

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. L. T. Sabine has accepted the call of the Port Maitland-Sandford, N. S., circuit to remain their pastor. This circuit has purchased a parsonage and pastor Sabine and family are moving into it. We trust that all of our churches that do not own parsonages will follow this good example.

The editor enjoyed a pleasant trip from Fredericton to Beulah Camp Ground on the 18th inst. over the St. John Valley R.R. This line will be very convenient for people coming to Beulah Camp Meetings from Aroostook, Carleton, York and Sunbury counties.

Rev. H. Smith Dow made a short visit to Woodstock and Meductic last week. He reports a good interest in the services at Meductic. Perth church wants a pastor of their own. We would suggest that this church study John 15:7 and try it, and see if it works.

The 1st District expects to hold their June quarterly at Middle Southampton. The people expect to have the repairs on their church completed by that date—June 3rd.

The Middle Southampton church is to be re-dedicated June 6th. Special services will be continued after the quarterly meeting, and re-dedication of the church. Pastor H. S. Mullen will be assisted by Rev. H. Higbee Lee, of Indiana.

Rev. M. Ella Slipp says: Hope we may see a great meeting at Beulah this year. I am planning to be present (D.V.).

Rev. T. W. Moses in a recent letter states that Sister Moses has been confined to her bed for months, but is somewhat improved and he hopes she will be able to attend the Alliance and Camp Meeting. He says: "Our hope is in God for everything now, for we are getting old, and specially need divine care and protection."

Rev. P. J. Trafton received one new member into the Fredericton church on the 16th inst.

Rev. A. H. Trafton reports a good day at Salem, Kings Co., N. B., on the 16th.

Rev. S. H. Clark reports his meetings good, and expects to have baptism soon.

The brethren are planning to put considerable repairs on the St. John church, including a concrete foundation.

Several of the brethren are planning to get to Beulah early this season. The prospects are that all the rooms will be engaged before the meetings begin this year, as we never had such a demand for rooms as now.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead has taken the sawdust out of the Riverside Tabernacle and will have new put in so everything will be fresh and nice for the camp meeting.

The heavy snow and ice did some damage to the laundry in Beulah Hotel. It will be repaired, and also some other repairs during June. New steps are needed in front of Cedardale Dormitory.

On account of a belated epidemic of "flu" about Royalton, Sister Keirstead, who can never refuse aid to the sick, has done much hard work during the spring months. She has indeed been an angel of mercy to many. One little fellow, whose life she was working to save, told her, "if she had a 'kid' she wouldn't put hot water on him."

The latest reports Mrs. Tedlie is improving.
