1919-Riverside Camp Meeting-1919

f(The Sixteenth Annual Meetings)

EVANGELIST DAVID ANDERSON, of Houghton, New York. Who will be the leading Preacher at Riverside Camp Meeting, Aug. 8-17, 1919.

Rooms—Hotel 75 cents per day. Dormitory 50 cents per day. Board per week $5.00. Per day $1.00. Dinner 50 cents. Breakfast and Supper 35 cents each.

Riverside Camp Ground is situated near Robinson Station on the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad, about two miles from the base of Mars Hill.

Riverside Camp Ground is centrally located, only one quarter of a mile from Robinson Village, 5 miles from Bridgewater Village, 2 miles from Blaine, 3 miles from Mars Hill Village, 3 miles from Bairds Mills, N. B., 6 miles from Tracy's Mills, N. B., 8 miles from Centreville, N. B.

This ensures a good attendance through the week.

On Sundays there is an average attendance of about 4,000 people, about equally divided between residents of New Brunswick and Maine.

The great good accomplished by this camp meeting cannot possibly be known until the great reckoning day.

Since the general use of automobiles by the people on both sides of the boundary line, it has become a problem to find room for them, and yet many come with horses and carriages. Since the beginning of the war the railway excursions have been discontinued, but this has not perceivably lessened the attendance.

The people of all Christian denominations for 30 or 40 miles around look forward to Riverside Camp Meeting as the great religious event of the year, and we believe it stimulates the spiritual activities of all the churches of this whole region of country, even though much is said against the camp meeting from pulpit and pew, and we sincerely thank these opposers for helping us advertise the camp meeting, and stimulate people to come. Keep right on, brethren, if your congregations go to Riverside Camp Meeting, come with them, help and get help.

Riverside Camp Meeting will be held a week later than usual this season —Note the date, August 8-17.

NOTICE.

The quarterly meeting of District No. 7 will convene with the church at Meductic June 12-15th, beginning Thursday evening and continuing over Sunday, the dedication of the new church will also take place at the same time.

On account of the small attendance of ministers and delegates at the last quarterly meeting and on account of the few reports from the churches the matter was discussed and a vote was passed for the secretary to remind the people of the district of their obligation.

Now, I will not begin to prophesy dark things, but in backsliding from religion there is always the first step backward and downward.

The quarterly meeting stands for at least two things, the Spirtual uplift of the district and the looking after of the business of God's Kingdom; every church should be represented by letter and delegates, and when delegates can't be had a letter at least is required, stating the condition of the church.

Why people do not come to the quarterly meeting might be a hard question to answer in every case, but one thing is certain, when the fires of devotion burn low on the altars of men's hearts, most any kind of an excuse will seemingly satisfy the conviction of their hearts, but God is not satisfied.

Let there be reports from all the churches and delegates too with ministers to the next quarterly meeting, and pray that God pour out his Spirit in floods upon the dry ground.

> Yours for the cause, F. T. WRIGHT, Secy.

The British occupation of the famous old city of Jerusalem has brought into that city an abundance of pure water. Before the occupation the supply was very small in quantity and very poor in quality. And this is only one of the many blessings of British rule now enjoyed by the people of that old Bible place.

Nothing is done beautifully which is done in rivalship, nor nobly which is done in strife.—Sel.

Your love has a broken wing if it cannot fly across the sea.—Maltbie D. Babcock. In Littleton, Sunday morning, April 27th, Rev. Z. M. Miller. All will regret to learn of the death of Brother Miller.— "He was a good man."

THE HAPPY HOME.

Happy the home when God is there, And love fills every breast,
When one their wish and one their prayer
And one their heavenly rest.

Happy the home where Jesus' name Is sweet to every ear,Where children early lisp his fame And parents hold him dear.

Happy the home where prayer is heard, And praise is want to rise,Where parents love the sacred word And live but for the skies.
