

THE DEDICATION OF THE MONCTON
REFORMED BAPTIST CHURCH.

people in a marked degree all through the winter months, wonderfully helping the brethren amid all the perplexing things met during the work of building; three of the brethren were hurt, and suffered much loss of time, beside hospital and other expences, and suffering, but amid it all, faith in God and a stronger bond of unity and greater spiritual blessing was developed, and a stronger church in all these things is the grand result.

DONATION.

We were invited to the home of Brother Simeon Dunlap, Maple Ridge, Thursday evening, April 10th. When we reached there over very bad roads, we found friends from about every home in the place.

After spending a pleasant evening with song and music, etc., we sat down to tables spread with all that one could wish. Then Brother Dunlap, after saying some nice things to his pastor and wife, presented them in behalf of those present, with the sum of $42.00. All of which they are very grateful indeed. These kind friends did not forget to supply our needs even while the churches were closed, because of sickness

May the Lord bless each one of them.
Brother and Sister I. F. Keirstead.

THE TIME TO CRY.

It is bad luck to cry on Monday.

To cry on Tuesday makes red eyes.

Crying on Wednesday is bad for children's heads and for the heads of older people.

If a child begins to cry on Thursday, he will find it hard to stop.

It is not best for children to cry on Friday. It makes them unhappy.

Never cry on Saturday. It is too busy a day.

Tears shed on Sunday are salt and bitter.

Children should on no account cry at night. The nights are for sleep.

They may cry whenever else they please, but not at any of these times, unless it is for something serious.—St. Nicholas.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Daughter Mae, who died August 28th, at Fredericton, N. B., aged 45 years.

The months have passed away, dear,
And still our hearts are sore,
For as the days go swiftly by
We miss you more and more.

But God saw fit to take thee
From this world of sin and pain
And we are trusting by His grace
To see our girl again.

Mother—MRS. JANE L. MAXON.

Look! listen! When you have your own way, you cannot have God's way; nor does God have his way with you. "For your ways are not as my ways."

OBITUARY.

Lloyd Arnold Christie.

At Milltown, Me., on the 14th inst., Lloyd Arnold Christie, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Christie, of pneumonia. Funeral service was held at home of grandparents, Brother and Sister W. A. Barnard, of Milltown, Me., on the 16th inst., by Rev. S. H. Clark.

Judson Crosby.

Very sad news was received by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Crosby, of East Brenton, Yar. Co., N. S., when on the 8th inst. they learned by telephone that their son, Judson, of Boston, had been killed on the Sunday evening previous by a street car in Cambridge, Mass.

The deceased was the second son and unmarried. He leaves to mourn their loss his parents, two brothers, George, of East Brenton; Hugh, of Yarmouth North, and one sister, Mrs. B. J. Crosby, of Waltham, Mass., together with a large circle of relatives and friends. The body was brought home and the funeral services, which were largely attended, were held on the 13th inst., conducted by Rev. L. T. Sabine, of Port Maitland, assisted by Rev. Mr. Gordon.

Interment was made in the family lot in the R. B. cemetery at Brazil Lake, beside the resting place of sister Mrs. John Paxton, whose body three years ago was there laid to rest.

To the sorrowing family the deepest sympathy is extended in their sad bereavement.

Miss Mary McAllister.

It is with deep sorrow of heart that we are called upon to record the death of our esteemed and beloved sister, Mary H. McAllister, at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. D. Patton, Sussex, on Sunday, the 20th at 2.30 p. m. One brother, Charles, of Sacramento, Calif., also survives, besides a number of nieces and nephews of Sacramento and Cleaveland, Ohio. Sister Mary, as she is known by many who have met her at Beulah Camp, was a woman of deep Christian experience and rare gifts in ministering in times of sorrow and sickness. She was one of the best known nurses in New Brunswick and was very successful, being faithful in duty and kind of heart, with always one object in view of honoring her Lord, and if unsaved, of leading the patient to Jesus. Sister Mary was converted under the ministry of Rev. C. T. Phillips, Free Baptist at Sussex, when she was only a young girl, and under the preaching of Rev. G. W. MacDonald she was led into the experience of entire sanctification and all these many years has maintained the life and walk of holiness. She by faithfulness and kindness had endeared herself to the hearts of the people in her own community as was manifested by the large funeral. The services were in charge of Rev. W. W. Howe, pastor of the St. John Reformed Baptist Church of which she was a member. Rev. Mr. Lair, Methodist, read the Scripture, Rev. G. B. Trafton (R. B) offered a heart-felt prayer. Rev. Mr. Howe spoke from John 14-3, expressing the hope and confidence of our sister in her life and made a strong appeal to those present to be sure that their hearts were right with God. M. S. Trafton made a few remarks following Rev. Mr. Howe. At the close of the service Mrs. F. D. Foley and M. S. Trafton sang that grand hymn, "No disappointment in Heaven." Interment was at the cemetery in Sussex. Rev. Mr. Rice, Methodist, offered prayer at the graveside. All join in deep sympathy with those who sorrow.

Bryce Hull.

At Millville on March 27th, of pneumonia, Bryce, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hull, in his 21st year. Deceased was a moral young man of a cheerful disposition and hence a general favorite among young and old. He professed faith in Christ before he died and we hope has gone to the better land. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral was attended by Rev. I. F. Keirstead.

Lauretta Billings.

At Woodstock on April 13th, Lauretta, daughter of Hayward and Cora Billings, aged five months. The remains were brought to Upper Hanesville, where interment was made.

The funeral was conducted by the writer, I. F. Keirstead.

"Suffer the little children to come unto me."

Mrs. Bessie Burthwick.

At the home of George Somers, Victoria, Car. Co., Thursday evening, April 3rd, Mrs. Bessie Burthwick, passed away from this life to be with Jesus. Her maiden name was Logan, and she was born at Prince William, York Co., 77 years ago. She was twice married; her first husband was Hugh Bradley, the only child was born of this union; after Mr. Bradley's death she married Christopher Burthwick, who survives her, being 94 years old. Our sister was converted in a revival held at Lower Brighton, years ago by John Perry, being baptised by him and uniting with the F. C. B. Church. She had been a faithful follower of Jesus all these years, and died in the triumph of the faith. She professed to receive the experience of sanctification some eight years ago, and when taken sick was in attendance at some special services being held by the writer at Victoria, her home is one and a half miles below, and because of the seriousness of her illness could not be moved to her home. The funeral was held at her home Saturday afternoon, April 5th, the writer officiating. A choir from the U. B. Church sang appropriate selections. Beside her husband she is survived by one son, James F. Bradley, one sister and five grandchildren.

P. J. TRAFTON.

To him no chance is lost.
God's will is sweetest to him when
It triumphs at his cost."
