

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Brother Baker:

Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway, which I love very much indeed, and do not feel that I could do without its clean clear pages, which I love to read and look forward to its coming. It is the only paper we take at present.

I feel like saying, "Bless the Lord, O my soul" tonight. Jesus is unspeakably precious to me. God has been very good indeed to us, and provided for us in so many ways the last three months. Since the first of October we have had four cases of pneumonia and three cases of influenza. God's people have prayed for us, and I thank God he has people who can really pray. "The effectual prayer of a righteous man availeth much."

Pray for me that I may be kept true amidst everything.

Your sister in Christ,
MRS. D. W. DEPLISSEY.

Dear Brother Baker:

Please find enclosed my renewal of the Highway. I send the renewal for two years; am very pleased to get it. I like the reading of its pages, also the testimonies of God's dear people. My testimony today is, I am still trusting in the precious blood of Jesus, have a stronger determination than ever to go all the way through with Him; he saves and keeps me.

Your brother in Christ,
CHARLIE R. COREY,
Corey P. O., Queens Co., N. B.

Sister E. C. Newton, Providence, R. I., says: May the dear Lord bless you and yours and help you to spread Scriptural holiness in your paper. May many more prove that there is power in the precious blood of Jesus, not only to save but to cleanse from the very inbeing of sin. Your paper has been a blessing to me, and also to others that have read it. I usually pass it on for others to read and they enjoy it. So glad that there is no uncertain sound in your editorials; you hew straight to the line of holiness as taught in the word of God without compromise. Praise God there are a few Daniels left who will be true at any cost.

My object and aim is still to follow the Heavenly Lamb, and after his image aspire—Wesley.

So glad he is making his grace abound in my heart, praise his dear name. Above the rest this note shall swell, My Jesus hath done all things well.

I have been much encouraged of late in looking over some of Paul's sufferings, and yet he said, "None of these things move me." He surely has anchored to the "Rock of Ages."

So will all Father's children who trust him.

Kindly give my love to your wife; trust she may long be spared to help in the missionary cause. Some day when our work is finished may we hear Father say: Enough child, come home. Then we will cast our crowns before him, lost in wonder love and praise.

Yours for lost souls,
C. E. NEWTON.

Dear Brother Baker:

I am enclosing my renewal for the

Highway. I would not be without it; it is a great friend in the home. My testimony today is, Jesus saves me, and I thank him for his blessings and his mercies shown me each day, and for the love he has for his children, which carries us over the hard places in life. I can truly say, "He is everything to me."

DOCTOR'S OPINION OF DRINK

In his inaugural address as president of the American Medical Association in Chicago, Dr. Arthur D. Bevan was enthusiastically cheered as he called upon the 126,000 members and fellows of that body to help to abolish drink as a military and efficiency necessity, says the Standard. "There can be no doubt," he said, "of the injurious effects of alcoholic drink on both the physical and mental well-being of our population. There can be no doubt that the greatest single factor we can control in the interests of the public health of the nation would be the elimination of alcoholic drink. I want to plead," he continued, "for the united action of the organized medical profession of this country to secure the protection by law against the injury drink is doing our people, not as a political measure, but as the most important public health measure that could be secured. In this crisis, when we and our allies are fighting not only for ourselves but also for humanity and civilization, we must organize the nation in the most efficient way possible, and this cannot be done without eliminating drink." We are glad to know that the highest medical authorities are arrayed on the side of all true Prohibitionists for the elimination of the greatest curse that has ever fastened itself upon the American people.

AM I RIGHT WITH GOD?

- Does my life please God?
- Am I studying my Bible daily?
- Am I enjoying my Christian life?
- Is there anyone I cannot forgive?
- Have I ever won a soul to Christ?
- How much time do I spend in prayer?
- Am I trying to bring my friends to Christ?
- Have I ever had a direct answer to prayer?
- Is there anything I cannot give up for Christ?
- Just where am I making my greatest mistake?
- How does my life look to those who are not Christians?
- Is the world being made better, or worse, by my living in it?
- Have I ever tried giving one-tenth of my income to the Lord?
- Am I doing anything I would condemn in others?—Exchange.

Be generous and unselfish if you want to mold for yourself a character that will be beautiful and useful. Selfishness in its worst form is truly hideous, and it destroys those elements in character which make it pure and attractive.—Sel.

"A WORD TO THE WISE."

A letter from Brother Ziba Orser says: "We have not had many meetings since this epidemic has come to our country. I hope it will soon be over so we can get back to work again.

I have not been doing very much since I left the hotel, and there don't seem to be anything coming my way that I can get to do, but I am believing God, and I am not fussing, but I am trusting. David said, "I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread." My testimony is, "The Lord saves and keeps up to date. Hallelujah!"

Brethren, do you remember what the Mother of our Lord said to the servants at the marriage at Cana? If not, read it, and listen.—John 2-5.

Brother Ziba Orser has a genuine case of full salvation. He has proven it under all kinds of circumstances for 14 or 15 years. He is willing to do anything he can do, but he is stone blind. He has a good wife and two fine children. His address is Hartland, N. B. People who obey "Whatsoever Jesus says to them" soon have a wedding feast, with plenty of wine, and become exceedingly joyful. Try it.

THE WORD THAT FOCH CHANGED.

Real surrender holds nothing back. It is said that when the tentative armistice terms to be granted Germany were submitted to Marshal Foch, he quickly changed the word "abandon" to "renounce." The Captain of our salvation once used the same word. The word "forsake," in the Authorized Version of Luke 14:33, has been properly changed by the American Revision to "renounce" so that the passage reads: "Therefore whosoever he be of you that renounceth not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. "Renounce" is defined thus: "To declare strongly, with more or less of formality, that we give up some opinion, profession, or pursuit forever." Renounce is the strongest "give up" word in the language. Are we clinging, even in thought, to any sin, even a little one, or is Paul's statement ours, too: "What things were gain to me, these have I counted lost for Christ?"—Sunday School Times.

A POSITIVE INSULT.

The Bible positively and emphatically prohibits sin of every kind. There is no question in the matter every candid man, even an unbeliever will admit it. It also declares as positively that the object of the religion of Jesus Christ is to save from all sin.

In the face of these two facts, the common opinion in the church today is that we cannot be saved from all sin in this life and that it is fanaticism to claim or advocate it. It is positively insulting to the divine Author of the Bible, in the face of its plainer declarations, to deny the doctrine of present entire sanctification. It is the same as declaring the Bible, an untrue book and its divine author, a trifle.—Christian Witness.
