

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. H. C. Archer preached at the evening service at Moncton, N. B., Dec. 29th.

Rev. H. Smith Dow expects to begin a series of revival services at Fort Fairfield, Maine, on the 13th inst., assisted by Rev. W. E. Smith.

Rev. H. Smith Dow, the beloved pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church, went to Woodstock, N. B., this Wednesday, to return Friday or Saturday.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Rev. P. J. Trafton, formerly pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church here, now of Fredericton, was calling on friends here on Monday.—Hartland Observer.

Rev. A. H. Trafton and Mrs. Trafton, who were spending some months in Port Maitland, N. S., visited St. John on their return and spent Christmas with Rev. P. J. Trafton in Fredericton. They returned home on Thursday night.—Woodstock Press.

Sister Rev. M. Ella Slipp says: We had our Christmas concert by our Sunday School Xmas Eve. It went off beautifully, and I trust it was pleasing to God and a blessing to the children and to those in attendance at the service.

Rev. J. H. Coy in a letter to the editor says: I have the promise of a rich friend of a crown of gold, and perhaps the next time you see me I will have it on. Glory to Jesus, hallelujah! The Lord is good. He is very precious to me at home these days. I am able to attend the church regularly and enjoy Brother Wiggins' sermons very much.

Rev. P. J. Trafton remained at Beals, Maine, a week longer than he at first planned. Much interest was awakened as it always seems, all felt that the meetings should be continued longer.

Rev. A. H. and Sister Trafton spent Christmas with Rev. P. J. and Sister Trafton at Fredericton.

The brethren report excellent quarterly meetings at Perth, Victoria County, and at Salem, Kings County, Dec. 26-28.

A voluntary contribution of $127.00 was given towards the cost of their hall at Perth.

The editor while on a brief trip to Hartland, N. B., had the pleasure of partaking of the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Nixon at Somerville, Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Mullen at Hartland, and Rev. A. H. and Sister Trafton at Woodstock. We also had the privilege of meeting Rev. P. J. Trafton and Rev. B. T. Gaskin and Rev. G. B. Trafton. We were sorry that our time would not permit us to tarry and see others as we passed along the way.

Rev. I. F. and Sister Keirstead were very kindly remembered by the people of their circuit. Brother Keirstead visited Riverside Camp Ground last week to see that things were in order.

Rev. G. B. and Mrs. Trafton wish to express their appreciation and thanks through the Highway to their many friends for very kind remembrances at Christmas and the New Year.

Sister Helen M. Sterritt, one of our future missionaries, would take work in one of our churches if there was an opening. She would be a profitable worker in any of our churches.

PERSONALS.

Brother E. M. Smith sends his renewal with two new subscriptions. If all would follow this example we would double our subscription list in a short time.

Sister Thomas Young, Ripples, N. B., writes: Evangelist F. W. Foster went home yesterday, Dec. 29th. He had a great revival here. Many souls were saved and lots were blessed. Ten joined the Baptist Church Sunday and seven the Methodist Church. Besides these there were a lot of backsliders found pardon. So glad he was with us so long. Wish he could have stayed longer.

We are very sorry to learn that Sister E. M. Smith, of Whittier, Calif., is seriously ill.

M. S. Trafton left for California on the 5th inst.

We were delighted to receive a letter from Brother J. H. Seeley, of Inglewood, California, written by himself. He has been quite ill for some time. He says: "This is the first time I have written in five years. Don't fail to preach Christ. Honor the Holy Ghost and the blood. Praise God forever! I have not learned how any one filled with the Spirit of Christ can run the machine without running over and making a stir about it. That is the kind I have got! Hallelujah. There is always plenty on hand when we are ready to pay the price." Good! This sounds just like Uncle Ham. Give us some more.—Ed.

We are glad that our oldest members continue to love the Highway. Among this number is our sister, Mrs. Wm. Cosman, of Vancouver, B. C.

We appreciate all gifts we receive for our missionary purposes, both foreign and home. We note generous contributions in this issue, three from Maine and a liberal one from California, to be used for the expenses of a missionary that will go to South Africa in the near future, the gift of Brother E. M. Smith of $500.00.

Dr. J. E. Jewett, now in California, in a recent letter says: I am ranching and like it very well. We have sold our first ranch and each of us have bought another. We have a nice home and ten acres of oranges. Father Smith has six and a half acres of lemons and three and a half acres of oranges near mine. All will be glad to hear from Brothers Jewett and Smith.

Brother L. W. Clark, of St. Stephen, N. B., says: Above all other papers I read, the Highway comes first in my choice of reading. I love its clean pages.

Sister Wm. Dalzell, North Head, G. M., says: Please find enclosed my renewal for the Highway. I wish you all many happy returns of the season and every success to the Highway. I always look forward to its coming.

Sister Wellen Wilcox, Seal Cove, G. M., says: Enclosed find renewal for the Highway. I enjoy reading it now more than ever before. The Lord is wonderfully blessing us.

Sister Mrs. Sarah Davis, Yarmouthville, Me., says: Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway. I enjoy it so much. I have taken it for so many years-I could not do without it. I praise the Lord for such a good paper; it brings joy to my soul to read of the good work that is going on. I praise his dear name for it all.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Cogswell last week removed from their home on the middle Limestone road to the Bernstein place, bought this fall by Mr. Cogswell, at the corner of Elm and Columbia streets.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Brother Charles N. Goodspeed has sold his farm at Penniac, and has purchased one at Centreville, Carleton Co., and will move his family to his new home at an early date.

Brother Wm. T. Harvey, Boston, Mass., says: Just a line to say I am getting along fine; am keeping well, for my Heavenly Father is abundantly able to keep his children, who put their trust in him.

Brother H. N. Boyer, of Hartland, who was seriously hurt by a fall on the icy sidewalk, is recovering.

Mrs. A. A. Tracy, of West Somerville, Mass., is visiting her relatives and friends at Hartland.

Brother F. T. Kimball, of Fort Fairfield, was in Hartland on the 8th.

Rev. B. T. Gaskin, of Kilburn, was in Hartland on the 8th. Brother Gaskin is preaching as he has opportunity.

The editor enjoyed a very pleasant call from Rev. G. A. Sellar, of Albert, Albert Co., recently.

Rev. A. D. McLeod, of South Devon, was a visitor at Moncton recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Foster, of Fort Fairfield, spent a few days at Hartland and Somerville last week.

Sister D. H. Nixon has been in poor health for two weeks past.

Mrs. C. F. Dykeman, of Jemseg, N. B., says: Please find my renewal for the King's Highway. I love its pages and take much pleasure in reading it. I wish it came oftener.

Mrs. George Thornton, Woodstock, says: Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway, as I would not like to do without it. I just want to say that the Lord has been very precious to me during the past year, also that 1920 finds me still saved and trusting in Jesus.

Mrs. Mary Sipprell says: Please find my renewal for the Highway for 1920. The last year I enjoyed very much. Also my missionary dues for 1920.

ANOTHER GENEROUS GIFT.

While at Hartland on the 8th inst. we received another very generous voluntary gift of $500.00 from Brother Franklin Clark, for our missionary work. It looks as though the Lord was putting it into the hearts of his people to provide the money to send and equip our new missionaries independent of our usual missionary resources.

Glad for many renewals for the Highway. "And the end is not yet." Send them in.
