

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. T. W. Moses has received a unanimous call from the Beals, Maine, church to remain pastor for another year.

Rev. W. W. Howe has accepted the invitation of the St. John church to remain pastor for another year.

The Westchester Church was much encouraged and refreshed by the quarterly meeting. It was an enjoyable and profitable meeting. No community could throw open their homes more generously for the entertainment of the delegates. The expenses of the meeting were amply and easily met.

Rev. F. T. Wright has accepted the invitation of Seal Cove and Wood Island, Grand Manan, N. B., to remain pastor for another year.

The church at Seal Cove has added more land to their parsonage lot of late by purchase.

The Wood Island brethren expect to begin the erection of their church about the middle of July.

Rev. H. C. Archer visited Moncton on the 21st inst., while attending to temperance work in Westmorland and Albert Counties. Brother Archer reports a good interest in the church at Fredericton.

At a business meeting of the Moncton Church on the 21st inst., Pastor S. A. Baker was invited by a unanimous vote to be their pastor for the third year.

Rev. Henry Smith is open for correspondence with the churches to resume pastoral work. His leave of absence expires June 26th. His address is Box 473 Halifax, N. S.

Rev. W. B. Wiggins was taken suddenly ill, so he was unable to take his services Sunday, 12th inst. Revs. B. Colpitts and J. H. Coy supplied. We are glad to learn that Brother Wiggins is now at his post again. Good report of work in Woodstock church and Sunday School.

The Moncton Missionary Society held their monthly meeting on the 21st inst., Mrs. W. D. Blakney presiding. There was a good attendance, excellent programme, and a liberal offering. They will hold one more meeting before the meeting of the Alliance.

The first District Quarterly Meeting is in session at Meductic as we go to press. We trust it will be a time of great victory.

Members of the Hartland Praying Band held two services at Carlisle, Carleton Co., on Sunday, May 26th.

One member was received into the church at Victoria on Sunday, May 26th.

MISSIONARY REPORT BLANKS.

The Missionary Report Forms have been sent to the missionary societies. Not knowing the secretaries' names the blanks were sent to persons in the churches or pastors who will kindly pass them to the secretaries, who will please fill them out, and give a statement of the work of the societies, and return to me, Box 272, Moncton, N. B., by June 15th.

MRS. S. A. BAKER.

The Reformed Baptist Missionary Society will meet (D. V.) at Beulah Camp Ground during the meeting of the Alliance.

PERSONALS.

Among those who expect to visit Beulah Camp Meeting for more or less of the meetings, are Rev. H. E. Thomas, of Sackville, N. B., and Rev. Neil McLaughlin, of St. John, N. B.

A letter from Rev. Aaron Hartt, of Gastonburg, Conn., a few weeks ago, states that he expects to come to Beulah Camp Meeting this season.

We heard indirectly that Sister Ralph Seeley expected to attend our camp meetings again this season.

Brother George T. Harrop, of Northport, N. S., spent a few days with members of his family in Moncton.

Rev. Thomas Marshall, of Fairville, St. John, passed through Moncton on the 20th. We were glad to have a short call from him.

Rev. H. E. Thomas, of Sackville, spent Sunday, the 19th, in Moncton in exchange. Brother Thomas and family expect to occupy their cottage at Beulah Camp Ground this summer.

We are sorry to learn that Brother C. B. Harvey, of Seal Cove, Grand Manan, has been in poor health during the spring months. His youngest son, Russell Harvey, has been called to the colors.

Brother P. B. Hurlbert says: Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway. We enjoy reading its clean pages very much, and would not be without it.

Mrs. Levi Mullen says: Please find enclosed my renewal for the Highway. I enjoy reading it very much and am always glad when it arrives.

A new subscriber says: I like the Highway, so you can send it as long as the amount enclosed will pay for. I am poor in this world's goods, but a faith that reaches out for all that God has for me, bless his name.

Brother Luther Hartt has taken up his residence in Lowell, Mass.

Sister Mrs. E. M. Tingley has sold her residence at Moncton and will take up her permanent residence at Washburn, Maine. She is at Moncton at present.

Brothers D. H. Berry, Stephen Tuck, Miss Berry and Mrs. Baker and the writer spent the time between trains (2 hours) at Amherst, N. S., on our way home from Westchester, and enjoyed a pleasant call at the home of Brother F. H. and Sister Locke.

Brother A. G. and Sister Good, of Moncton, enjoyed a pleasant visit at St. John with friends on Victoria Day.

Willie Somers, of the Depot Batt., in St. John, enjoyed a few days at his home in Victoria, returning the 22nd.

COTTAGE WANTED.

We can let one of the larger cottages at Beulah Camp Ground after the Camp Meeting. Applicant is a minister. Do you want to let yours?

S. A. BAKER.

The Highway will close its 29th volume on June 30th, beginning its 30th year July 15th.

The 25th Annual Camp Meeting will open at Beulah Camp Ground on June 28th.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. George Tatton.

The death of Mrs. George Tatton took place at her home in North Head, on May 15th, in the 71st year of her age. She had been in poor health for several years but the end came suddenly by an attack of pneumonia. The deceased was a member of the Reformed Baptist Church and died trusting in Jesus. She is survived by her sorrowing husband and a family of eight children, four daughters, Mrs. Henry Dunbar and Mrs. Brooks Winchester, of North Head, Mrs. J. L. Boyd, of Eastport, Me., and Mrs. Albert Cronk, of Grand Harbor; four sons, Joseph, Kenneth and Lloyd, of North Head, and Cornelius, of Castalia.

Mrs. John Joy.

Mrs. John Joy passed from this life, April 27th, 1918, at her home, Seal Cove, Grand Manan. She left to mourn their loss a husband, six sons and two daughters. Service was held at the house, interment was made in the Baptist Church cemetery, Rev. F. T. Wright officiating.

Stevie P. MacMullen.

A memorial service was held in the Reformed Baptist Church, Hartland, N. B., Sunday afternoon, May 19th, at 3.30 o'clock, Rev. P. J. Trafton officiating, assisted by Rev. Mr. Trites, U. B. A mixed choir rendered appropriate selections. Solos by Miss Emma Cogswell and Miss Jewett were also appropriate.

Stevie enlisted in the 140th Battalion in October, 1915, and was in D Company, which was billeted in Hartland during the winter. He went to England with his battalion and remained with it until it was broken up. He remained in England till early in March, 1918, when he went over to France in a draft to fill the 26th Batt. He was only in the front line three days when he made the supreme sacrifice. He was a brave soldier and liked by his comrades. He was killed April 22nd and would have been 20 years old had he lived till May 24th. He was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. MacMullen. He leaves to mourn their loss, besides his parents, three sisters, Mrs. Frank Aiton, Hartland; Miss Sarah, in training at the city hospital, St. John; Miss Mary, at home; two brothers, Claud, in Hartland, and Milo, at home, his aged grandmother, Mrs. Stephen MacMullen, and numerous other relatives. The large company in attendance revealed the deep sympathy felt for the sorrowing ones.

Somewhere in France he lies today,

In a grave with a wooden cross,
And none but his mother can ever know
The depth of the bitter loss.

Mrs. Roxanna Shaw.

Harry D. Shaw, of Nashua, N. H., arrived in Hartland on Thursday, May 16th, bringing for interment at Victoria the remains of his mother, Mrs. Roxanna Shaw, who died at his home last winter. Mr. Shaw was accompanied by his wife and little son, Perley. A number of relatives and friends gathered at the cemetery where a short service was held by Rev. P. J. Trafton.
