

QUARTERLY MEETING.

(Continued from Page Two)

at 10 a. m., reading I. John 4. This service continued until noon and was a time of victory and rejoicing among the saints. The many happy testimonies and shining faces bore proof to the saving and helping power of God. At 2 p. m. Rev. G. B. Traf-ton preached from John 8:56. This was a sermon of power and impressed the joy of pardon and sanctification, also the joy of Christian service and the glorious awaiting the children of God.

7 p. m. Rev. W. W. Howe preached from Rev. 6:15-17. This was a heart searching sermon and closed with an earnest appeal to the unsaved to accept Christ that they might not be among these at that "last prayer meeting." The meeting closed with a testimony service.

The meetings were all seasons of blessing and well attended especially the Sunday services when the church was well filled. We closed with the assurance that the Lord's presence had been with us and with a stronger purpose to be faithful.

ELLA M. McCARTHY,
Secretary.

The Quarterly Meeting for District No. 3 convened with the Church at Jonesport, Maine, Sept. 25-28 inclusive.

Following delegates and pastors were present: Rev. S. H. Clark, Calais; Rev. T. W. Moses, Mrs. Dora Blackwood, Mrs. Webster Blackwood, Pembroke.

Rev. L. J. Alley and wife, Mrs. J. P. Alley, Mrs. L. H. Simmons, Mrs. Alonzo L. Alley, Mrs. Eli Beal and others from Beals Church. Miss M. Ella Slipp and delegates from Jonesport Church.

Thursday evening service opened at 7.30. Rev. L. J. Alley from Beals spoke from Matt. 4:3-4 and showed how the spirit of the age is to neglect the spiritual need, while we are rushing madly onward for temporal good. "Man cannot live by bread alone." Jesus said, "I have meat to eat that ye know not of."

Friday p. m.—Service led by Sister Slipp from Isa. 50-4. An earnest appeal was made to give God the first part of the day in earnest prayer and waiting upon him.

Friday Evening—Brother Moses preached from Matt. 25-10. The condition of the world today. Asleep on Delileh's knee. At ease in Zion. Looking for the coming of the Lord and yet without the necessary equipment.

Saturday p. m.—Business Session convened at 2.30 p. m.

Miss M. Ella Slipp, President.

Mrs. Alice Newbury, Treasury.

Rev. L. J. Alley, Recording Secretary.

Rev. S. H. Clark, Highway Agent.

Encouraging reports were given by pastors and delegates from different churches.

Next Quarterly Meeting invited to convene with Calais Church sometime in January. Accepted the invitation.

Sunday a. m.—Love Feast led by Rev. T. W. Moses. This was a time of blessing to all God's people.

Sunday a. m. 10.30—This service was set apart for the ordination of the pastor, Miss M. Ella Slipp.

Ordination sermon preached by Rev. C. S. Hilyard from Eph. 3:7-18, showing the duty of the ministry. The hand of fellowship was given by Brother Hilyard.

Candidate questioned by Rev. L. J. Alley.

Charge to Candidate, Rev. T. W. Moses. Charge to church, Rev. S. H. Clark. This was a very precious service and God was present in old time power.

Sunday p. m. 2.30—Dedicatory sermon by Rev. S. H. Clark from 2 Chron. 30. Showing that God's house should be a house of prayer.

Rev. T. W. Moses offered the dedicatory prayer.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard made an appeal for the payment of the Church debt and $173.81 was generously given.

This was a time of real power and glory. While we presented the house God filled it with glory.

Sunday Evening—Rev. C. S. Hilyard preached from Jer. 8:20. Five responded to the call and come to the altar and gave testimony of deliverance from their transgressions. Another table offering was taken wiping out the debt of the church. Some $28.50 was also raised for the expenses of the meeting. It seemed almost impossible to bring the meeting to a close. God certainly has blessed the labors of our dear Sister Slipp in this place.

This was the biggest day Jonesport ever had. Some $324.55 in all was raised.

May the good work go on.

Yours for Holiness,
L. J. ALLEY,
Recording Secy.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Rev. S. O. Kinney, of Blaine, Maine, says:
Dear Brother Baker:

I was blessed very much with the inspiration that you valuable paper (The King's Highway) brought to me, with the many good words spoken.

I thank the dear Lord for his cleansing blood, that sanctifies and purifies and eventually will glorify if we are faithful unto death. I purpose to attend the campaign meeting at Fredericton.

Your true brother saved in Jesus' name,
S. O. KINNEY.

Rev. S. A. Baker:

Inclosed please find renewal for the Highway. My testimony is that God is very precious to me. More precious as the days go by and such a refuge in times of trial and temptation. It is such sweet rest to the soul, to look away from the trials and testings of this world to Jesus, in whom is no change, to just rest the soul in him who never fails.

Yours in Him,
MRS. HENRY J. SEELEY,
Hartland, N. B.

Woodstock, Yarmouth Co., N. S.

Dear Brother Baker:

Inclosed find one dollar for another year's subscription to the Highway.

I read every word in it, and wish there was more of it to read.

My testimony today is, I am still pressing on the upward way, and the way grows better and the things of the world less attractive every day.

Yours in Christ,
MRS. M. MULLEN.

Oct. 4th, 1919.

Sister Slipp writes as follows:
Dear Brother Baker:

Our quarterly meeting, including the ordination and dedication are over, but we had such a gracious time of blessing and refreshing from the presence of the Lord as I am sure those present can never forget. Every service was sweetly blessed by the presence of God, especially the first service held on Thursday afternoon, and the business session on Saturday afternoon. All of the Sabbath services were e-uir noon. God is answering prayer. May God put upon us a still greater burden and a clearer realization of our great responsibility as ambassadors and witnesses for Christ.

Dear Highway:

Just a few lines to let you know I am still trusting in the Lord. He is very precious to me as the days go by. I always like to read the testimonies of God's people. I see in the last Highway some of the Churches speaking well of their pastors. Well bless the Lord we have a preacher that stands true to the cause of holiness in all its fulness. We have undertaken to build a parsonage and by faith in God and trying to do his precious and holy will we hope to have it completed by the end of the year.

Well, bless the Lord he still rules and reigns, and by his grace I am going through.

Praise the Lord,
Easton, N. S. A. W. G.

Dear Brother Baker:

Please find my renewal for the King's Highway. My testimony is that Jesus saves and sanctifies me. And I am pressing on the upward way. May the Lord bless you in your work. I remain,

Yours in His service,
HARTLEY EARLE MULLEN,
New Tusket,
Digby Co., N. S.
Fredericton, N. B.

Dear Highway:

Through the goodness of the Lord we are able to report again through your columns.

Since coming to this place the Lord has been blessing us spiritually and temporally; amid the tests we meet we are finding His grace is sufficient and continue on our way, proving the blessed promises. On Tuesday evening, Oct. 7th, friends to the number of forty gathered at the parsonage and a pleasant and profitable few hours were spent together; before taking their departure Deacon Robert Barr, on behalf of the company, presented us with $50.50. Some friends have brought in their gifts since, making the grand total of $56.00; surely God is honoring our faith thus far, and the friends are coming up to the help of the Lord and the support of their pastor. Keep on praying.

Yours under the blood,
P. J. TRAFTON.