

QUARTERLY MEETING.

The quarterly meeting of District No. 1 convened at Meductic, York Co., Thursday evening, May 30th, at eight o'clock. The President being absent, Rev. H. C. Archer was asked to take the service, which he did, and gave a grand talk on Matt. 7-24, 29. The next service was held Friday at 2.30 p. m., Rev. W. B. Wiggins, the president, having arrived, took charge of the service. This service was largely given over to prayer. Rev. I. F. Kierstead took charge of the night service and gave a helpful sermon from Eph. 6-9. This was followed by a testimony service. At 10.30 Saturday morning Brother Wiggins took the service and it was helpful, a meeting of real fellowship. The business session was held in the afternoon at 2.30, the president in the chair. Rev. P. J. Trafton was elected secretary pro tem. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Roll call found the following ministers present (Rev. H. C. Archer had to leave for home on the morning train): Revs. W. B. Wiggins, B. A., C. S. Hilyard, I. F. Kierstead, E. W. Lester, H. S. Dow, H. S. Mullen.

Delegates present:

Woodstock—A. J. Marsten, Mrs. Chas. Mutch.

Victoria—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tilley, Hartland—Mrs. P. J. Trafton.

Gordonsville—Mrs. Frank Pelkie, Mrs. Kenneth Lovely, Mrs. Ida Pelkie.

Fort Fairfield—Edward Higgins.

Lower Brighton—Mrs. Darius Downey.

Meductic—Mrs. T. Dickinson, Allen Dow, Fred Bragdon.

Greenbush—Mrs. David Phillips, Mrs. Wendall Phillips.

Marysville—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell.

Fredericton—D. F. Knight.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing quarter: President, Rev. H. S. Dow; Secretary, Rev. P. J. Trafton; Treasurer, Fred Bragdon; Highway Agent, Rev. E. W. Lester. The president appointed the following as a devotional committee: Brother Allan Dow, Edward Higgins and A. J. Marsten.

The following churches reported by letter: Fredericton, Marysville, Woodstock, Lower Brighton, Hartland, Victoria, Fort Fairfield. These for the most part were encouraging, the pastors had been faithful, special work had been carried on, Rev. H. S. Dow and Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen had been in special work and good results had followed, sinners being converted, wanderers reclaimed and believers sanctified, to God be all the glory. Verbal reports were received from Brother E. Higgins, Rev. I. F. Keirstead, Mrs. Kenneth Lovely, Mrs. Frank Pelkie, Brother Allen Dow, Rev. H. S. Dow. We would make mention of the work at Meductic, particularly as they are starting to build a cement block church there, have received more than $300 to start it, and a goodly amount was received during the quarterly meeting, which will be acknowledged in the Highway. The Devotional Committee reported as follows: Preaching Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the tent by Rev. E. W. Lester; Sunday at 9.30 a. m. love feast led by Rev. H. S. Mullen; 11 preaching by Rev. C. S. Hilyard; 2.30 p. m., preaching by Brother P. J.

Trafton and at 7.30 preaching by Rev. C. S. Hilyard.

On invitation of Brother Kierstead it was resolved that the next quarterly meeting be held with the church at Upper Hainsville early in September. On motion adjourned to meet at Upper Hainsville.

The weather was not very good but a goodly number came out on Saturday evening, when Brother Lester had charge of the meeting, preaching on the choice made by Moses, the reasons of it.—Hebrew 11-23, 26. Sunday came on fine and clear and the good time began at 9.30 in the love feast led by Brother Mullen. The preaching was good and clear and a big crowd was in attendance all day. Rev. C. S. Hilyard took for his text for the morning service Acts 24-25, Brother P. J. Trafton Numbers 13-30 and Brother Hilyard in the evening I. Kings 18-38. Deep conviction was on the people and at the altar call several came forward as seekers. Brother and Sister Mullen added much to the service with special selections. Brother Mullen had charge of the singing throughout. A vote of thanks was tendered the friends at Meductic for their kindness in entertaining the quarterly meeting. A number came by auto from Maple Ridge, Millville, Hartland, Rosedale, Fort Fairfield. It was a grand meeting all through. Rev. H. S. Dow was untiring in his efforts to see that all were supplied. He is continuing the meeting with the assistance of Brother and Sister Mullen. To God be all the glory, keep on praying.

P. J. TRAFTON, Secy.

"MY SON"—A FATHER'S PRIDE.

My son, my little son so small!
You are to me my life, my all;
And such a helpless little thing!
But, oh! what wondrous love you bring!
And oh, what joys, and hopes untold!
My little son, just one year old.

My son, my manly little son,
Today your life's work has begun.
So put away your games and toys,
And with the other little boys
Pay heed to all your teachers say.
My little son is seven today.

My son, my noble, darling son;
So full of life, and health, and fun;
At home, at lessons, or at work,
No duty would you ever shirk.
Success will surely crown your way;
My boy is fourteen years today.

My son! my son! my precious son!
Would God the battle now were won!
Your country called, and you have gone,
I watched as you marched along.
Oh God! protect and keep my son,
My soldier boy, just twenty-one.
