THE QUARTERLY MEETING AT NORTON.

An excellent meeting was enjoyed at Norton. The visitors were royally entertained by the homes of our people. The church looked very spick and span in its coat of new paint outside and in and there has been added recently a lot of land which adds much to the value of the church property. Pastor G. B. Trafton is very highly appreciated by his people, and his work is prospering in building up the church spiritually. The delegates from Grey's Mills Church were equally loud in their expressions of praise with those of Norton for their pastor.

We have heard it said that it is good policy to talk up your minister, even if you should want to get rid of him, for then some other church would want him, for if you talk him down, no other church would want him. So if good words count that way, we would expect that Brother Trafton would soon be called to some other field of labor. Brother Whelpley has given a good report of the meeting in this issue.

The following brethren and sisters were present: Moncton—W. A. Hopper and wife, A. K. McCallum, Stephen Tuck, D. H. Berry and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Power; St. John—G. S. and Mrs. Cosman, A. E. Whelpley, Roy Morrell and wife, Wm. Trafton, Rev. G. B. Trafton and Rev. W. W. Howe; Hatfield's Point—Mrs. Noble; Cornhill—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Coates, Mrs. Branscombe; Mercer—D. H. Hayes and wife, B. MacKenzie; L. Millstream—Noah E. Hicks and wife and family; Grey's Mills—S. H. Bradley and wife, W. W. Cronk, John Bradley, Wm. Hennessy, Misses Daisy and Vera Williams; Codys—Mrs. S. C. Connell; Mountain Dale—W. S. Long and wife and many others were present. It was a good meeting and under high spiritual pressure, especially in the morning service when Rev. G. B. Trafton, who was to preach, gave way and the love feast continued from 9 to 12 o'clock.

SMACKERS.

One feels to be reverent and careful in speaking about people's doings while engaged in prayer. There are so comparatively few who pray in public meetings—except among the holiness people, but when some things done in prayer strike us our feelings are thrown into confusion and it is hard to feel serious for the unusual thing diverts our mind from what is being said to what is being done. We have got accustomed to the pounding of the seat with the fist to emphasize the intensity of the feelings, but when the person engaged in prayer smacks his lips with every sentence he speaks, the big smack is the principal thing we hear. We would think it was a momentary habit that one falls into, if it were not that every little while somewhere in a series of meetings a new smacker comes in. Then we conclude that somewhere, sometime, somebody has prayed a smacking good prayer and these must be the echoes that have been caught and have just reached us; but it smacks of imitation, and we feel like saying, brother! Where did you get that smack?

Rev. S. A. Baker:

Dear Sir: Enclosed you will find my subscription for 1919, ending December of this year. I have always enjoyed reading the King's Highway since I have had the perusal of its contents. I enjoy the Missionary Correspondence by Brother H. C. Sanders and Mrs. Sanders as I have met them at Beulah Camp Meeting.

Yours truly,

MRS. AMELIA NOBLES.

Dear Highway:

We would like to report that we are about to change our location. We have decided to come to Pembroke to build up the church here. The church building is in bad condition and will cost considerable for repairs so we can hold services in it. We have already received a gift of fifty dollars from Brother C. H. Beal, of Beals, Maine. The people of West Pembroke appreciate this gift very much and will appreciate any other help that may be donated for this purpose. It can be addressed to Rev. T. W. Moses, West Pembroke, Maine.

God never makes us sensible of our weakness except to give us of His strength. —Fenelon.

The more education a man has, the more he needs the power of God; and the lack of learning must drive us in humility to Him for wisdom."
