

A CAMP CONVENTION.

To all, interested in the spread of Scripture Holiness in Canada:

Having seen the great need of getting together and of a greater unity of spirit amongst the holiness folks of Canada, we are holding a Camp Convention, June 9-20, 1920, at Full Salvation Park, Godfrey, Ontario.

To this convention, we have invited representatives of the Mennonite, Holiness Worker, Reformed Baptist, Wesleyan, Holiness Movement, Standard, Salvation Army, Free Methodist, Methodist, Apostolic and C. N. H. A. bodies, alliances and associations; representing practically all the holiness peoples operating in Eastern Canada.

This will be our Fourth Annual Camp, but as far as we know this convention will be the first of its kind to be held in Canada.

We have consulted concerning all plans with Bro. Geo. J. Kung and other experienced workers. Back of it all is a band of praying believing pilgrims. For finances we are depending on the Lord and on His people. The need is great. The burden is extremely heavy. Let us get together for a Forward Movement, along purely holiness lines.

We solicit the prayers of all.

Pray! Plan! Help! Come!

Yours for Holiness and Heaven.

(Rev.) CHARLES V. FAIRBAIRN.

Note.—After attending a great holiness convention of representatives consisting of 33 denominations and associations, and holiness missions, of all possible viewpoints, from 33 states, countries and provinces, we noted three things: 1st, How people could enjoy the unity of the spirit, while they differed in doctrinal views; 2nd, That there was great benefit to be derived from personal contact, and listening to people speak on the great doctrine of holiness, who held some point of difference from your own; 3rd, And that souls would get saved, reclaimed, and sanctified in a united meeting despite the points upon which men differed. The real points of difference were largely non-essential to salvation. It seemed to resemble Paul's statement regarding the gifts of the Spirit in I Cor., 12-4-14.

A meeting of this character can be of untold benefit in itself, and in possible fruitfulness if conducted under wise, resourceful leadership. Not forgetting the great supreme leader, The Holy Spirit.

S. A. BAKER.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Rev. S. A. Baker:

Enclosed please find $1.25 for which send the King's Highway to me. While at home I had the benefit of the one taken by my mother, and miss the inspiration of the messages the Highway gives, besides the news from the other churches. There is something about it that draws our hearts together in brotherly love. God is very dear to my soul. There has been much sickness and death on all sides during the winter but I am thankful we have been spared in health.

I am grateful to God that He has provided a remedy for sin and uncleanness, and that sin can be purged out, and the Holy Spirit can abide in us. I still possess the blessing of entire sanctification. I find it is the only thing that will keep a man so he can have victory all along the journey.—C. Ray Hagerman, Fort Fairfield, Me.

Dear Editor:

I prize the Highway very highly. It is a welcome messenger; I could not be without it. I enjoy reading its pages, because I know Jesus has put the truth within my heart. When alone with Him I can rejoice and be glad.

"Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations." I have never had the privilege of attending Beulah camp meeting, but my heart's desire is with you all, that there may be a glorious meeting and much good done and many souls saved. My heart has been gladdened in hearing that some of my friends have come to the Lord recently.

Yours in Him,

MRS. ANNIE HOPKINS.

Dear Brother Baker:

Just a few lines today to say I am happy in Jesus; He is my best friend.

Our quarterly meeting closed Sunday night; we had a good time in the Lord, praise Him. I feel much strengthened and intend to be earnest, seeking to do His will.

I pray the Lord's blessing on you and yours.

Your sister in Christ,

MRS. ALONZO L. ALLEY.

Beals, Me.

MONTHLY MISSIONARY MEETING.

The R. B. Missionary Society of Woodstock met for their monthly meeting in the vestry of the church, Friday evening, March 12th. After the opening hymn was sung, a number of earnest prayers were offered, for missionaries and missions, followed by scripture reading, John, 4th Chapter, by the president, Mrs. Phillips.

Collections and dues were then taken, amounting to $7.31, after which the following programme was rendered:

Reading, "A Veteran Carries On," Mrs. Trafton.

Solo, "The Vision," Mrs. Reynolds.

Reading, "The Child Life," Mrs. Rogers.

Solo, "What If Your Own Were Starving," Mrs. Mutch.

Reading, "Joe Brown, Office Boy," Mrs. Wiggins.

Duet, "He Was Nailed to the Cross for Me," Laura and Harvey Blaney.

Reading, "A Modern Missionary Call," Mrs. Phillips.

Chorus, "Preach Jesus Wherever You Go," The Choir.

As the professional duties of our corresponding secretary, Miss Colpitts, necessitate her being absent a great deal of the time, Mrs. Estey was appointed assistant corresponding secretary. The meeting closed with prayer and benediction by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Wiggins.

Respectfully submitted,

E. A. B. ESTEY.

A GENEROUS OFFER.

A brother has made the generous offer of $100 per year, as long as needed, to establish the Highway as a weekly. It may be that others are ready to do the same.

THE DAY'S WORK.

(By Edgar A. Guest.)

Is anybody happier because you passed his way?

Does anyone remember that you spoke to him today?

This day is almost over and its toiling time is through;

Is there anyone to utter now a kindly word of you?

Did you give a cheerful greeting to the friend who came along;

Or a churlish sort of "howdy" and then vanish in the throng?

Were you selfish, pure and simple, as you rushed along the way,

Or is someone mighty grateful for a deed you did today?

Can you say tonight, in parting with the day that's slipping fast,

That you helped a single brother of the many that you passed?

Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said?

Does a man whose hopes were fading now with courage look ahead?

Did you waste the day or lose it, was it well or poorly spent?

Did you leave a trail of kindness or a scar of discontent?

As you close your eyes in slumber do you think that God would say

You have earned one more tomorrow by the work you did today?

THE HIGHWAY.

We have received notice that the price for printing the Highway will be increased after June 30th, on account of increased cost of labor. We have been fortunate in having a good quality of paper, which will be continued for the next year, a sufficient amount being obtained last year that would be impossible to get now.

THE DEVIL'S BEST TOOL.

It was announced that the devil was going out of business and would offer all tools for sale to whoever would pay his price. On the night of the sale they were all attractively displayed, and a bad looking lot they were, Malice, Hatred, Envy, Jealousy, Sensuality, and Deceit, and all other implements of evil were spread out, each market with its price. Apart from the rest lay a harmless looking wedge-shaped tool, much worn and priced higher than any of them.

Someone asked the devil what it was. "That's Discouragement," was the reply. "Why do you have it priced so high?" "Because," replied the devil, "it is more useful to me than any of the others. I can pry open and get inside a man's consciousness with that when I could not get near him with any of the others and when once inside I can use him in whatever way suits me best. It is so much worn because I use it with nearly everybody; as very few people yet know it belongs to me."

It hardly need be added that the devil's price for Discouragement was so high that it was never sold. He still owns it and is still using it.—The N. T. Christian.
