

BEULAH SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Beulah Sunday School opened this year on July 13th. Mr. J. F. Bullock appointed superintendent, Miss Eleanor Galhaith, Sec. Treas. The lesson was on baptism. The attendance 56. Collection $1.64.

July 27, the lesson, Christian fellowship. After the lesson the children formed a line in front of the altar, and the adults on the platform in back of the altar as an object lesson, each member was given an orange that we should remember Jesus.

taught us that we should remember each other. The attendance was smaller than the two previous Sundays. A picnic was planned for Monday, July 28. The children were to meet at the wharf and Mr. Bullock planned on taking them in a motor boat to Jones' Island, but on account of the rain this had to be postponed.

Aug. 3, lesson, Christian worship. Attendance 59. Object lesson of Jesus and his disciples going from Judea to Galilee, passing through Samaria, Jesus meeting the woman of Samaria at the well made the lesson very clear to the children. The picnic was again planned, this time at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bullock on Monday, Aug. 4. Monday morning the weather was very dark and cloudy. The children were afraid they would again be disappointed, but by noon the sun was shining brightly and the day was most delightful. Swings were made and games were planned on the grounds around the cottage. At 2.30 p. m. the children as well as adults began to come with their lunch baskets, each ready for a good time. Mr. Bullock and Mr. Bustan took the children for a ride in their autos, and they enjoyed every minute. The children playing on the lawn made the most beautiful picture, each seemed so happy, while the adults sitting on the piazza watching them, were equally happy.

Mr. Smith took a picture of the Sunday School in a group just before supper.

Supper was served on the back lawn. The girls formed a line on one side, boys on the other, while the adults filled in the centre at the top, forming a semi-circle. After Mr. Bullock asked a blessing sandwiches, biscuits, cake, cookies and cocoa were served, which they enjoyed very much, especially little Mike, an Indian boy. After they had eaten all the sandwiches and cake they could, ice cream was served. While the dishes were being gathered up the children sang the songs they had learned at Sunday school. Then Mr. Bullock talked to them about the Sunday School lessons. The little party ended in prayer and each child went home feeling they had had the most beautiful time. Mr. Bullock then took the adults for a ride, and they too enjoyed the picnic very much.

We owe many thanks to Mrs. Bullock for the hearty part she took in entertaining the children, and also to the teachers for their thoughtfulness.

The Sunday School has proven a great blessing to Beulah camp.

At 199 Elm street, Wodstock, N. B., on Tuesday, July 24th, 1919, by Rev. W. B. Wiggins, B. A., Gordon E. Johnston to Olive T. Perkins, both of McAdam Junction, York Co., N. B.

Sweeney-Prosser.

Simonds-Prosser.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Prosser, Kemptville, Yar. Co., N. S., was the scene of a pleasant occasion on Wednesday, June 11th, when two of their daughters, Iva and Ada, were united in marriage to Lloyd Sweeney, of East Brenton, Yar. Co., and Leigh Simonds, of Boston, respectively. The ceremony was performed upon the lawn beneath a beautiful arch, in the presence of about 200 guests and friends. Rev. G. M. Wilson performed the ceremony uniting Mr. Simonds and Miss Ada, and Rev. L. T. Sabine tied the nuptial knot uniting Mr. Sweeney and Miss Iva. The home was nicely decorated for the occasion and with the charming appearance of the sisters in their bridal array, the wedding will long be remembered by the many present.

The large number of beautiful presents received showed the esteem in which the young ladies were held by their many friends. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was enjoyed by all.

To the contracting parties we extend heartiest congratulations.

Sewell-Brown.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Brown, in Middle Southampton, July 23, when the Rev. H. C. Archer united in marriage Miss Calla L. D. Brown and Allan Sewell, of Devon. The home was beautifully decorated in green and white, arranged by the young lady friends of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Sewell will reside at Devon, N. B.

Clark-Drisko.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Clark, at East Machias, Maine, their son, Mr. Wm. Clark and Miss Florence Drisko, of West Jonesport, Maine, were united in marriage Aug. 6th, 1919, by Rev. Mrs. Plinette Allen, Baptist minister.

EVANGELIST DAVID ANDERSON.

This is Brother Anderson's first visit to our Camp Grounds. The people had decided that they liked him before he arrived, having seen his picture in the Highway, and he was not a disappointment to them, but from start to finish he fully sustained the good impression made, giving strong, clear and definite messages that held the hearers, and brought conviction to many hearts, and led them to victory. Brother Anderson has a good voice, and a strong personality, and at once attracts the attention and wins the people. Judging from expressions we have heard, several of our churches would like to have him for meetings. The weather for the most of the time was good, and crowds steadily increased and the interest deepened, until the Tabernacle was well nigh filled every evening, and by Friday noon (15th) all the rooms and cottages were filled, and the prospect of a large crowd yet to arrive.

PRESENTATION TO MRS. TRAFTON.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. on Monday evening took the form of a picnic supper on the lawn of Mrs. Henry Bradley. Mrs. P. J. Trafton, wife of the retiring pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church, was singled out as the one to receive the most attention during the evening. During her years of residence here she has been a valued member of the union and her sister members took occasion during this last meeting to show their esteem by making a presentation of Nippon china. Mrs. S. Hayden Shaw on behalf of the members made the presentation address, and Mrs. Trafton, taken very much by surprise, replied in a few apt words. The meeting closed with the singing of the usual hymn, "God be with You," and with many good wishes to the departing member, who soon goes with her husband and children to make their home in Fredericton.

SOME GATES FOR BEULAH.

While in Fredericton recently Brother J. F. Bullock was given three double gates and two single ones, similar in design to the gate at the main entrance at Beulah Camp Ground. Mr. Moore was the donor. Brother Bullock plans to place them at each end of the Bullock Avenue.
