

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

The Moncton Sunday School observed Rally Day and harvest festival on the 5th inst. There was a beautifully arranged table of fruit and vegetables, and the school had an excellent program. 106 were present.

The Woodstock Sunday School observed Rally Day on Sept. 28th. They had a beautiful day. There was 132 present.

Revs. W. B. Wiggins, P. J. Trafton and E. W. Lester were at Beulah Camp Ground and closed it up for winter the last week in September.

Pressing the work—Rev. I. F. and Mrs. Keirstead is surely pressing the work, besides their Sunday services, Sister Keirstead says: Monday night I will organize a missionary society. We want to get all the women to work that we can. We are to have a Bible Class Tuesday night, prayer meeting Wednesday here and at Somerville Thursday night. Praying Band meeting on Friday night. The Mission Band Saturday afternoon.

You will now address Sister Slipp as Rev. M. Ella Slipp. Sister Slipp is the second woman that has been ordained by the Reformed Baptists, the other is Sister Sanders, of South Africa.

The work on the Port Maitland and Sandford, N. S., circuit is reported as going on with a considerable amount of interest and Pastor L. T. Sabine labouring faithfully determined for the right and fearless in denouncing sin in every form and degree.

Rev. H. Smith Dow and a number of workers from Fort Fairfield, Me., held a meeting at Perth Sunday afternoon, 5th inst.

The teachers of the three younger classes of the Fredericton Sunday School gave their scholars a car ride and supper which was much enjoyed by the little folks—God bless the children.

The people of the church and congregation of Fredericton held an enjoyable social time at the parsonage on the evening of the 9th inst—a house warming.

This issue of the Highway would pass as a quarterly meeting number—three reports.

Rev. Henry Smith is now located at Island Falls and Belvedere, Maine. Brother Smith gives as the reason he did not remain at Meductic that he could not find a house to move his family into.

Rev. W. W. Howe baptized four persons at Salem, Kings Co., on Sept. 28th. The meetings at St. John are good. Missionary interest is unabating. St. John is a live missionary church. Woodstock church only exceeded it by a small margin last year.

Meetings at Woodstock reported good, sometimes extra thrown in. A brother says: I find it does not pay to miss a meeting, or one will miss an extra good one.

We are very glad to have a nice letter from Sister S. Hayden Shaw. It is refreshing to have a talk with those that we have labored with for many years. 50 years ago Sister Shaw and the editor were passengers on a steamer and had a good taste of the Saxby Gale.

Rev. S. H. Clark had the misfortune of dropping $17.00 somewhere in Calais,

Maine, the other day, and it has not returned to him yet.

A note from Rev. P. J. Trafton says the tide is rising. He had a good day Sunday, that Fredericton is still on the map, and the people were feeling quite jubilant. Several rose for prayer in the evening. "I am encouraging myself in the Lord."

Evangelist W. H. Huff arrived at Moncton on the 13th and Evangelist C. W. Ruth arrived on the 14th. Also Mr. Kenneth Wells and wife. The services began at 7.30 on the 14th.

PERSONALS.

Sister Alice Sterritt writes: Through the kindness of Brother Springer Cosman we were able to meet the people at Norton, Millstream and Salem, and we enjoyed our visit among them much. It was a sweet memory of our vacation for the Lord was with us.

To our surprise at each service they took up a collection for our benefit, which amounted to $65.00. We appreciate it much.

I feel so glad that the Lord is opening up a path to South Africa. It seems so sweet to me. I have been waiting eight years for the Lord to make the way plain, and I do praise him that he has been leading all the time.

Sister Mrs. John Good, of Moncton, has returned from several weeks visit with relatives at Fort Fairfield, Maine, and Marysville, N. B.

Brother and Sister J. D. Patton have sold their farm near Sussex and moved to Apohaqui, Kings Co., N. B. We wish Brother and Sister Patton a continuation of the happiness in their new home that they enjoyed so long in the one they recently sold.

We are glad to receive a letter from Sister Hale, of Vancouver, B. C., and report her as in good health and very active as usual in spiritual work for the advancement of the Kingdom of God.

A letter from Sister Bessie Sollows says: "We are aiming more these days, by the grace of our Lord, to live a life which shall bring conviction to some heart yet in sin."

Mrs. C. E. Freeze and her sister have been visiting friends in St. John for two weeks.

Brother Handy F. Nevers and family have returned to Perth, N. B.

A letter from Brother F. W. Foster says: "Have about finished harvesting a bumper crop of potatoes. Mrs. Foster and son, Carvell, go to Boston next week for the winter, Carvell to finish his business college course, Mrs. Foster to make a home for him. I will soon be out in the work again. I preached three times nearly every Sunday through potato digging, our minister being sick." Many will be glad to see these notes from Brother Foster.—Ed.

Mrs. F. D. Foley and son spent Thanksgiving with her brother, Rev. P. J. Trafton, at Fredericton.

Sisters Mrs. Jenny Cody and Mrs. F. E. Clarke, of St. John, spent Sunday, the 12th, in Fredericton. Mr. Arthur Cody and wife spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Cody's parents at Marysville.

Sister N. J. Drysdale has returned to Acton, Mass., after having spent the summer with friends in New Brunswick.

Brother R. C. Potter, of Alberta, is attending McMaster University in Toronto. Brother Potter has been obeying the command, "As ye go, preach." He has been preaching while he was teaching.

Sister Mrs. Ada A. Day says: I am sending three dollars, $1.25 for my renewal for the Highway, the balance where most needed—(In the missionary fund). I enjoy the paper very much, and do not want to be without it.—Westford, Mass., R. F. D., Box 65.

THE COAST TO COAST CAMPAIGN FOR THE PROMOTION OF HOLINESS.

The opening meeting at Moncton was good.

Rev. C. W. Ruth was in charge of the service. Evangelist W. H. Huff preached an excellent opening sermon to a large and attentive congregation. He made a fine impression and there was a good response at the altar call. Brother and Sister Wells won all with their singing.

OBITUARY.

Burden H. Kimball.

Brother Kimball passed away on Sept. 27th, aged 56 years. Brother F. W. Foster officiated at his funeral service assisted by Rev. I. G. Cheney. It can be truly said of Brother Kimball, "He was a good man." He was a firm believer in scriptural holiness and "witnessed a good profession." He possessed a quiet, but strong personality, with a fixed purpose to do right, and live right, which we believe he did up to his best light. Brother Kimball was generous in helping the different departments of our work financially, and we always appreciated the help given, and he has been a regular subscriber to the Highway for many years, and attended and helped support the Riverside Camp Meeting, and many times came to Beulah.

Brother Kimball is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Evangelist Guy L. Wilson and Miss Kathleen Kimball, and one brother, Frank T. Kimball, of Fort Fairfield, Maine.

Rev. C. J. Fowler, D.D.

We all regret to learn of the passing of Dr. C. J. Fowler, the editor of the Christian Witness, and for many years the President of "The National Holiness Association." Many looked to Dr. Fowler for advice, and for spiritual encouragement. No man at the present moment will be missed so much as he is and will be.

Dr. Fowler was one of the workers at the great holiness meetings held at Woodstock, Fredericton and at St. John at the beginning of the holiness movement in New Brunswick, and has been the leader of the Holiness Camp Meetings at Old Orchard, Maine. We pray that his mantle may fall upon a worthy successor.

"The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep."—John 10-13.
