on going tonight. I am well spiritually and just want to live for him each day. It pays no matter what your situation in life may be. Jesus is very precious to me here in the army, being a Christian has kept me from many sins since I came to England. I just want to live for him who died for me.

At differnt times I have a good chance to speak to the boys. Jesus is my comfort and stay these days. How I praise him for saving me. I cannot tell you how he blesses me here in the army life. I like to get the Highway to get the news about our churches."

Sister Mrs. C. E. Freeze and Master Harold Freeze returned from Beulah Camp Ground last week, where they spent several weeks.

There being no man available to leave in charge of the grounds and services this season after the close of the camp meeting, Sister Freeze accepted the responsibility and conducted the business and arranged for the services, manifesting commendable executive ability.

Brother Russell N. Brown spent Sunday, the 8th inst., with Pastor and Mrs. Baker at Moncton. Brother Brown returned to Sackville Monday to resume his studies and position on the teaching staff at Mount Allison Academy.

The fourth district quarterly meeting will convene with the church at New Tusket, N. S., Sept. 26th.

Rev. F. T. Wright, Mrs. Wright and children, Otis and Eula, of Seal Cove, Grand Manan, were guests at J. W. Grant's on Wednesday, 4th inst.—Carleton Observer.

A letter from Dr. Sanders has come to us dated July 3rd, stating that he had received money that we sent him on April 19th, two months and a half on the way.

Rev. A. H. and Mrs. Trafton are at Salem, Kings Co., where they will remain a few days. Brother Trafton preached at Salem Sunday morning and Head of Millstream in the evening, the 1st inst.

Sister Mrs. J. C. Maxon came to Fredericton, to attend the funeral of her only daughter, Mrs. J. D. Beardsley, and has now returned to Haverhill, Mass. Many of our readers who are acquainted with Sister Maxon will sincerely sympathize with her. Sister Maxon says: "The Lord is very precious to me in my loneliness."

A letter today (10th) from Sister Mrs. S. Hayden Shaw, who is specially loved by a large number of our readers, says: "That we (Brother Shaw and herself) get over to Hartland to church nearly every Sunday. I still teach my S. S. class, which I enjoy very much, and have to praise God for. Jesus is very real and precious to me, and heaven is not far away." Sister Shaw reminds the editor that 49 years ago we were passengers on a steamer which came near being wrecked in the great Saxby Gale. And adds, "The Lord preserved our lives for some purpose." The editor was then a boy of 16 years of age.

"Success in life is never determined by what one leaves behind when he comes to die, but by what he takes along."
