EDITORIAL.

A VISIT TO THE BRETHREN.

The editor knows that many of our readers are interested to hear every little item of news relating to the brethren, so he made short visits to several of the brethren while on a business trip last week to Woodstock.

Accompanied by Rev's. H. C. Archer and H. S. Dow, we went to a meeting being held in the vestry of the Woodstock Church, where the Reformed Baptist Alliance, and the first Reformed Baptist Church were organized on Nov. 3rd. 1888, and on the same occasion Rev. W. B. Wiggins, Rev. A. Harit and the writer were ordained to the gospel ministry.

A meeting was in full swing, being led by Rev. P. J. Trafton, and suffered no loss by the entrance of three preachers, notwithstanding the old saying, "that three preachers can spoil a meeting, but that is not true of holiness preachers and meetings.

It was a good meeting and it was followed by characteristic greetings among the brethren and sisters.

At the close of the service a meeting of the Alliance Executive was held at the residence of Mrs. George I. Britton, where Brother and Sister Wiggins board.

After the business was disposed of Brother Archer and the writer went to the cozy home of Brother A. J. and Mrs. Marsten, where we were heartily welcomed, and at noon the following day we were heartily welcomed by Brother and Sister F. M. Boyd.

In the afternoon we enjoyed a very pleasant call at the home of Rev. J. H. and Sister Coy, and found our brother and sister enjoying usual good health, and the presence of their daughter, Miss Alda Askerson, who is home for a brief visit. Brother Coy is stopping close at home for the winter months, but expects to be again in active work in the spring and summer.

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD.

could appropriate Him by saying, "My Lord and My God."

Jesus waits to be appropriated. He is not content to be a Shepherd, a Good Shepherd, the Shepherd of the holy angels, the Shepherd and Bishop of countless redeemed ones. His travail over you will not be satisfied till you put your hand on Him and say, "My Shepherd." And you may do that if you will. There is nothing to hinder you. Do not tarry to inquire if you are one of His sheep; look away from yourself to Him, and see if He be not well qualified to be your Shepherd. And the first cry of "Mine!" on your part will be a certain indication that you are included in that flock which He is leading through many a tangled brake to the one fold of heaven. "The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want."

From here the writer went to the home of Rev. A. H. and Sister Trafton, and found them enjoying good health and happy in the love of God and some of their little grandchildren. Brother Trafton does some preaching as he has opportunity.

Then we visited Rev. B. and Mrs. Colpitts, whom we found in their usual health and of good cheer.

After short calls on Rev. W. B. and Mrs. Wiggins, C. N. and Mrs. Scott and C. P. and Mrs. Phillips, we were again joined by Brother Archer in an hour's wait for the train for Fredericton, via Millville, where the writer stopped and enjoyed a good visit and a profitable talk about our South African missionary work and station and outpost work, and possible future work with Rev. I. F. and Sister Keirstead.

The next morning we took the train for Fredericton, where we spent the afternoon calling on friends, among them Brother Robert and Sister Barr, where we always find a hearty welcome and a standing invitation; Sister T. U. Maxon, where we met her son, D. Erland Maxon, who has recently returned after four years of active military service; Brother and Sister L. A. Morrell, Brother Morrell at the present time is in poor health, but is slowly improving. We had a very pleasant call at the home of Rev. J. J. and Mrs. Colter, who are passed the allotted age limit, but are still deeply interested in the spiritual life of the church.

Brother and Sister Colter are planning to spend a few days at Beulah Camp Meeting this coming season. They were hindered going last summer by sickness. Then we made short visits at Rev. H. C. Archer's sister, Upton, and Brother and Sister Minue, and Mr. and Mrs. Mead, and the hospital, and spent the evening with Brother and Sister Clowes Patterson, who are faithful in the Lord. There were many others we would liked to have met but our time was limited.

After a restful night at Brother Barr's we took the early train for Moncton, arriving safely and on time, having spent four days and a half in specially active service, and enjoyment of meeting and conversing with the people and the brethren of the ministry.

OBITUARY.

Philip Wendall Higgins.

At Jonesport, Maine, on February 2nd, the little five weeks old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Cleveland Higgins, passed to be with Jesus.

Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents, who deeply mourn the loss of this little one. May the loving Father so sustain these sorrowing ones by His Spirit that he may give to them "the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness."

NO TIME TO PRAY.

"No time to pray!"

Oh, who so fraught with earthly care
As not to give to humble prayer
Some part of the day?

"No time to pray!"

'Mid each day's danger, what retreat
More needful than the mercy seat?
Who need not pray?

"No time to pray!"

Must care or business urgent call
So press us as to take it all,
Each passing day?

What thought more drear

Than that our God His face should hide,
And say, through all life's swelling tide
"No time to hear!"
