

OUR FORWARD MOVEMENT

mountain sides add to the great volume of the mighty rivers. So every little church, and Sunday School, and mission band, and missionary society, and every individual can help. Every friend of the holiness movement can help whether they belong to the Reformed Baptist Church or not. "Let us go up at once" and possess this goodly land. We are fully able.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Collina, Dec. 7th, 1919.

Dear Brother Baker:

My testimony is I thank God for his goodness and kindness towards me. Glory to his precious name. He saves and keeps me by his precious blood,

Some time we'll stand before the Judgment bar,

The quick, the risen dead,
The Lord will then make known the record there

Our names will all be read.

I'll be present when the roll is called
Pure and spotless through the crimson flood,

I will answer when they call my name
Saved through Jesus' blood.

Yours kept by the power of the blood,
LOUISA M. KING.

FOLLOWED A GOOD IMPULSE.

Dear Brother Baker:

I was reading in the Highway one of Dr. Sanders' letters, telling about their Sunday morning meetings, how he saw a little band of Christians coming over the hill and Samuelli leading them. They were so happy they were singing, so full of the Spirit of God that they could not keep still. My heart went out in spiritual love for the leader. I am sending you $10 for you to send to him. God bless him and make him an instrument in his hands of leading many of those dark heathen in the light and liberty of God.

MRS. S. C. DUNLAP.

Maple Ridge, N. B.

Dear Brother Baker:

Enclosed find renewal for the Highway. The paper grows better as the years pass by. "I am learning more and more to see Jesus through the eye of faith. He will not be more real to me when I see Him face to face." My heart is continually hungering for every token of His love, or the first hint as to what He would have me do. I catch eagerly every sound of His voice, but there are times when I feel so unworthy; but as I lie at his feet I receive only encouragement from him. But bless His name, he is not continually telling us how unworthy we are, and yea, our Lord does show us our shortcomings, and what we must do, but only in love. I am so glad you are having times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord in New Brunswick. Pray the fire will spread all through the provinces of N. B. and N. S.

Yours in Him,

MRS. S. W. BAKER.

Dear Brother Baker:

Glad to get cards from you about the meetings and that Moncton is trying to keep salvation to the front by special meetings, and would like so much to be there myself, but when I know how things are going with the little band here, we could not find it in our hearts to leave them for a Sunday. They are faithful to the meetings, coming in all weathers, and the last 4 weeks three have accepted Christ, two of them in their homes and one last Sunday at the close of the meeting. Four more have held their hands up for prayers, and God is certainly working in our midst. Praise His precious name, we are expecting still greater things at his hands. Bless God. Brethren, pray for us. I remain,

Yours in Him,

F. H. LOCK.

Rev. S. A. Baker:

Dear Sir: Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway. We love its clean pages and cannot do without it. I love the testimonies of the brothers and sisters as I do not hear very many nowadays. They are a great help to me as I am very poorly with heart trouble but I wish to add my testimony that he Lord is very precious to me as the days go by. He saves and sanctifies me. Praise His dear name.

Yours in Him,

ARTHUR CHUTE.

OBITUARY.

Faith R. Green.

From the effects of scarlet fever, Nov. 3rd, Faith, aged 5 months and 16 days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Green, of Little Wod Island, Grand Manan, N. B. The funeral service was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wilcox, Nov. 7th, Brother Percy Green officiated.

Sterling McDonald.

With sorrow we record the sad accident which resulted in the death of Chester Sterling McDonald, second son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. McDonald, of Woodstock on Thursday morning, Nov. 20th. He was instantly killed in his own room by the discharge of a gun that was not thought to be loaded.

The sad and sudden accident was a terrible shock to the family, who was thus plunged from joy to grief. Chester was converted and with his mother was baptized and joined the Reformed Baptist Church here during Brother Archer's pastorate, about eight years ago at the age of eleven. He was a member of Dr. J. E. Jewett's class of boys in the Sunday School; was of a sunny disposition and kept himself free from all evil habits, and was a favorite with all who knew him. He was an obedient and loving son and the joyful companion of his elder brother Chauncey and his little sister Hilda. The funeral took place on Saturday, the 22nd, and was very largely attended by the many kind and sympathetic relatives, neighbors and friends from the province and Maine. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Rev. B. Colpitts assisted the pastor in the services. The choir of the church sang the following favorite hymns of the deceased: "Alone with God," "Does Jesus care" and "The last mile of the way." His parents, elder brother and little sister survive. Much sympathy is felt for the family by all who knew Chester and in fact by the whole town.

HIGHWAY SUBSCRIBERS.

The Highway family, far and near, read this notice with kind feelings toward their business manager, and manifest a live personal interest in their semi-monthly messenger, and look at the little red label on the wrapper, or on the paper and see if it reads 20 or 21. If it is any figure below those numbers, sit right down and send in enough money to pay up to 1920 or 1921.
