I had the pleasure of baptising four persons on May 19th and have received ten into the membership of the church. Things are also looking encouraging at the other places where I preach. There is a life, called christian, where every public act, in prayer, or testimony, is exceedingly crossing. There is another type of christian life in which the greater cross is to keep still.

PERSONALS.

Brother G. A. Babcock says: Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway. I am still trusting in Jesus and the merits of the precious blood to keep, and it is the blood that cleanseth. The older we grow our faith becomes stronger in God and less in this world. He has never failed me once, hallelujah! Thus far I triumph with a conquering faith.

Mrs. (Rev.) P. W. Briggs is visiting her parents at Millville, N. B.

Sister Anna McLeod's address is now Kanazawa, Japan. We have just received a very interesting letter from her written April 27th last.

Sister A. H. Trafton has so far recovered as to be out of the hospital where she has been for several weeks.

A fool may be known by 6 things: Anger, without cause; speech, without profit; change, without progress; inquiry, without object; putting trust in a stranger, and mistaking foes for friends.—Arabian Proverb.

Ah, dear spring, stay thy flying feet;
Try all thy cords; play leisurely;
Though if thy preludes are so sweet
What will the finished music be?

OBITUARY.

George Jones.

On Thursday, May 16th, at St. John street, George Jones, aged two years, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jones. The little fellow was ill for a short time with whooping cough, when pneumonia set in and his weakened constitution gave way and death soon followed. The father was ill at the same time in the hospital with typhoid fever and thus the wife and mother had to bear a two-fold burden, but the Lord helped our sister and gave her grace to bear her sorrow. The funeral service took place on Saturday, 18th. Several appropriate hymns were sung by members of the choir and an address by her pastor. Sister Jones was formerly Miss Marion Tedford, of Sandford, N. S., to whom and her husband and family Christian sympathy is extended in their sorrow.

Mrs. Louise E. Case.

The funeral of Sister Mrs. Louise E. Case, wife of the late George F. Case, took place from her late residence, 101 Elliott Row, St. John, N. B. The service was conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. G.B. Trafton and Adjutant Green, of the Salvation Army. Interment was made at Cedar Hill cemetery.

Sister Case was a daughter of the late William Baird, of Springhill, Kings County, N. B. She was converted young in life, and united with the F. C. Baptist Church, and when the separation took place in December, 1888, she with her husband became a charter member of the Reformed Baptist Church, of which she remained a faithful Christian and a strong advocate of holiness, and was always ready to praise God for his abounding love. She is survived by two sons, Frederick and James, and one daughter, Miss Susie Case, to mourn the loss of a faithful mother.

Dr. E. F. Walker.

He came all the way across the continent on one occasion to preach during a meeting at Beulah. His sermons still linger in our memory. Dr. Walker was 66 years old. A wife and three daughters and four sons survive him. His death took place at Shelterbrook near Glendora, Calif., May 6th.

This is a large amount for a small school that closed during the winter months. It shows a commendable missionary interest in teachers and scholars.
