EDITORIAL.

BEULAH CAMP MEETINGS.

The Camp and Tent Meeting season is nearing again, and these meetings will fill a greater need this year than ever before. There are so many sad and broken hearts and broken homes which need the comfort of the great Comforter, the sympathetic fellowship of Christian love, to a more than ordinary degree. They need the help afforded by these gatherings of the most zealous and devoted people of God from all sections of the country, and from all evangelical communions, where denominational distinctions are lost sight of, and the great object of personal salvation, and Christian experience are the predominating work. Thus people are brought definitely to the point to seek pardon, and to make a definite and complete consecration to God, and to seek and find a complete cleansing from all sin, and all unrighteousness, and the incoming comforter brings the souls of people in full reconciliation with God, the will, in perfect submission to the divine will and "perfecting holiness in the fear of the Lord."

The Ministers and Lay-Workers.

The ministers and lay-workers should come to these camp and tent meetings with the one object in view, coming "in the power of the fullness of the blessing of Christ." With their own cares and troubles laid aside, and every selfish purpose left behind, and enter the work with their whole heart.

Let all the people come to help and get help; don't let any trifling thing keep you away. When the old time "lie" called can't go presents itself—down it and cut the "t" off and make it "can" and saying "I can, I can, I can, and then begin to say "I will," "I will" and come. Thus you will get a great victory over that thing which has robbed you of many blessings and much spiritual fellowship and spiritual enjoyment.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Odbur Sharp.

At her residence, Houlton Road, Woodstock, N. B., of pneumonia, Mrs. Jueletta C., beloved wife of Brother Odbur Sharp, aged 68 years. She leaves to mourn a devoted husband, one adopted daughter and two sisters, Mrs. James Dysart, of Skowhegan, Maine, and Mrs. Chesley Hawkins, of Simonds, N. B., and two brothers. In the death of Sister Sharp we lose a devoted Christian, a kind neighbor, and true friend. Their former residence was Nortondale, York Co., where she was a charter member of the Reformed Baptist Church, and a constant attendant of the services. Her home was always open to ministers of all denominations. She never failed to pray at the family altar, and to testify to the cleansing power of the blood of Christ in the services. We can never forget the kindness of Sister Sharp and her dear daughter, Jessie, who a few years ago passed to her reward. She has gone to meet her on the other shore, and we can surely say:

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none ever wake to weep.
A calm and undisturbed repose
Unbroken by the last of foes."

The funeral service was conducted by the writer.

J. H. COY.

Frank E. McLardy.

Word has been received that Brother Frank E. McLardy has been killed. He was in the signal service. Brother MacLardy was a genuine Christian, a member of the Woodstock Church, also of the Praying Band.

Arthur Cox.

At Skowhegan, Maine, on April 15th Arthur, son of John and Laura Cox, formerly at Nortondale, N. B., passed away in his 19th year. His remains were brought to their former home and the funeral took place on the 17th inst. from the home of Mr. Percy Stewart and was attended by the writer. He is survived by his father and two sisters, his mother having died some years ago. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved.

I. F. KEIRSTEAD.

Anna L. Stewart.

At Nortondale, N. B., on April 20th, Anna L., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Stewart, passed away in her 42nd year. A severe illness of spinal meningitis when only a child caused her to lose her sight at that time and later rendered her helpless, so she has been a continual care to her mother all through her life. Mrs. Stewart is now eighty-five years of age and is quite feeble, but her one anxiety has been to live that she might care for this helpless and suffering daughter until she came to her end. Thus God has granted to this loving mother the desire of her heart. The funeral was attended by the writer.

I. F. KEIRSTEAD.

"Never will God reject a soul that sincerely loves him."
