

PERSONALS.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard has fitted up his cottage at Riverside very nicely inside and out. Brother Hilyard went to Fort Fairfield to officiate at the wedding of his daughter, and returned to Grand Manan for Sunday, the 17th.

The church at Fredericton are considering the matter of building a new parsonage, or selling the old one and buying in another place. Brother Trafton has begun his pastoral duties.

We were delighted to have Sister Joseph Bullock with us at the Riverside Camp Meeting. The remarkable part of it was that Brother J. F. Bullock brought her all the way from St. John in his automobile, a distance of about 185 miles. Sister Bullock enjoyed the trip and was able to attend the meetings, and worked at the altar as usual.

Brother Clowes Patterson and wife, of Fredericton, N. B., spent several days at the Riverside Camp Meeting, returning home on the 12th inst.

Evangelist Guy Wilson and wife were called to Fort Fairfield, Maine, on account of the illness of Mrs. Wilson's father. Brother B. H. Kimball, who is able to be dressed and sits up every day, but is in a very weak condition. Brother Kimball's many friends are very sorry for his prolonged illness. Brother Wilson has cancelled his camp meeting engagements and will remain at Fort Fairfield for an indefinite time.

Mrs. B. H. Kimball and her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Kimball, and two daughters, and Mrs. Wm. Savage spent several days in their cottage during Riverside Camp Meeting.

Brother L. S. Kinney and Sister Kinney and family occupied their cottage during Riverside Camp Meeting.

Brother and Sister F. T. Kimball and daughters, Miss Beulah and Mrs. Roy Kinney and son, Hollis, occupied their cottage at Riverside Camp Ground during the Camp Meeting.

Mrs. E. H. Boone, Mrs. J. Ketchum and Mrs. Estelle Randall occupied Mrs. Boone's cottage.

Mrs. Annie Wiggins and Mrs. Amanda Dross occupied Mrs. Wiggins' cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knight were at their cottage during the camp meeting.

Mrs. M. A. Gilman and family were in their cottage at Riverside during the meeting.

Brother John Mantor and wife and family occupied their cottage. Brother G. W. Bates and wife occupied their cottage. Mrs. Tapley and Dr. and Mrs. Fulton occupied the Fulton cottage. Rev. J. H. and Mrs. Coy and Rev. S. A. and Mrs. Baker the minister's cottage. E. B. Lilley and wife occupied the cottage recently purchased by them. Brother J. E. Valley and family and Chas. Flewelling and wife, Mrs. G. W. Turner and family and Wm. Cogswell and wife, Rev. W. B. and Mrs. Wiggins, J. C. Smith and Rev. C. S. Hilyard occupied their cottages, and Brother and Sister Silas Burtt and their daughter occupied the Alliance cottage during the meeting at Riverside.

Rev. Leighton S. Tracy, who has been a missionary in India for several years, expects to arrive in this country this month (August). His mother and sister live in California. He is a nephew of Mrs. S. Hayden Shaw and of H. N. Boyer, of Hartland, N. B.

Our address at home will be 3750 Chamoune avenue, East San Diego, Cal., where we shall be glad to hear from all of our friends. L. S. TRACY.

Rev. H. H. Cosman has accepted a call to the Churches at Crystal and Bellevedere, Maine.

Mr. John Coy and family, of New Bedford, Mass., made a very pleasant visit to his father, Rev. J. H. Coy, at Woodstock, recently.

Sister Mrs. S. G. Fowler, of Carlisle, N. B., says: Enclosed please find my renewal for your much esteemed paper. It helps me much in these days of loneliness.

Sister Louisa B. Everett, our oldest reader, who is in her 93rd year, says: I enjoyed reading the last Highway very much. Bless the name of the Lord; it is a lasting benefit to get souls saved. "God will honor them who honor him." He gave me that portion of his word in a prayer meeting in Woodstock when I was a girl. I belong to Jesus. He saves me now. Glory to his name. I sincerely hope you will have some additions to your ministers. "The harvest is great and the labourers are few." Have you many men in your church like George Storey? I met him in Woodstock when I was there; he could sing.

Tracey Smith, youngest son of Rev. W. E. Smith, of West Somerville, Mass., is working during his vacation with his uncle, Mr. Warren Smith, of Nashwaak Village, N. B.

Sister Mrs. W. E. Smith expects to visit friends in Carleton and York Counties during August and September. It has been 17 years since Sister Smith has visited the Province.

Rev. W. E. Smith is to be the evangelist at the Ithel Falls holiness camp meeting, Aug. 15-25.

Riverside Notes and Personals will be continued in next issue.

The Highway is unavoidably late this issue on account of the editor being away attending Riverside Camp Meeting.

We are compelled to hold over some matter until next issue.

NATIONAL HOLINESS ASSOCIATION.

Revs. C. W. Ruth and W. H. Huff, with two singers, will compose the coast to coast workers, under the direction of the "National Holiness Association" for the coming fall and winter. We hope to arrange for three five-day meetings in our churches in New Brunswick in October.

QUARTERLY MEETINGS.

The first district quarterly meeting will convene with the Victoria Corner Church on Sept. 4th, at 7 o'clock. All pastors on the district are expected to be present, also delegates and written reports from all the churches on the district.

The second district quarterly meeting will meet at Grey's Mills in September. The exact date will be given in the Highway of Aug. 30th.

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. B. Colpitts attended Riverside Camp Meeting from the 14th to the 17th.

The Fredericton Church has sold their parsonage on King street and purchased a nice property on Aberdeen street, where Pastor P. J. Trafton and family will reside.

Beulah and Riverside Camp Meetings for 1919 are now past. Both were successful in every way. Thousands have met and heard the messages. We have never had finer gatherings nor better attention given and the spiritual results have been very encouraging. One thing has impressed us: The pressing need of more rooms on both camp grounds. The camp meetings are growing.

Rev. T. W. Moses has begun services in the church at Pembroke, Maine, and reports a fairly good interest. His address is West Pembroke, Me.

The New Tuskett Church is beginning to build a parsonage. This little church deserves commendation for the courage and faith they have manifested by supporting a pastor, and their faithfulness and liberality in their contributions for missionary purposes. They would appreciate any aid rendered them in building their parsonage.

Rev. H. C. Mullen and family arrived at Hartland on July 31st and Brother Mullen began his pastoral duties on the 3rd inst.

Rev. P. J. Trafton moved his family to Fredericton the last of July and preached there on the 3rd inst.

Rev. Henry Smith is much appreciated by the people at Meductic, where he has become pastor.

Mrs. I. F. Keirstead spent the past two weeks with her sister-in-law at St. John. Sister Keirstead expects to attend the quarterly meeting at Grey's Mills in September.

The first district quarterly meeting has been changed from Victoria to Lower Brighton, as the last meeting of the district was held at Victoria. It will convene Sept. 4th. The brethren are expecting a good meeting.

Evangelist F. W. Foster left Riverside Camp Ground for National Park, N. J., where he is to be one of the speakers at the National Park Camp Meeting. Brother Foster has held series of meetings in over 30 different places (some of them two and three times) for 10 days to three weeks each. We hope to secure him for a series of meetings for the fourth time in Moncton beginning the first of January, 1920.

We have engaged Evangelist David Anderson, of Houghton, New York, for a series of meetings at Moncton, N. B., Dec. 9-21 next.

Rev. A. H. Trafton says of Beulah: We wish to say that the meetings are good, prayer meetings are spiritual and helpful, preaching services are well attended. Our health is good; we are having victory. The dormitory has been well filled. Visitors from abroad pronounce this one of the most beautiful places on this continent.

Rev. F. T. Wright's health is not very good, but he will be able to do some supply work and assist in revival services.
