

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Highway:

I am grateful to God that I am able to report victory after seventeen years of Christian warfare with many a test that comes to the lover of holiness Many times cast down but not destroyed. It is real satisfaction to know that God will come to our deliverance in time of need. He said, Fear not for I am with you and will fight your battles. Again he said, "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse and prove me now herewith if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it." God meant that we should tell to others what he hath done for us. I wish to say he hath done great things for me. He is my Saviour, Sanctifier and Keeper. Today I am under the blood.

Your brother in Christ,

C. H. BEAL.

Dear Highway:

We want to acknowledge through your columns some more of the good deeds of the brethren and sisters of the Greenbush and Southampton Churches. On the evening of Jan. 31st a few of the friends from Greenbush came over and spent a social evening with singing and prayer, and gave us $60.00 in cash and after a day or two we received $8.00 more in cash and a good sized load of hay, which made total of nearly $80.00, for which we are very grateful to these kind friends.

H. SMITH AND MRS. DOW.

"A misspent life will eventuate in a hopeless death."

DONATION.

About fifty of the members of the St. John Church and congregation gathered at the parsonage on the evening of the 12th inst. and spent a very pleasant evening, and presented Pastor W. W. Howe and his wife with $61.00, beside other good things. Brother Howe expressed his appreciation for the kindness given him. The chairman, Brother Cosman, said that the work of the church was never more encouraging than now.

SHADI'S BEAUTIFUL PRAYER.

A missionary lady had living with her a little Hindu orphan named Shadi. She taught him about Jesus and one night when he was six years old, she said to him, "Now, pray a little prayer of your own."

And what do you think was Shadi's answer?

It was this: "Dear Jesus, make me like what you were when you were six years old."

A beautiful prayer, indeed!—New York Christian Advocate.

"A God, a Moment, an Eternity,
A God who sees you,
A Moment that escapes you,
An Eternity that awaits you."

A TESTIMONY.

"Since my soul is saved and sanctified, feasting, I'm feasting." In order for us to feast we must first go where the food is. Over in Canaan is the place where we can be continually feasting. If we would run this race successfully, we must go through the stripping process and let God strip us of worldliness and all things that would tend to hinder us. Then He will put on us the robe of righteousness, and shoe our feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace, which will enable us to run successfully. Some faint because they have on so much of this world that God's garments will not fit them, so it makes the Christian race impossible. We need to keep our eyes on Jesus lest we become attracted by Satan's allurements and fall from our own steadfastness."

The above is part of the testimony of Brother Ralph Beal in the prayer meeting recently, when the scripture lesson was drawn from Phil. 3:16, "whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing."

A SERIES OF ACCIDENTS.

Sister Miss Luella Brown, known to many of our readers, while walking along Queen street, Fredericton, about two weeks ago, was struck by falling ice from the roof of a building and seriously injured, depriving her of consciousness for several days, and the loss of her sight, which she has not yet recovered. She is at Victoria Hospital, Fredericton.

Three accidents happened at the Reformed Baptist Church at Moncton, N. B., on the 22nd inst. One of the workmen was struck on the head by a falling board, and Brothers D. H. Berry and A. K. MacCallum fell fifteen feet from a staging which they were taking down. Brother MacCallum had his arm broken at the shoulder, and Brother Berry was badly bruised.

A UNIQUE BILL.

Dear Brother Baker:

As you have asked me for a bill for the little work I have done for you, I will tell you this: I hold a promissory note on the Bank of Heaven, including many little things like that. It has been in existence for quite a while and I am drawing the interest every day (big interest too) and pretty soon it will be due and then I will receive in full all that has been promised me, praise the Lord.

My greatest desire is to hear my blessed Master say, "inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these, my brethren, ye did it unto me," so you see, dear friend, I feel well paid, and you need not feel indebted, it is all cancelled.

Yours very truly,

Note.—This was considerable and very hard work and knowing the continued generosity of our sister, we appreciate it much beyond the financial consideration. We withhold our sister's name as we fear she would feel embarrassed should we give it.

SPECIAL MISSIONARY MEETING AT ST. JOHN, N. B.

We held our annual "Thank" Missionary meeting Feb. 7th, 1919. It was a very special one, for we had Mrs. Keirstead to speak to us. Her talk was very interesting. It made us feel how very little we were doing to what was expected of us by our brothers and sisters across the sea and far more by our Master whose last command was "teach all nations."

Side by side with foreign missions come home missions, presented clearly by the speaker as a necessity.

A special programme had been prepared but time passed so quickly some had to be omitted. The programme used was as follows:

Singing, "Rescue the Perishing"—Congregation.

Scripture Reading—President.

Prayer.

Minutes of last meeting—Secretary.

Dues amounting to $5.75 received.

Collections $5.80

Reading, "Do foreign missions pay?"

—Mrs. F. Clark.

Duett, "Go tell it"—Misses Cosman.

Address—Mrs. I. F. Keirstead.

Special Thank Offering, $41.50.

Recitation, "The King's Money"—

Grace Saunders

Solo, "Go home and tell"—Emma Wood.

Singing, "Bringing in the Sheaves"—

Congregation.

A vote of appreciation to Sister Keirstead for her splendid talk was moved by Brother A. E. Whelpley, seconded by Brother Howe.

Benediction by Pastor.
