PERSONALS.

Sister Mrs. Robert Dow has gone to Seattle, Washington, for a visit.

Mrs. Jas. Drysdale left Tuesday evening, June 25th, for Acton, Mass., where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Forbes.

Mrs. C. E. Sunder, of Bankipore, India, her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Hale and two children, of Vancouver, B. C., are visiting Mrs. Sunder's mother, Mrs. John Shea, Grafton.

Mrs. S. C. Page, Ross Page and Miss Barbara Page, of Caribou, Maine, Mrs. Ernest Wood and son, and Miss Charlene Beacon, of Presque Isle, Maine, spent a few days with S. A. and Mrs. Baker at Moncton, N. B., after the close of Beulah Camp Meeting.

Mr. J. F. Bullock received a unanimous and hearty vote of thanks for his continued practical and generous interest in Beulah Camp Ground. "Bullock Avenue" was beautified by rows of plants placed along each side of the avenue. New drinking fountains were placed, and everything put in first class condition under Brother Bullock's supervision and surpassed all former years in beauty.

Included in this expression was the general appreciation of Brother Bullock's help in the musical part of the Camp Meetings.

The next issue will contain a sketch of the life and experience of Brother Eliphalet Jones, probably the oldest man in the Reformed Baptist denomination. He was born Nov. 19th, 1828.

Sister Louisa B. Everett, of Burnt Land Brook, N. B., is probably the oldest member as she is about 92 years old, and still enjoys very good health, and not long since could read and write without the use of glasses.

Two Christian young men in whom we are especially interested have enlisted—George McCallum, of Moncton, and Stanley Inman, of Kilburn. They are in camp at St. John's, Quebec.

Sister Viola Mullen is with Sister Keirstead at Millville. She will enter the Fisher Memorial Hospital at Woodstock, N. B., in training in preparation for missionary work in South Africa.

Rev. A. Hartt and wife expects to remain in New Brunswick until September. He is getting material for the history of the life and labours of his father, Rev. Samuel Hartt, the founder of the Free Baptist denomination in New Brunswick.

We are glad to learn that Brother E. D. Miller, formerly of Royalton, N. B., brother to Rev. Z. M. Miller, has taken up his residence at New Westminster, B. C.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard, L. S. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams and Frank Kimball, who had attended the camp meeting at Beulah, have returned home. They report having had great meetings, the best ever held there.

A baptism will be held in the Aroostook river Sunday noon by the Reformed Baptists.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick, who has been pastor of the Wesley Memorial Church at Moncton, N. B., has become pastor of the (Methodist) Church at Tyron, P. E. I. Brother Fitzpatrick was at one time pastor of the Methodist Church at Hartland.

MARRIED.

Gorham-Hoyt.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoyt, Millville, N. B., on July 3rd, a pretty wedding took place, when their youngest daughter, Della Bell, was united in marriage to Mr. John P. Gorham, of Devon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. I. F. Keirstead in the presence of a large number of wedding guests, who afterwards partook of a wedding supper. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white organdie, was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts.

OBITUARY.

Eliphalet Jones.

Just as we go to press we learn of the death of Brother Eliphalet Jones, of Knox-ford. We had received last week a sketch of his life and experience for the Highway which we held for next issue.

George McLaughlin.

Death has again visited our little flock and taken from our Sunday School and Mission Band little Georgie McLaughlin, aged 8 years. Little Georgie was one of those bright little girls, always sunshiny and happy. She was taken with measles and pneumonia which resulted in death on the morning of June 18th. Much sympathy is felt for the father and mother and little Dorothy, who was a constant companion to her younger sister.

Their pastor was called from Beulah on the 18th to attend the funeral service and the remains were laid to rest in the Calais cemetery. S. H. CLARK.

LIVING IN BEULAH NOW.

By N. B. Herrell.

Long I wandered about
In the desert of doubt—
I'm living in Beulah now!
When I crossed Jordan's tide,
I was there sanctified—
I'm living in Beulah now!
With my trumpet in hand
I march up through the land—
I'm living in Beulah now!
With a blast loud and long
I tell giants tall and strong—
I'm living in Beulah now!
I am climbing new heights,
In this land of delights—
I'm living in Beulah now!
Here great riches abound,
Here new treasures are found—
I'm living in Beulah now!
From the mountains so high
I am now watching the sky—
I'm living in Beulah land!
When my Lord shall appear
With the clouds in the air,
I'll greet Him from Beulah land!

Dr. Joseph Parker, the noted London preacher, when lecturing on "Eternity" in a provincial town, was much annoyed by a young dandy who was seated near the platform. The youth, proud of a new watch, was continually pulling it out to see what time it was. Finally the lecturer could stand it no longer. Looking full at the offender, he said. "Put up your watch, young man. We are considering eternity, not time."
