MONCTON, N. B., JUNE 14, 1919.

NO. 23

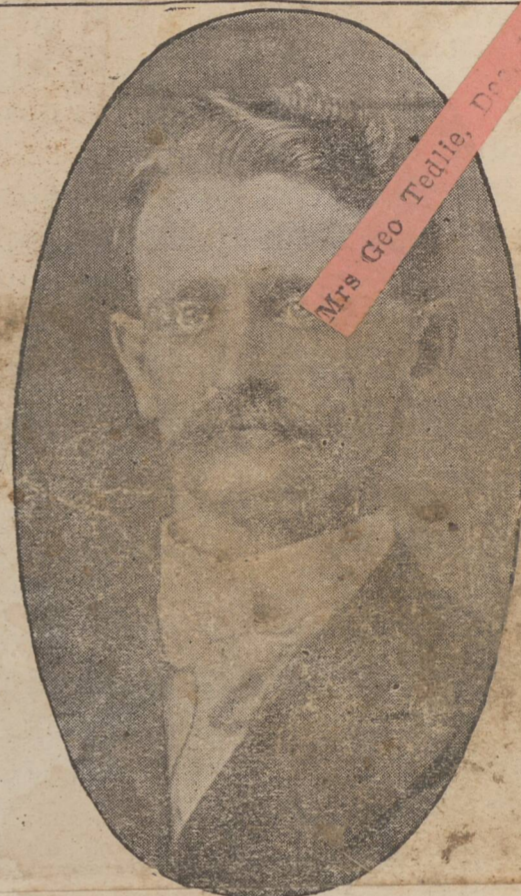

THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL SESSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED BAPTIST CHURCH OF CANADA

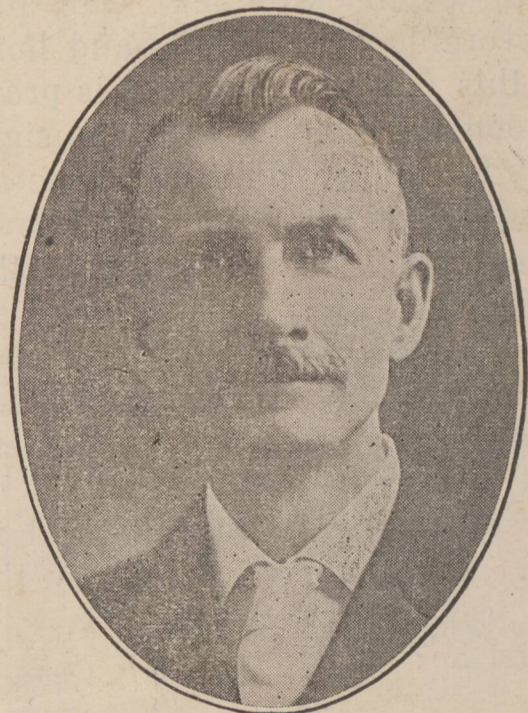

REV. F. L. WRIGHT, President.

REV. W. B. WIGGINS, B.A., Recording Secretary

REV. L. T. SABINE, Auditor

REV. H. C. ARCHER, Assistant Secretary

REV. D. J. TRAFTON, Corresponding Secretary

DEACON E. COSMAN, Treasurer

The above brethren are the Officers at the opening of the present session. Rev. W. B. Wiggins was the first Secretary of the Alliance, and has filled that office for the greater part of the time ever since. Brother Cosman has been the Alliance Treasurer for the entire period since the organization.

It would prove a very enjoyable occasion if all the people now living, who composed the charter membership of the Alliance, would attend this meeting, and the Officers of the coming year would be composed of the old veterans of the holiness movement in the Maritime Provinces. Let this coming meeting of the Alliance be a special time of reunion.

"A great preacher of broad vision declared a few days ago that when the devil went out of the Slavery business he went into the whiskey business, and now he is gliding out of the whiskey business into the tobacco business."

When we want to know what is the secret of dead churches and dead souls it is a very simple one—they have ceased to be missionary.—Sel.

Where the love of God and man does not prevail, there is no religion.—Dr. Adam Clarke.

On every occasion of uneasiness, we should retire to prayer, that we may give place to the light and grace of God and then form our resolutions without being in any pain about what success we may have.—John Wesley.
