

MARRIED.

Dunn-Carton.

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, 233 Aberdeen street, Fredericton, N. B., May 19th, William Dunn and Margaret May Carton, both of Lower Hainesville, were united in marriage by Rev. P. J. Trafton.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

Dear Brother Baker:

The R. B. Missionary Society of Fort Fairfield met for their monthly meeting in the vestry of the church Friday evening, May 7th. After the song service the president, Mrs. Dow, read the 3rd chapter of I. Cor., which was followed by earnest prayers led by Rev. F. T. Wright. The dues were then taken, amounting to $9.40, after which the following programme was rendered.

Reading, Thanksgiving Ann — Mrs. Pearce.

Chorus, Go Quickly and Tell—Mrs. Pearce's class.

Reading, Do Missions Pay—Christian Hudson.

Reading—Ruth Dow.

Duet, Is it Nothing to You—Mrs. Pearce and C. Hudson.

Reading, Moral Courage—Hazel Andrews.

Reading, Training for Service—Hattie Dow.

Duet, Go Tell the Sweet Story—Mrs. R. Slipp and Miss A. Slipp.

The president read a very interesting letter from Miss Faith Sanders.

The pastor then made a few remarks.

A free will offering was then taken, which amounted to $106.65.

The meeting closed by singing Doxology and prayer by Rev. F. T. Wright.

MRS. OTIS AMES,
Cor. Secy.

NOTICE.

Blank reports are being sent to the various Sunday Schools. The secretaries will kindly fill them in and send them to me at Woodstock, N. B., Box 216, not later than the 15th of June.

Please remember to give a short account of the general condition of your school as requested, as by so doing the Annual Report will be more interesting. Be sure to attend to this, beloved.

MRS. W. B. WIGGINS,
Sunday School Agent.

A clean heart filled with the Spirit makes a soul-winner out of the man who receives the blessing. It was so on the day of Pentecost, when the disciples, having their hearts purified by fire and filled with the Holy Spirit won 3,000 souls to the Lord in one meeting. With the blessing of a clean heart comes a passion of love for Jesus, and with it a passionate desire for the salvation and sanctification of men. It makes apostles, prophets, martyrs, missionaries and fiery-hearted soul-winners. It opens wide and clear the channel of communion between God and the soul, so that His power, the power of the Holy Ghost, works through him who has a clean heart, surely convicting and graciously converting and sanctifying souls.—Col. Brengle.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Isabel Kelly Davis

On Tuesday morning, April 27th, 1920, the angel of death entered the home of Mr. Clifford Davis, Jonesport, Me., and took from this world the wife and mother, Mrs. Mabel Kelly Davis, at the age of 48 years, 1 month and 16 days. Mrs. Davis had been in failing health for two years, but the end came suddenly and unexpectedly. It was a great shock to all. She leaves to mourn their loss a husband, Mr. Clifford Davis, two sons and four daughters; her mother, Mrs. Amanda Kelly, two brothers and two sisters. Mr. Davis' aged mother is also living in the home.

Mrs. Davis was a loving wife and mother and is deeply mourned by those who are left behind. We earnestly commend them, each to Him who died for us that in our stead He might bear our griefs and carry our sorrows.

M. ELLA SLIPP.

Mrs. Bernard V. Morrell

Helen Elizabeth White, wife of Bernard V. Morrill, died at 3 o'clock Monday morning, at Union Hospital, Fort Fairfield, Me., after an illness of anaemia and complications of about seven weeks.

The funeral was held in the Reformed Baptist Church this Wednesday afternoon, the pastor, Rev. H. Smith Dow, officiating.

Beautiful music was furnished by a quartette composed of Wm. F. and Howard P. Cogswell, William T. Andrews and Miss Christian Hudson, who sang "Pearly White City," and "Does Jesus Care?" A duet was also sung by Mrs. Robert R. Slipp and Miss Hudson, "This World is Not My Home."

The flowers were very many and lovely, among them being a beautiful token from Mrs. Morrill's graduating class of the Fort Fairfield High School, 1914.

The pallbearers were also of that class—Frank Fitzherbert, Wade Marshall, Arthur McKinney and Asa Gallupe. The body was interred in Riverside Cemetery.

The deceased young woman was less than 24 years of age. She was born in Fort Fairfield, the eldest child of Clinton White and Mabel Henry. She leaves two young children.

Mrs. Morrill was a young woman of very attractive personality and most pleasant and winning ways, making friends wherever known, who feel a profound regret that she should be called from earth before her mature life had hardly begun.

Mrs. Nathaniel Sears.

At Port Maitland on May 17th, the beloved wife of Nathaniel Sears passed away after failing in health for some time. Mrs. Sears was 50 years of age. She leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and devoted mother, a husband, two daughters, Mrs. C. Hipson, of Yarmouth; and Beulah at home; six sons, Joseph, Wilfred, Leslie, Raymond, Howard and Maurice, all of Port Maitland; also an aged mother, who lived with her, one sister, Mrs. W. H. Adams, of Yarmouth, and two brothers of Everett, Mass.

To the sorrowing family and relatives is extended the deepest sympathy. The funeral services were conducted on Thursday afternoon by Rev. L. T. Sabine, assisted by Rev. Mr. Meadows. Interment was made in the Port Maitland cemetery.

Mrs. Ellen Boyd.

At Four Falls, Victoria County, N. B., on daughter, Mrs. Thos. Wolverton, Mrs. Monday, May 10th, at the home of her Ellen Boyd, relict of Fenwick Boyd, passed peacefully away in her 69th year.

At the home a short service was held, conducted by Rev. H. S. Dow, of Fort Fairfield, Me. The hymns sung were: "In that City," "This World is not my home," and "Does Jesus Care?" Text of Scripture, Eccl. XII. 5.

The remains were taken to Temperance Vale, a former home, and interred in the Episcopal cemetery, being laid beside those of her husband. Rev. Mr. Rigby, of Woodstock, assisted by Rev. H. C. Archer, of Milville, conducted the service there.

Mrs. Boyd leaves to mourn their loss three daughters, Mrs. Thos. Wolverton, of Four Falls; Mrs. Fred Blaney, of Maple Ridge, and Mrs. L. T. Sabine, of Port Maitland, N. S. Robert and George Fawcett, Mrs. W. A. Lunergan and Mrs. James Alton, of St. John, are cousins.

Mrs. Boyd was kindly dispositioned and loved by all who knew her and will be greatly missed by her many friends.

NOTICE.

The Thirty-second Annual Alliance of the Reformed Baptist Church of Canada will convene (D. V.) in the Tabernacle at Beulah Camp Ground, Kings Co., N. B., on Wednesday, June 30th, at 10.30 a. m., 1920. The first business session will take place in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, when all officers, ministers and delegates are expected to be present.

Be sure to attend, beloved.

W. B. WIGGINS,
Secretary.

TALK! WALK! WAIT! WORK!

To talk with God no breath is lost, Talk on!
To walk with God no strength is lost, Walk on!

To wait on God no time is lost, Wait on!
Little is much when God is in it,
Man's busiest day is not worth God's minute;

Much is little everywhere,
If God the labour does not share;
So work with God, then nothing's lost;
Who works with Him does best and most.
—Sel.

ALLIANCE FUND.

Will the pastors please remind the deacons of their duty, lest they should forget, to be sure and collect the Alliance Fund from each member of their respective churches. We will greatly need it this year. Let us have a full fund this year. Begin early. Don't put it off till the last moment. It is twenty-five cents for each member. The pastors can greatly aid in this matter. Please don't forget.

THE SECRETARY.

The St. John Valley R. R. will be very convenient for those attending Beulah Camp Meeting. It will save stopping over night on the way.