Rev. L. T. Sabine, Auditor.

Beulah Camp Meeting was a grand success spiritually and the expenses were never more easily met.

Generosity is the spontaneous result of genuine salvation.

Riverside Camp Meeting—Thousands of people are anticipating a great meeting at Riverside Camp Meeting, Aug. 2-12. Let earnest prayer be offered for a great outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the encampment.

The Highway was highly commended by people attending the Alliance and Beulah Camp Meeting, and if our ministers and people will take a hearty and practical interest in it a thousand additional subscribers should be secured during this year.

Another Dormitory—The increasing attendance at Beulah Camp Meeting makes another large dormitory a pressing need, which should be begun at once. The matter is in the hands of the Alliance Executive. We have a beautiful site, plenty of excellent ground for cement foundation, or for the walls of the building. Larger rooms, better accommodations, convenient for light housekeeping will be a feature. With all rooms opening on wide verandahs, all so arranged that all appliances may be added for an additional hotel if needed later on.

Independent Entertainment—The Reformed Baptists are demonstrating the plan of entertaining the annual meetings independent of the burdensome method of being entertained in towns and cities.

The large denominations are finding it more difficult every year to get their general annual meetings entertained, incurring increasing expense. This plan of entertaining ourselves works. We sleep in our own beds, and eat our own food, and pay for it ourselves, and feel much better
