

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Highway:

We wish to acknowledge through your columns some of the good deeds of the brethren and sisters and friends of the Marysville and Penniac churches owing to the illness of my wife, gathered at our home and had song and prayer service led by our pastor, E. W. Lester, which we greatly enjoyed as we had been unable to get out to service for sometime. Before leaving for their homes they presented us with $40.50, also wood and provisions amounting to about $25.00, for which we feel very grateful to these kind friends for their many good deeds and kind acts toward us.

MR. AND MRS. A. CLARK.
Marysville, N. B.

Dear Highway:

Just a few words from this corner of the vineyard. Once again God in love and mercy has visited us, and our hearts have been made glad in seeing souls brought to Christ.

Brother and Sister H. S. Mullen came to us Feb. 6th and began special meetings on the 10th, continuing until March 7th.

The Spirit was at work from the first, and almost every night saw some souls at the altar, in all about 40 came forward, some for pardon, some for sanctification, and some backsliders were reclaimed, and a real feast of good things enjoyed by all. Fourteen converts followed the Lord in baptism, and twelve were received into the church. To God be all the glory.

My testimony is that Jesus saves, the blood cleanses and Christ abides.

Dear Highway:

I am glad I am taking the Highway now. I have enjoyed the first two copies all right. There is so much in it about the Word of God that one is blessed by reading it. I want to say that the dear Lord is richly blessing my soul these days. He is all and everything to me. I do thank the dear Lord for kind friends. On Monday, the 17th my birthday, I received many remembrances from friends of the church and strangers, while I am not able to walk or go to meeting. I am so glad that the brothers and sisters do not forget me in prayer. I thank God for them, I praise God for victory in my soul.

St. John, N. B.

BESSIE McAVITY.

Note.—Sister McAvity is our young sister that lost both legs in the street railway accident at St. John last fall. She is a member of the St. John Church, and she is remarkably bright in her Christian experience, and wonderfully submissive to her great loss.—Ed.

Dear Editor:

Please find enclosed my renewal for the Highway. I enjoy reading the Highway very much and find it so helpful. I love its teachings and I love the good old holiness way, have been walking with Jesus seven years and have no desire to go back, but find this a beautiful way to walk, and would not exchange the peace that Jesus gives me for all the earth's riches and pleasures and I'm so glad that I have given my heart to Jesus while young that I might have a life time to serve him, and not when I come to die have only a wasted life to give to God. I thank God for the privilege of serving Him, and I've found in Him a friend who is all the world to me, one who shares all life's joys and sorrows, and leadeth me where living waters flow, and feedeth me with the bread of life; and I find that God's word is indeed food to my soul, and is always so new and sweet, for no matter how many times I read it I always find something new in it each time. I praise God for this full and free salvation which He gives to every seeking soul, and my daily prayer is that more wandering ones may be brought home to Jesus, and that those who have never heard of Jesus may hear to the saving of their souls the blessed tidings of Jesus and His great love. May God bless the missionaries in their work of seeking the lost.

I thank God for bringing this awful war to a close and giving victory to the allied armies. And oh may we by the grace of God win as great a victory over the great enemy of our souls and at last when the battles of life are over, and the victory forever won, go home to wear a crown with Jesus, and dwell forever in His presence, singing the song of souls redeemed.

Yours on Jesus,

Dear Brother Baker:

Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway. We cannot afford to be without it. We love its clean pages, and as I have been deprived of attending services the last few months I have enjoyed reading the testimonies of the brothers and sisters, and I have proved that in sickness or health. "The best friend we have is Jesus."

Your sister in Christ,
MRS. P. B. HURLBURT.

Dear Brother Baker:

Please find enclosed a money order to pay my subscription for the Highway. I find much pleasure in reading its pages. From it I learned of old friends who are still on the way. Some have passed over into glory, but many are doing the Master's work here. Mr. Cliff and I have much to be thankful for; we have had sickness, but did not suffer for need of help.

I thank the dear Lord that we are striving day by day to live in touch with Him, and we expect by his grace to be overcomers in his name. His abiding presence is very sweet to me.

Dear Readers of the Highway:

I feel it my duty to make known how wonderfully God blesses me in saving my soul; after years of rebellion I was at last aroused—perhaps my last invitation—I was forty years of age and lived a very wicked life from my boyhood. God showed me that I was lost, but could be saved, bless his dear name.

"There is a fountain filled with blood,
Drawn from Emmanuel's veins
And sinners plunge beneath that flood
Lose all their buildy stains."

And now I can say, "They are all taken away. My sins are all taken away."

Now I have the assurance of being saved, and have followed my Lord and Master as he led me into baptism, and I have given myself unreservedly to God's will, and I enjoy the peace which passeth all understanding.

I would be glad to correspond with, or meet any of God's people who chance my way.

Dear Highway:

I felt like reporting this morning. Our meetings since our church was opened have been good. The Holy Spirit is real in demonstrating the truth as God has called us to preach the gospel to every creature.

We have given notice of our resignation to take effect the first Sunday in April, and we shall be open for a call after that date.

T. W. MOSES.

Dear Brother Baker:

Just a line to say I receive my paper regular as I have come to look for it when due. I should miss it very much now. That and my Bible constitutes my reading matter. Praise God, they blend together so beautiful in the teaching of holiness, "without which no man shall see the Lord." We have no Reformed Baptist Church here. I worship with the First Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene. Praise to my Heavenly Father, He taught me how to watch and pray and live rejoicing every day! Bless His name. I learn through the columns of the little paper the good work of the holiness people in Canada. May the Lord abundantly bless the work is the prayer of my heart.

Dear Highway:

I had the privilege of exchanging with Rev. H. S. Dow on Sunday, March 2nd. It was a pleasure to go again to the place of my birth and boyhood days. Most of the old folk of my young days have passed away. Many of my companions have moved to other parts of the country, a few remain. It seems only yesterday since I was a boy playing about the street and along the shore of the creek and river. Brother Dow has been strong in faith as evidenced by the neat little church that is about completed. A large congregation greeted the writer at the evening service. They have a good Sunday School started, over 50 were present. Let every reader send a contribution to Brother Dow to help in paying the debt. The liberal soul shall be made fat. We must not rob God. Don't forget the many enterprises of our denomination, give liberally and keep on praying.

Yours for holiness,
P. J. TRAFTON.
