

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. B. and Sister Colpitts, of Woodstock, received congratulations from many friends on Dec. 31st on the fifty-fifth anniversary of their wedding.—The Highway joins in wishing them yet many years of their happy union.

All our readers will be interested in the victories being enjoyed by so many of our churches. Woodstock Church enjoyed an old time refreshing on New Year's Day.

Fort Fairfield Church is now enjoying a blessed season, which is awakening a large interest. The pastor, Rev. C. S. Hilyard, is being assisted by Rev. H. S. Dow, and Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen.

Sanford and Port Maitland, N. S., Churches have recently been refreshed by special services.

Hartland church is in a state of victory and blessing. Rev. P. J. Trafton is planning special services at Victoria, Lower Brighton and Gordonsville and elsewhere.

Rev. W. E. Smith, who was with us at Beulah last summer and has written excellent articles on "Placing The Blame" for the Highway, is going to visit New Brunswick again and will begin a meeting with Rev. P. J. Trafton on February 12th, and with Rev. W. B. Wiggins at Woodstock about March 10th.

Rev. G. B. Trafton preaches two Sundays in a month at Norton, and one Sunday each month at Grey's Mills, since the river closed. The people are being greatly encouraged and blessed under his ministry.

Rev. S. H. Clark had the unpleasant experience of having to close his church on the 6th inst. for lack of coal. Vessels with coal for Calais were frozen in the ice and cash was quite as scarce as coal.

We presume that all of our Ministers and their wives were generously remembered by their people on Christmas. Rev. W. B. and Sister Wiggins were generously remembered by the gifts of money from their Sunday school classes.

In a young people's meeting in the Woodstock Church Sunday afternoon, January 6th, five young people were converted, and a young man reclaimed. The meeting was led by Brother Zemro Clark.

A largely attended missionary meeting was held in the Moncton Church on the evening of the 8th inst. Mrs. W. D. Blakney presided, and an excellent program was given by the children and several excellent readings, a solo by Mrs. W. A. McCallum, a duet by Misses Grace and Nellie Good, and a map lesson on Africa by Mrs. Baker.

Rev. H. S. Dow preached at Meductic Christmas night. There was a full house and a good meeting.

Rev. Leon L. Alley is receiving every kindness from the people to whom he is ministering at Island Falls, Maine, and is having good evidence of the presence and blessing of the Lord on his work.

Beulah and Riverside Camp Meetings are already under consideration. The committee on evangelists have engaged Evangelist T. C. Henderson, of Columbus, Ohio, for Riverside, and are in correspondence with other evangelists for Beulah Camp Meeting.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard is in special services, and says: "We are all well. The meetings are good; Brother Dow is giving us good, strong and forceful preaching. Brother and Sister Mullen are winning their way into the hearts of the people. Last Sunday the attendance was so large that a large number were turned away. Some are at the altar every evening. Sixteen persons were at the altar on the evening of the 9th. Some who have been on the background are returning and old difficulties are being cleared away."

Rev W. W. Howe reports good meetings in St. John Church.

Rev. E. W. Lister reports much blessing and refreshing in the special services recently held at Marysville, where he was assisted by Evangelist and Mrs. A. P. Gouthey. The meeting closed Dec. 23rd.

Dr. C. J. Fowler says in a private letter: "I would like to arrange a general rally in your section, another season like we had at Chicago."—My heart says Amen! Brethren, if such a rally could be arranged and carried out, it would be a greater spiritual feast than New Brunswick ever knew.

PERSONALS.

Sister Mrs. Alex. Allen says: The dear Lord is very precious to me these days, glory to His precious name.

Sister William T. Andrews says: Find enclosed my renewal for the clean paper that comes to our home; it always brings cheering news. Praise God for a Salvation that saves and keeps from sin. I praise Him just now for what He has done for me, and for the way He keeps me.

Brother Alfred Thornton of Hartland continues in very poor health.

Brother Russell N. Brown spent the holidays at his home at Lower Brighton. He passed through this city on the 7th to resume his studies and teaching at Mount Allison Academy, Sackville, N. B.

Correction—In our last issue we stated that Mr. Herbert Thurston was principal of Truro High School. We should have said he was vice-principal of Windsor Academy.

We are always delighted to hear from our dear people who are blessed with having passed the "three score years and ten," of whom we have a considerable number. We have just received a letter from our dear Sister Mrs. Abraham Thurston, of Sanford, N.S., who says: "Just reading the Highway this morning, and enjoy it very much. I do not use glasses though I am eighty-eight years old this month, and my husband has passed his eighty-eighth birthday, and our sixtieth wedding anniversary was on New Year's Day."—We are delighted to join in hearty congratulations to our Brother and Sister Thurston, in the enjoyment of each other's companionship for this long period so rarely reached.

A renewal for the Highway is frequently of greater value than the money enclosed, it is the annual remembrance of dear brothers and sisters who may be widely separated bodily but still united in heart and labors. Among these is our dear Brother and Sister J. C. Bent, formerly of Nova Scotia, but for several years of Everett, Mass.

Sister P. C. MacKenzie, who has been a reader of the Highway for many years, has changed her address from Marquis to Brownlee, Sask.

Sister S. Hayden Shaw, of Hartland, was presented with a nice flashlight by her S. S. class, who spent a delightful evening at her home on Dec. 28th. Sister Shaw will continue to walk in the light.

Brother Charles O. Mutch says: Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway. As I read the testimonies of the saints it does me good. My testimony is that God saves me from sin, and sanctifies me, and I enjoy His presence in my heart. Glory to His dear name. I am going all the way with Him. I love His way; it is best.

Sister M. Ella Slipp is rejoicing over the progress being made with the new Church at Jonesport, Maine. She says: "Our Christmas concert was a splendid success, and I feel that it glorified God as well as being a blessing to us each. Our meetings are good."

Sister S. H. Clark was kindly remembered by her Sunday School Class by a gift of a nice lamp.

Brother and Sister Clark wish to express their thanks to friends who remembered them at Christmas time.

Brother D. F. Knight, of Fredericton, rejoices to have lived to enter his eighty-first year. We congratulate Brother Knight and a considerable number of others among our people who have thus been honored of God to pass the four-score mark. Pictures and short sketches of the lives of all these dear brothers and sisters would make very interesting reading for the Highway. Why not have them? We have the cuts of a few of them now.

Mrs. S. A. Baker's Sunday School class presented her with a nice gold-banded fountain pen with her monogram engraved on it.

Mrs. Edmond Hillman says: Please find enclosed my renewal for the Highway. I want it to come to my home as long as I live.

There was a general exchange of pulpits by the evangelistic churches of Moncton on the 13th. Rev. E. H. Cochrane preached in the Reformed Baptist Church, and his sermon was much enjoyed by the people.

Sisters John Good, Mrs. Power and Mrs. Frank Somers, of the Moncton church, are confined to their homes by sickness.
