

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

I. Sanders says in a letter of Jan. 4th that converts were baptized and received into the church across the Pongola River, S. A.

Rev. H. S. Dow attended the quarterly meeting at Fort Fairfield, Maine, March 13-16.

The Meductic Church will be dedicated June 15th. The first district quarterly meeting will be held at Meductic June 13-15. The two meetings will be combined.

The Moncton Church will be dedicated April 20th. Rev. W. B. Wiggins, B. A., will preach the dedicatory sermon. Evangelist F. W. Foster, Revs. W. W. Howe, G. B. Trafton and other ministers are expected to be present and take part in the services which will be continued over Sunday, the 27th.

Rev. I. F. and Mrs. Keirstead called on friends at Hartland on their way home from the quarterly meeting held at Fort Fairfield, Me.

Rev. A. H. Trafton was visiting his son, Rev. P. J. Trafton, last week.

Rev. H. C. Archer has resigned as pastor of the Fredericton Church, to take effect June 15th, and will leave Fredericton.

The last meeting of the Reformed Baptist quarterly meeting was held Sunday evening, the speaker being H. S. Dow, of Meductic, N. B. Among the other speakers during the conference were: Rev. Fred T. Wright, of Stevensville; Rev. and Mrs. I. F. Keirstead. The following officers were elected at the business meeting on Saturday afternoon: Rev. C. S. Hilyard, president; Rev. Fred T. Wright, secretary; Rev. H. S. Dow, Highway Agent—Fort Fairfield Review.

The brethren tendering their resignation from their pastorates, which is our custom at this time of the year, suggest that the churches should take immediate action in arranging for pastors, which is best for pastor and people.

Rev. H. C. Archer held a District Sunday School Convention at Cross Creek on March 12th, one at Nashwaak Village the 13th and another at Dow Settlement on the 20th.

Brother Archer has twenty-seven more such gatherings to attend this spring—in York, Sunbury and Charlotte Counties.

Rev. I. F. and Mrs. Keirstead have resigned the pastorate of Millville Circuit, and are open for engagement on a new field.

Rev. P. J. Trafton is conducting special services at Victoria. A considerable interest is being developed, the meeting run until midnight on Sunday, 23rd, and seven persons were at the altar. Brother I. F. Keirstead preached on Monday evening, the 24th.

Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen have been given a call to the Hartland circuit.

The special religious services being held in the Reformed Baptist Church, Woodstock, N. B., have been well attended and there were large congregations on Sunday. Much good has been done. Mr. Foster speaks on Monday and Tuesday evenings of this week.

The committee of arrangement for the dedication of the Moncton Church composed of Pastor and Officers, cordially invite pastors and people of our churches to be present at the dedicatory services, Sunday, April 20th. People who are coming will please notify the pastor as early as possible. Address S. A. Baker, Moncton, N. B.

Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen have been sick for a week at Seal Cove, but have resumed the meetings again.

PERSONALS.

Edward Burnette Jewett is a very welcome addition to the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Jewett, 117 North Painter Ave., Whittier, Calif.

We are glad to state that Sister Luella R. Brown, who was so seriously hurt by ice falling from a building in Fredericton, has recovered her eye sight, after five weeks in total darkness.

Mrs. P. E. Petterson writes: Enclosed please find P. O. money order for our subscription for the Highway. It found its way to France for the last three years to my husband, who enjoyed it as only a follower of Christ and a believer in holiness can.

Brother Ziba Orser and wife attended the quarterly meeting at Fort Fairfield, Maine, from the 13th to 16th inst.

The Beulah Hotel Committee for 1919 are Rev. G. B. Trafton, Thomas Mitchell, Rev. H. C. Mullen and Rev. F. T. Wright.
