

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Fredericton and Woodstock are yet to have blessing through the Evangelistic Campaign. Go and catch the fire. It is a great opportunity; don't miss it.

We are delighted with our brave people, who show their faith by their works. If the people about us do not credit us in our testimonies, they must believe the evidences, when backed up by works. When things which look like impossibilities are accomplished by just a few working people. If our people who are really financially able to do, would do in proportion to some poor widows, and men who have to depend on their daily wages, what could we not accomplish. I fear at times that people who hold back when means are needed, will wither their souls and cause them trouble at the Judgment, for money rightly used can become a great means of grace. When used at the right time and place.

The brethren are working at the parsonage at New Tusket, N. S., and praying for means to finish it. Brother Briggs says: Our services are blessed and honored by the presence of God.

Brother Hartley Mullen, of New Tusket (Havelock, Digby Co., N. S.) has gone away to school.

Evangelist David Anderson, of Houghton, New York, and our singers, Rev. H. S. and Sister Mullen, are expected to hold services in Moncton Dec. 9-21. A time of rich blessing is anticipated—Brethren pray for us.

We should remember the work at Calais in our prayers, and also with financial aid. Every church should be remembered by every church, and every church help every church by united prayer, and otherwise where needed.

An excellent monthly missionary meeting was held at Moncton on the 21st. Mrs. W. D. Blakney presided.

A good interest is being awakened at Perth under the leadership of Rev. H. S. Dow. Fire damaged the hall generally used by our people, but an effort is being made to gather money for repairs so the meetings can be continued.

We are delighted to inform our readers that our evangelists, Rev. H. S. Mullen and wife, have returned from their visit to Ohio, and are settling at Meductic, and will have charge of the Meductic church and probably the entire circuit, but will also do evangelistic work.

Brother T. W. Moses says, God meets us in all of our meetings. There are a faithful few who attend regularly—God bless Brother Moses in his brave effort on this field.

The next quarterly meeting of district No. 3 will be held with the church at Calais, Maine.

The next quarterly meeting of District No. 2 is appointed at Salem, Kings Co., N. B.

Rev. H. S. Mullen preached at Meductic and Greenbush on the 19th inst.

Sister Mullen preached at St. John on the 19th inst. There was a good congregation and good interest.

The Ruth-Huff-Wells meetings at Moncton were blessed indeed. They were showers of blessings—good heavy showers.

PERSONALS.

Evangelist F. W. Foster began his fall and winter evangelistic campaign with a series of meetings at Bridgewater, Me.—in fact he has never quit, but has been in the work all summer in addition to his farm work and business.

Brother P. L. Cosman, of St. John, is attending the Nazarene College at Wollaston, Mass., preparing for gospel work either at home or in the foreign field—God bless Brother Cosman in his grand resolve.

Good luck—Some of our brethren in N. S. and their pastor spent 10 days in the woods looking for moose and deer. They had the good fortune to escape being shot—so did the large game. It is a good thing to have the pastor along under such circumstances.

We are sorry to learn that Dr. Jewett's furniture and nice residence at Woodstock are being disposed of; looks like the Doctor and family had decided to remain California. M. S. Trafton is in charge of the disposal of the property for Dr. Jewett.

The United Baptist Convention was held in Woodstock over Sunday, the 19th. Two of their ministers occupied the Reformed Baptist pulpit morning and evening.

Rev. P. J. Trafton baptized two young ladies on Sunday evening, 19th inst. The ladies on Sunday evening, 19th inst, at Fredericton. The people are much encouraged. God is surely blessing them in their work, and they are doing nobly financially. They evidently are bringing in the tithes and God is opening the windows of heaven and pouring out his blessings.

Brother and Sister W. N. McLean, of North Head, Grand Manan, spent Sunday the 19th, at Fredericton, and returned home via St. John on the 21st.

Brother and Sister Alex. Hayes, of Millstream, attended the services at Moncton over Sunday, the 19th.

Brother John Gildart, of Nixon, spent a week at Moncton, his first vacation for many years, and enjoyed the meetings at the Reformed Baptist Church. Brother Gildart is one of the old time sturdy Christians, always at his post.

EARLY METHODISM.

Whitfield, the boldest and most zealous apostle of Methodism, often collected hearers to the number of 12,000 in the fields, churchyards, and even fairs, and by the thunders of his eloquence and the terrors of his denunciations, produced such an effect on his audience that many of them were turned to faith and holiness on the spot. These sudden conversions were considered as the outpourings of grace and came to be considered by the Methodists as desirable results of their preaching. They soon gave up the practice of field preaching and built houses of worship, partly to protect themselves from exposure to the weather, and partly to avoid the outrages which they experienced from the rabble.

Though they suffered much from the violence of the populace, yet, the government made no opposition. They now proceeded to the regular establishment of their church constitution.

The first Methodist conference was held in 1744. It was composed of six clergymen who proceeded to the consideration of the three topics: What to teach; How to teach; and What to do.—Everybody's Cyclopaedia.
