MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

The Grand Manan Parish S. S. Convention was held at the Seal Cove Reformed Baptist Church on the 23rd inst.

Rev. G. B. Trafton has received a call to remain pastor of the Norton Church for another year. The work there has been much revived under his ministry, five new members were received into the church recently.

The little church at Victoria reveals a live missionary interest, contributing forty-five dollars.

The St. John Church took a missionary offering on Sunday evening, 16th, of $225.00.

Moncton Missionary Society and Sunday School went over the $200.00 mark for missions this year.

Fredericton Church reached its highest point for missions this year with a larger amount than before. The real spiritual vitality of a church can be judged fairly well by its missionary interest, and the prayer meeting.

We expect a record amount for missions in the regular work of our missionary societies this year.

Rev. A. H. Trafton returned from Nova Scotia last week. His daughter, Mrs. Perry, accompanied him to St. John.

Mrs. I. F. Keirstead returned from Calais, Maine, last week. She held a missionary meeting while there. She also held a missionary meeting at Maple Ridge on the 20th inst. She expects to come to Beulah on the 27th. Brother Keirstead and the two sons will drive to Beulah.

Rev. H. C. Archer was in St. John on the 21st. He has had our telephone line from Beulah to Brown's Flat put in good order.

SONG BOOKS.

We ordered 500 capies of "The Cream of the Songs of the Comforter," a little book of 72 hymns which we will sell for 10 cents each—But you better bring a copy of "The Songs of the Kingdom," for fear these books should be delayed as transportation is very uncertain.

HIGHWAY EARLY.

To enable the editor to get to Beulah a day early we printed the Highway ahead of its regular time this issue.

IMMOVABLE.

"They that trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Zion, which cannot be moved but abideth forever."

SEEING NO DANGER UNTIL TOO LATE.

People in the churches who are not saved are in great danger of feeling quite secure because of their association with the church, and forget that the reapers are to be sent forth to gather out the tares. See Matt. 13:24 to 30.

"A signpost means guidance. To refuse to read it is dangerous to the traveller. The Bible is God's signpost on man's road of life."

"You cannot make strong men or a powerful country or Church by wealth, ease and fatness. We need to sacrifice for a common cause to develop character, courage, strength and unity."

PERSONALS.

Much sympathy is felt for Brother and Sister C. P. Phillips, of Woodstock, in the death of their son. Reginald was their only child; also for Herbert and Mrs. Jones, of Woodstock, in the death of their little son, George.

Sister Josie Cody is very ill at her home, 555 Main street, St. John.

Brother M. S. Trafton, who has spent two years in California, was in St. John this week.

We are glad to have a good letter from Brother Goodspeed for this issue.

Brother Jeremiah Filmore, of Albert County, plans to attend Beulah Camp Meeting and a considerable number of others for their first time at Beulah.

Mrs. P. J. Trafton's mother being very sick, Sister Trafton and the children will not be able to get to Beulah for the Alliance and Camp Meeting.

Rev. Guy L. Wilson started Monday for Connecticut, accompanied as far as Boston by his father-in-law, Bird H. Kimball, who goes to seek medical advice. Mr. Wilson after remaining in Connecticut for a time, will go to Seattle and Tacoma, Wash., thence back to Pennsylvania, in his work as an evangelist.—Fort Fairfield Review.

REFORMED BAPTIST BAPTISM.

A baptism will be held in the Aroostook river next Sunday noon, 23rd, about opposite the Catholic cemetery, by Rev. C. S. Hilyard, pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church of this village. The number of candidates baptized will probably be five. Those baptized and some others will at the evening service receive the right hand of fellowship.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Talk is not always cheap. Several of the followers of "Pastor Russell" have been sentenced to twenty years imprisonment by the U. S. Government.

You can't afford to miss Beulah Camp Meeting.

Evangelist Andrew Johnson is worth hearing; don't miss this chance.

A good case of salvation is worth more to a man than the whole world.

DAY OF INTERCESSION.

Sunday, June 30th, Set Aside by Government.

Ottawa, June 18.—Sunday, June 30th, has been set aside by the Dominion Government as a day of prayer and intercession on behalf of the Allies, and a nation-wide response is anticipated. Sir George Foster, the acting prime minister, has telegraphed the Premiers of each of the Canadian provinces, urging them to lend all assistance possible to bring the people of Canada, regardless of creed, together in prayer.

A day of a similar character was proclaimed in the United States a month ago, but the Government here decided to defer the date in Canada until Sunday, June 30, as it was considered that the eve of the country's birthday—Dominion Day—was a more fitting occasion for the purpose.

Churches, fraternal organizations, women's and patriotic associations, it is expected, will respond with eagerness to the summons to prayer.

MARRIED.

Avery-Graham.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graham, Ashland, Car. Co., N. B., Wednesday, June 12th, at four o'clock, Mr. Charles Gross Avery and Miss Cassie Mable Graham were united in marriage, Rev. P. J. Trafton officiating. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Avery will reside at Knowlesville, Car. Co.

Craig-Rideout.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Wilmont Rideout, Somerville, Car. Co., when their second daughter, Pearl Eugene, was united in marriage to Bradford George Craig, of Hartland, N. B. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Nellie Nixon. The bridal party took their place under an arch of evergreen and white. The groom was attended by his brother, Clayton Craig, and Miss Myrtle bride, acted as Rideout, sister of the bride's maid. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses and the maid one of carnations. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. J. Trafton in the presence of sixty or more invited guests. The presents were numerous and beutiful. A sumptuous supper was served.

"IN NOTHING BE ANXIOUS."

The crosses which we make for ourselves by restless anxiety as to the future are not the crosses that come from God. We show want of faith in Him by our false wisdom, wishing to forestall His arguments, and struggling to supplement His providence by our own providence. The future is not yet ours; perhaps it never will be. If it comes, it may come wholly different from what we have foreseen. Let us shut our eyes, then, to that which God hides from us, and keeps in reserve in the treasures of His deep counsels. Let us worship without seeing; let us be silent; let us abide in peace.—Fenelon.
