

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard writes: The Seal Cove Church gave me a unanimous call to remain their pastor for another year, but I have not given them a decided answer as yet, the air here almost uses me up, keeps me hoarse all the time.

The quarterly meeting of District No. 3 will meet with the church at Seal Cove, Grand Manan, Thursday evening, June 3rd, continuing over Sunday, the 6th.

North Head Church has expended about four hundred dollars in repairing the interior of the church building, and it presents a fine appearance.

A Sunday School Convention is to be held in the North Head Church, continuing over Sunday, May 16th.

The monthly missionary meeting was held at Moncton on the evening of the 11th inst. Mrs. W. D. Blakney presided and Miss Mabel Good was pianist. Duets were sung by Mrs. Sherman Blakney and her daughter, Miss Helen Blakney, and Misses Lucy and Helen Blakney. Readings by Mrs. S. N. Grass, Miss Grace Good and Mary MacCallum, Mrs. Charles Cook and Mrs. Baker. Recitation by Misses Ethel Bradley and Rose Blakney and exercises by the children and an address by the pastor.

Rev. H. C. Mullen, pastor at Hartland, has resigned as pastor of that church, but this is the custom of most of our pastors annually, as we only engaged for a year, so it does not necessarily mean a change.

There are reports of some changes among our pastors, but nothing definite has been reported to us as yet.

Brother P. J. Trafton, who has charge of the Riverview Dormitory at Beulah Camp ground, says he expects a record attendance this summer. All the rooms in that building are already engaged.

Rev. A. H. Trafton's health is much improved and he talks of going to Salem, Kings county, where Brother Trafton always finds a cordial welcome.

Rev. H. S. Dow reports the work at Fort Fairfield, Maine, as going on well, and good congregations. Brother Dow has received a call to remain another year, with an increase in salary.

One church is reported as more than likely to give four times as much for missions as they did last year.

The special services at Beal's, Maine, are reported as going with a swing, and as early as May 5th 33 were reported as having prayed through to victory.

Brother L. J. Alley, pastor at Beals, Maine, is reported as unwell, with poor heart action, which becomes sub-normal with any exertion.

Rev. W. W. Howe reports that his people have taken back their old church on Carleton street, St. John. Meetings continue to have the revival spirit, with God's blessing and souls being saved.

A letter from Sister I. F. Keirstead which came too late for the last issue of the Highway, stated that she held twelve meetings during her visit to Fort Fairfield and Perth, and enjoyed much blessing, which resulted in four conversions, others stood for prayers, and much conviction was manifested by the people. The people at Perth want regular pastoral care.

Rev. G. B. Trafton is so far recovered from his injuries received by being thrown from a carriage as to begin his pastoral duties.

Rev. W. E. Smith is holding services at Mercer Settlement church.

Rev. H. C. Mullen is in special services at Victoria; the interest is encouraging. The brethren at Victoria are preparing for building their new church, the excavation is done, and gravel for the cement foundation has been hauled, and work of building is soon expected to begin.

Brother and Sister H. S. Mullen have accepted the call of the Meductic, Green Bush, Middle and Lower Southampton churches for another year.

Brother and Sister Otis Ames, Fort Fairfield, Me., write: We feel like saying a good word for the Highway. It surely brings help and inspiration as we read its clean pages. It has been a very welcome visitor in our home, especially this last winter, when we were shut in by sickness a great deal. We would like it to come oftener. Please extend our subscription to the amount of the enclosed check. Hoping to see you at the camp meeting. We remain in the service of the King.

Brother George Conley, Boston, Mass., says: Enclosed find renewal for your valuable holiness paper. I like it for the good, clean, sound doctrines; amen. I also thank our Lord Jesus that His blood cleanses me from all sin, even in as wicked a city as old Boston. Expecting to attend Beulah camp this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Sears, Port Maitland, N. S., write: Enclosed please find renewal for the Highway. It is certainly a welcome visitor to our home, and we enjoy reading it very much. We are both praising the Lord for full salvation, and are trusting Him each day.

We are glad to note that Sister Leonard Brooks, of Woodstock, has recovered from a severe case of typhoid fever, and is able to attend church again. Sister Brooks is making a quilt for Beulah.

Sister Charles Cliff, of Preston, Iowa, says: I have the Highway before me, and it seems good to see the names of many of my old friends, and read their letters of cheer, which say that they are still in the way, and I am so glad that I can say, Jesus is my help, and I love Him; He keeps me each day: He is very precious to my soul. I am glad I have Him with me. Mr. Cliff has been confined to his bed nearly all the time for three months with rheumatism. May God bring you all showers of blessings during the camp meetings.

Mrs. J. H. Roberts, Caribou, Maine, says: I see it is time to renew my subscription for the Highway. It is a good paper. It tells us of some of the good things that are going on in the world, which we like to hear. I enjoy the South African letters, they seem to be doing so much and their work is not in vain.

Mrs. R. C. Manning, Toronto, says: Please find enclosed my renewal for the Highway. I always enjoy the reading. I am thankful that I ever was brought from darkness to light, from the power of Satan to God, and have an inheritance among the sanctified. Am more determined than ever to walk in the narrow way.
