

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. W. B. and Mrs. Wiggins spent Christmas with Mrs. Wiggins' relatives at Penniac.

Rev T. W. Moses says there was a slight mistake in the report of the donation made him recently. It should have read ten dollars, not seventy.

In Brother Hilyard's article in the last issue, where it read wore slippers of fire, should read, worshippers of fire.

The Moncton Church building fund has been increased by three gifts of one hundred dollars each, and one of fifty, within a short time, and a considerable number are paying into the fund monthly. There is a very commendable cheerfulness and unity of the brethren and sisters in this work, and the people about are manifesting a decided and encouraging interest in the progress of the remodelling of the church.

The ban on the church services on Grand Manan has not been lifted yet (Dec. 23). Our people miss their services very much.

The work on the Church at Wood Island, Grand Manan, has been postponed until spring on account of not being able to procure lumber.

Sister M. Ella Slipp expects to have her church at Jonesport, Maine, of which she is pastor, dedicated on Sunday, 29th inst. Evangelist F. W. Foster and Rev. T. W. Moses will assist in the services.

We are glad to note from the letters received from several of our ministers, that despite the fact that their services have been closed, their people have amply provided for their needs, "and they know how to abound"

Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer spent Christmas with friends in Moncton.

Rev. A. H. and Mrs. Trafton spent Christmas with their son, Rev. P. J. Trafton, and family at Hartland, N. B.

Rev. P. J. Trafton held two services on the 22nd at Victoria, and considerable interest was manifested. Several rose for prayers.

Rev. W. W. Howe is enjoying a good interest in his work at St. John.

Rev. S H Clark and his church at Calais are deserving of much credit in their success in repairing and beautifying the interior of their church

Rev. I. F. Keirstead says: The work is going pretty well on this circuit. At Maple Ridge a brother was reclaimed in the prayer meeting some time ago, and is now a great inspiration to the services. Also at Upper Hainesville, Brother John Hull received the blessing in our quarterly meetings, and is now a great help to us in the meetings.

Our congregations at Millville are good, and the prayer meetings are seasons of blessing.

The brethren on the different parts of the field have been looking after our financial needs, so we are pushing ahead the best we can, looking for God's blessing upon our work.

Rev. S. H. Clark spent the 29th at Jonesport, assisting in the dedicatory services of the new Reformed Baptist Church at that place.

Rev. F. T. Wright preached at Royalton on the 29th inst.

Rev. Leon J. Alley writes: We have just closed a successful campaign under B. C. Bubar, of Danforth. God manifested himself in "old time power," resulting in the salvation of souls. Quite a few have taken their stand for Christ. The work is progressing and bears the mark of the approval of God. We are in the fight. Amen!

Rev. J. H. Coy says: Mrs. Coy and I are enjoying very good health, and sunshine in our souls. "Santa Claus" was good to us, remembering us in various ways.

I wish my friends a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

We are having grand meetings. Some victory. Brother Wiggins is preaching great sermons, full of life and power.

PERSONALS.

Brother Allan Dow says: I enjoy reading the Highway very much, and can't get along without it very well.

Sister Adelia H. Gordon says: I love the Highway and do not wish to give it up. I praise the Lord for full salvation. "I am out on the promise, and under the blood."

Sister Judson Hillman writes:

Please find enclosed my renewal for the Highway. My testimony is: "I have found the Saviour precious, and find him precious still." He has rolled away my burdens, and I praise him for all his blessings.

Sister Bessie McAvity (who lost both limbs) writes:

"As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love."—John 15-9.

Oh, the glory that fills my soul these days. My heart and tongue can never tell his praise. I feel I have much to tell about the dear Lord, he has done so much for me, as I was almost over the river to meet him. Oh, the joy to be with him, but he has let me stay a little while longer. While I have suffered a little, he took the pain away. I will not walk for some time, but I will praise him to the end.—A member of the Reformed Baptist Church, St. John, N. B. (503 Main St.)

Harry C. Greenlaw writes:

Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway. I enjoy reading the paper very much. I am still on victory corner, praise the Lord!

Rev. W. E. Smith will be in charge of the First Pentecostal Church of West Somerville, Mass., until April next. His address is 242 Elm St., of that city.

We are very glad for a nice letter from Sister S. Hayden Show, who says: The 91st Psalm is certainly a great refuge. While Sister Shaw is past the "teen age," she says that she committed this Psalm to memory this fall, and loves to dwell in it.

Sister Mrs. Henry Weade says: "Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway. My testimony is that my dear heavenly Father is very dear to me these days. He has kept me in health amidst so much sickness. I praise him, for his word tells us that "There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling."

Sister C. S. Hilyard has been seriously ill. She was slightly better when Brother Hilyard wrote last.

Mrs. James Rogers, of Hartland, went to Fredericton last week to nurse her son, Herbert, who is sick with influenza. Herbert has been attending Normal School.

Schuyler C. Page, of Caribou, Maine, who has been in the American Flying Service overseas, arrived home for Christmas. Many of our people will remember him as he played the cornet at Riverside Camp Meeting several years.

Brother L. W. Clark, of St. Stephen, writes: I am enclosing renewal for the Highway. I don't care to miss a single number, as it is looked ahead to as part of my Sunday reading, and I plan on reading all of its contents.

Mrs. N. R. Brown, of Lower Brighton, N. B., has returned home to spend the winter, after spending a year with her son, Myles Brown, at Bridgeport, Conn.

MARRIED.

Greenlaw-Clark.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Clark, of Millville, was the scene of a pretty wedding Christmas afternoon, when their eldest daughter, Winifred, was united in marriage to Mr. Harry Greenlaw by Rev. I. F. Keirstead. Only the immediate relatives were present. The bride received a number of pretty and useful gifts. The wedding supper was enjoyed greatly by one and all. This young couple has a wide circle of friends who wish them every happiness. They are both well saved and always ready to testify to the joy in serving the Lord. So their prospect is surely bright in this life as well as in the life to come.

Powers-Powers.

Christmas Eve, at the residence of Mrs. Grace Powers, 3 Queen street, Moncton, N. B., by Rev. S. A. Baker, Mr. Nelson Powers, and Miss Pearl Powers, both of Moncton, N. B.

Hoyt-Marr.

At the residence of Mr. Arnold Drost, Lower Corner, Woodstock, Dec. 23rd, by Rev. J. H. Coy, Mr. George B Hoyt and Miss Pearl Marr, both of Millville, York Co.

THE HIGHWAY.

New subscribers have been sent in since last issue by Charles E. Churchill, Charles Foster, M. S. Trafton.

About 100 renewals and new subscriptions have come in this month. Many more should come within the next few days.

People are not saved because they seek forgiveness while they fail to forsake their sins, as though it were possible to be justified while living in sin. But Jesus came to save His people from their sins, and not in their sins. There is no such a thing as justification apart from obedience to the commandments of Christ. Justifying grace will give freedom from and victory over one's sins.—Sel.
