

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. P. J. Trafton began special services at Hartland on the 13th, assisted by Rev. W. E. Smith, of Monroeton, Pa. Brother Smith was at one time pastor of the Methodist Church at Hartland.

The Moncton Adult Bible Class spent a very enjoyable evening at the parsonage on the 7th inst. Historic sketches of Jerusalem were read by Mrs. H. N. Loomer, A. G. Good, Mrs. W. D. Blakney, and Mrs. S. N. Grass. Duets were sung by Misses Grace and Nellie Good and W. A. and Mrs. McCallum. Short addresses were given by Brothers H. N. Loomer and Hazen Steeves. Several scripture selections were read, hymns sung and prayers offered.

Rev. S. H. Clark expects to begin special services at Calais, Maine, assisted by Evangelist F. W. Foster, on the 17th inst.

Rev. H. C. Archer received one new member into the Fredericton Church on the 10th inst. Brother Archer was at Hampton, Kings Co., last week in temperance work.

The Beals Island Church has been opened again after being closed on account of smallpox scare for five weeks. Rev. T. W. Moses says: "Our meetings are good and the Sabbath School is well attended. Thank God, we are on the victory side and kept by power divine."

Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen began a series of meetings at Lower Southampton on the 10th inst. Rev. H. Smith Dow joined them on the 12th. Their next meeting may be held at Wood Island, Grand Manan, N. B.

Rev. H. S. Dow assisted Rev. P. J. Trafton in special services at Victoria, Carleton County, last week and over Sunday, the 10th inst. The services were good with good results. Brother Trafton is an excellent example for our younger ministers, in that he is always at it on some part of his circuit. He evidently believes it is better to wear out than to (rest) rust out. Thank God for men who keep things moving.

The monthly missionary meeting was held by the Moncton Society on the 12th inst. Mrs. W. D. Blakney presided, and an excellent program was given by the young people and children.

It is no use, the holiness people are determined to give. They give to live, and live to give.

Central Bedeque, P. E. I.,

Rev. S. A. Baker:

Dear Sir: I am enclosing renewal for my subscription to the Highway. I like it very much.

Yours very truly,
THOS. MOYSE.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

We wish to acknowledge the kindness of the friends here who on the evening of Feb. 5th gathered at the parsonage and after spending the evening very pleasantly together presented us with a purse of $38.00. Mrs. Archer was also presented with a morroco hand bag by her Sunday School Class.

H. C. AND MRS. ARCHER.

PERSONALS.

We received a letter from Brother Frank E. MacLardy, from France, written January 16th. He was expecting to go to England on leave soon after writing. He spoke of meeting one of Mrs. Dr. Sanders' brothers, son of Rev. Aaron Kinney.

Brother Eugene Wilcox starts an auto fund for our African Mission Station with a gift of $50.00.

Rev. G. B. Macdonald has presented his resignation as pastor of the United Baptist Church at Sussex, having received a call to the church at Milo, Me. The Sussex church is most unwilling to accept the resignation and has requested the pastor to reconsider his decision. The removal of Brother Macdonald would be a distinct loss to our work here, and we hope that he may yet be induced to remain.—Maritime Baptist.

We are glad to hear from Brother S. B. Charlton, whose letter will be found in this issue.

Sister Mary H. McAllister writes a very encouraging letter in which she says: "I feel more grateful to my dear loving Saviour each day I live for showing me this blessed way of salvation and life, and making it possible for us to walk in the highway of holiness. Truly "God's ways are ways of pleasantness, and all his paths are peace."

I rejoice even in these dark days of unrest and trouble. "The foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, the Lord knoweth them that are his." My soul rejoices in the knowledge of sins forgiven, and a heart made clean by faith in the blood of Jesus my blessed Redeemer and Lord."

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Highway:

As it has been some time since I have reported myself through your columns it reminds me that while I am anxious to hear from the brethren that they might feel the same toward me.

Since Beulah Camp meeting I have been with the churches at Grey's Mills, Norton, and Mercer Settlement, and while I regret that I have not been able to hold special meetings with them, yet our regular services have been blessed and the brethren encouraged to stand in defence of "Holiness unto the Lord" notwithstanding our adversaries. I have not been able to take my appointments since the second Sunday in January, on account of taking a heavy cold and the severity of the weather. I am expecting (D V.) to take up the work again as soon as my health permits.

The brethren have been very kind to me while I have been working with them. The friends at Grey's Mills, Norton and Mercer remembered me in a very tangible way at Christmas as well as some others of our friends in St. John, and on Thursday evening, Feb. 7th, we had a pleasant surprise from our friends in St. John, who came to our home and after spending a pleasant evening together and partaking of refreshments the ladies had provided, they presented me with a purse of money. For all these expressions of goodwill and brotherly kindness we are very grateful.

Since the deaths of Brothers Jarvis, Hoyt and Alfred Thornton, I am reminded of my boyhood days as a young preacher, "When I was a stranger and ye took me in," and after years of experience as their pastor and in and out of their homes, I proved them to be brethren in whom we could depend, and in the thickest of the fight for God and Holiness, they never failed me. The memory of Brother and Sister Hoyt and Brother and Sister Thornton are very dear to many of us. We expect to meet them in the "Homeland." How I have heard them pray for their loved ones. How is it, children, will fathers and mothers prayers be answered in your behalf?

Yours in Him,
G. B. TRAFTON.
