MARRIED.

Bettle-Stafford.

Marysville, N. B., June 12.—The home of Mayor and Mrs. Jesse Stafford, George Street, was the scene of a pretty wedding at five o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when their youngest daughter, Rosie May, was united in marriage to Mr. Judson Bettle, of Passekeag, Kings Co. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of a wedding march played by Mr. Albert Stafford, brother of the bride, where relatives and a few intimate friends were gathered to witness the ceremony. The bride was unattended, and was given in marriage by her father. Rev. E. W. Lester performed the ceremony. After congratulations had been extended the party sat down to a sumptuous supper.

Mrs. Bettle was one of Marysville's most popular young ladies. The groom is the son of Mr. Judson Bettle, of Passekeag, and was one of the original 26th and went overseas with that battalion. He was severely wounded in the left arm at Kemmel Hill, and after spending several months in hospital was invalided back to Canada. The happy couple left for St. John by the C. P. R. last evening, where they will make their home on Brittain street. The best wishes of a host of friends will follow them. The bride received many presents, including china, silver and cheques.

Williams-Green.

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Hartland, N. B., at 12 o'clock noon, Wednesday, June 25th, Harry R. Williams, of Hodgdon, Maine, was united in marriage to Mary Green, of Simonds, Carleton Co. Rev. P. J. Trafton performed the ceremony. A few close friends of the bride were present. The happy couple left by auto for Grand Lake on a tour after which they will reside at Hodgdon.

Foster-Nixon.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Burton Nixon, Somerville, Carleton Co., Thursday, June 19th, when their eldest daughter, Nellie Lavinia, was united in marriage to Fenton Plummer Foster, eldest son of F. W. Foster, of Fort Fairfield, Me. The bride looked charming attired in a beautiful gown of ivory satin and georgette, wearing a bridal veil and carrying a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, pink rose buds and fern. The bridal party entered the parlour at 8.30 p. m., the bride leaning on the arm of her father to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Kathleen Kennedy. They took their stand under a canopy of white ribbon and pink roses with back ground of maple leaves. The groom was ably supported by J. Raymond Plummer. Miss Madeline L. Smith attended the bride. Miss Hilda Wilson sang "Because." The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. J. Trafton, after which a quartette composed of Miss Hilda Wilson, Miss Dorothy Trafton, Frank Nixon and Carvell Foster sang Perfect Love. More than one hundred and fifty guests were present. After congratulations a dainty lunch was served. The young couple left by auto on a tour to Portage Lake, after which they will take up their residence at Maple Grove in Fort Fairfield. The large array of costly and useful presents testified to the high esteem in which the young couple is held.

Sears - Sollows.

At Port Maitland, N.S., on June 23rd, at the home of the bride's parents, Ethel V., the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sollows, was united in marriage to Leslie J. Sears, of the same place. Only immediate relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Sears will make their home in Port Maitland.
