

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

The Hartland parsonage, valued at $3,000, has been freed from debt. The church will burn the mortgage.

Licenses renewed to Licentiates Mrs. I. F. Keirstead and Mrs. H. S. Mullen and Bro. Hartley Mullen, of New Tusket, N.S., was recommended by the Ministers' Association to have license granted him by the church to preach the gospel as he may have opportunity.

Rev. H. S. Dow, who has been pastor of the Reformed Baptist church in Meductic, N.B., has accepted the call to the church of that denomination in Fort Fairfield, and will be here to begin his duties as pastor at that church Sunday, July 13.—Ft. Fairfield Review.

The present arrangements place our pastors as follows: Rev. H. S. Dow has accepted a call to the Fort Fairfield church and will move there soon after the close of Beulah Camp Meeting.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead has accepted a call to Royalton church and will move to Royalton, and enter upon his pastoral duties this week.

Rev. H. C. Mullen has accepted a call to Hartland circuit and will move into the parsonage at Hartland at an early date.

Rev. W. B. Wiggins, B.A., continues pastor at Woodstock, N. B.

Rev. H. C. Archer has a call to Millville circuit, but has not given an answer, as he will remain at his cottage at Beulah until August 1st, when he will go to Robinson, Maine, to prepare for Riverside Camp Meeting.

Rev. E. W. Lester continues on the Marysville-Penniac circuit.

Rev. G. B. Trafton will continue pastor of the Norton and Greys Mills churches.

Rev. P. W. Briggs will continue pastor of the New Tusket, N.S., circuit.

Rev. L. T. Sabine continues pastor of the Port Maitland-Sandford-Brazil Lake and Cedar Lake, N.S., circuit.

Rev. S. H. Clark continues pastor of the Calais, Maine, church.

Miss M. Ella Slipp went to Fort Fairfield after the close of Beulah Camp Meeting for a brief visit to her mother and friends.

Rev. Henry Smith will return to pastoral work after two years' leave of absence, and has been recommended to the Meductic circuit by the Alliance, and expects to become pastor of that circuit.

Rev. P. J. Trafton will become pastor of the Fredericton church, and will move his family there in the near future. He will probably do some evangelistic work as opportunity opens.

Rev. A. H. Trafton has been engaged by the committee to remain at Beulah Camp Ground until September and will conduct the services.

Rev. S. A. Baker will remain at Moncton, N. B.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard has entered on his duties as pastor of the Seal Cove and Wood Island, Grand Manan, churches.

Rev. L. J. Alley has taken up his work as pastor of Beale, Maine, church.

Miss M. Ella Slipp will continue her work as pastor of the Jonesport, Maine, church.

Rev. T. W. Moses has moved to Pembroke, Maine, and is having the church repaired in preparation to beginning his pastoral duties there.

Rev. J. H. Coy will preach as his health will permit and as opportunities open to him.

Rev. H. C. Mullen has gone to Nova Scotia to visit his parents for a short time before entering upon his pastoral duties on the Hartland circuit.

Mrs. I. F. Keirstead will spend a few weeks at St. John, N.B., with friends, before going to her new home at Royalton. Sister Keirstead went to Grey's Mills on the 11th inst. to remain over Sunday, the 13th.

Rev. P. W. Briggs and family are visiting their people at Maple Ridge and Pinder, York Co., N.B., before returning to Nova Scotia.

Rev. S. H. Clark will spend July and August at Beulah before returning to his church at Calais, Maine.

The Ministers' Association recommend that Miss N. Ella Slipp be ordained at the time of the dedication of the Jonesport church, and Revs. T. W. Moses, S. H. Clark, C. S. Hilyard and L. J. Alley should officiate at the ordination and dedicatory services.

OBITUARY.

Frank W. Nixon.

It was a great shock to the community when it was learned on Sunday morning, July 6th, that Frank W. Nixon, a young and prosperous farmer of Lower Brighton, was dead. He went to Woodstock Saturday night by auto to meet friends coming on the late train. In his absence a large pure bred Holstein bull broke loose and became somewhat enraged. The animal had always been kind and had been handled without fear, so on his arrival home Mr. Nixon thought he would have no trouble with him, but the animal crushed him against the side of a building, injuring him internally. Everything was done that medical skill could do, but to no avail. Brother Frank was 36 years of age. He was born at Lower Brighton, where he had always lived with the exception of two years spent at Hartland. He was converted at the age of 9½ years, uniting with the R. B. church, professing sanctification a year or so later. In 1908 he married Miss Effie Hoskin, who survives him. He was a leading man in the community and highly respected by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn their loss, besides his wife, three children—Elva, Glenn and Eunice; his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Nixon, of Hartland; two brothers, G. Berton, of Somerville, and Dolph E., of Victoria; a large circle of other relatives and a host of friends.

The funeral service was held at his home on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, where a great congregation assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to a good man. The flowers were beautiful, silent tokens of love and friendship. A mixed choir rendered appropriate selections. The writer had charge, assisted by Revs. E. A. Trites, U.B., P. J. Quigg, P.B., T. S. Crisp, Meth., and E. L. Jenkins, U.B., of Houlton. The burial took place at Hartland in the family lot. He will be greatly missed, but our loss is his gain. Text, Rev. 7-13, 14.

P. J. TRAFTON.

PERSONALS.

Evangelist F. W. Foster has just returned home from New Jersey, where he was one of the speakers at a Camp Meeting. We hope to have him with us at Riverside Camp Meeting, at least part of the time.

Rev. G. B. MacDonald has resigned his pastorate at Sussex, N. B.

Rev. H. A. Goodwin, pastor of the Centenary Methodist Church at St. John, N.B., and family, have taken a cottage at Beulah Camp Ground for the summer.

Rev. Z. L. Fash, pastor of the George St. United Baptist at Fredericton, will occupy the Goodspeed cottage at Beulah Camp Ground for the summer.

Rev. Mr. McPherson, of Central U. B. Church, St. John, will occupy the Dr. J. E. Jewett cottage at Beulah.

Mr. Luke Morrison and family will occupy Rev. W. B. Wiggins' cottage at Beulah for the summer months.

Brother G. S. Cosman and family, of St. John, will occupy Rev. H. E. Thomas' cottage at Beulah Camp Ground during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Morris Blaisdell and granddaughter, Miss Laura Smith, left on Friday afternoon for Freedom, N.H., to visit relatives. They will also visit Mr. and Mrs. Blaisdell's sons, Roy in Boston and Minet in Hubbardville, Mass., being gone perhaps all summer.—Ft. Fairfield Review.

Three of our young men recently returned from overseas, P. L. Cosman, St. John, George MacCallum, Moncton, and Percy Petterson, of Marysville. They all look well and we are glad to see them home, and in our churches.

Mrs. Roy Kinney and child, Florida, are spending the summer with her parents, F. T. and Mrs. Kimball, of Fort Fairfield, Maine.

We are expecting Brother D. F. Knight to arrive from England this week.

Are you going to Riverside Camp Meeting, August 8-17?

Sister C. E. Freeze and son Harold, of Moncton, are visiting friends in Vancouver, B. C.

Brother Arthur Chute and wife will spend the summer months with their son at Cloverdale, Carleton Co., N. B.

Sister Herbert Jones and family returned to their home at Woodstock, after spending several months at Juniper, N.B.

Sister W. H. Wiggins writes: Please find enclosed my renewal for the Highway. We can't afford to be without it; it helps us so much. Praise His dear name for His presence with us to-day.

Sister V. H. Beckwith, of Phillipsburg, Pa., says, regarding "The Highway": I couldn't get along without The Highway in the home. We receive spiritual food from its pages. My husband has been happily saved, which will be good news to some of The Highway readers. We will be at the Camp Meetings in prayer, if we cannot get there in person.

NOTE THE DATE OF RIVERSIDE CAMP MEETING, AUGUST 8th-17th.

Many will want to hear the message of full salvation as spoken by Evangelist David Anderson, of Houghton, N. Y., who is a new man in these parts. Pray that God may richly bless the messages brought to us.
