THE ALLIANCE.

Many friends scattered abroad will look forward for bits of news from the Alliance. Rev. I. F. Keirstead made an excellent presiding officer, assisted by Rec. S. H. Clark, who was re-elected Vice President. Rev. W. B. Wiggins was re-elected Recording Secretary and Rev. H. C. Archer Assistant Secretary. E. Cosman, who has held the position ever since the organization of the Alliance in 1888, was re-elected Treasurer. Rev. L. T. Sabine, Corresponding Secretary, and Rev. L. J. Alley Auditor.

The work of the Alliance was carried through expeditiously and harmoniously. The reports of the Churches:

Very encouraging reports came from the churches, with very few exceptions there were additions to their membership, and the spiritual condition was strong and thrifty, going against the strong tides that the holiness interest meets, conflict and difficult situations are inevitable. Ministers and churches must struggle to maintain their spiritual life, and to make gains there must be strong and determined effort, and much prayer. The tides are heavy. But the gains reported by the church come far short of the work accomplished. The best part of the work of the pastor and his church cannot be tabulated. Cruel injustice is done many of the pastors and churches, by people in the church and out of the church, when nothing is credited to them but the members received into the church, and the amount of money raised.

In the glory land, there will be great wealth to the credit of workers who like their crucified Master was given gall to drink here.

The reports were all encouraging and bespoken spiritual vigor. The Sunday School reports were good. The Missionary interest excellent, the financial condition was good. Some pastors received small salaries, but the people gave generously everywhere. Our work is on the upward way. Young men are being moved upon by God for the ministry, and a student fund to help them in their preparation has become a necessity. Let us pray the Lord of the harvest to send forth workers into his harvest and let us give to prepare them.

THE KING'S HIGHWAY.

The Highway begins its 32nd volume with this issue. It has closed another successful year which reveals the fact that the people who enjoy definite uncompromising religious reading of the standard that the Highway sends forth are increasing.

It has been very gratifying that the Highway is growing in favor, and reaching a wider circulation, and influence despite all the hinderances it meets. God is blessing the messages. Hundreds of people like it, and testimonies from all quarters say that it is a source of much blessing to hearts, homes and communities.

This year it is to meet a new test.

A FINANCIAL TEST.

On account of the increasing cost of labor and materials the subscription price has been increased to $1.50 per year in Canada and $1.75 in the United States. Ministers $1.00 and $1.25 in the United States.

Are our readers going to stand by the Highway and gladly pay the extra cost?

Will our circulation decrease or increase? This will be a test point, which time must prove. So far there has been no complaints, and a considerable number of renewals and new subscriptions have been paid at the increased price.

A BIT OF INFORMATION.

All in arrears can pay up to June 30th, 1920, at the former price. All who are paid in advance will receive the Highway at the old rate up to the date paid up to, unless they pay the additional price voluntarily, some have already done this.

Our opinion of our readers generally, based on our past knowledge of their spirit and generosity is that they will joyfully measure up to the present need and the Highway will steadily increase in subscribers. One brother has asked for 9 copies as his regular subscription for the year. One copy for his home and eight to distribute. We await the verdict of our readers.

BEULAH CAMP MEETING.

As we anticipated Beulah Camp Meeting exceeded all previous meetings at least in some respects.

The attendance was large from start to finish, all available room was taken and kept full during the entire meeting. The preaching was sound and good. Dr. Ridout was well liked and was given marked attention as he brought the messages. He preached twice daily most of the time, and many came to the altar and were blessed. Dr. M. Vayhinger gave two excellent sermons as did also Evangelist R. C. Potter, F. W. Foster, the Farmer Evangelist, Rev. Mr. Stebbins and Evangelist Lee, and Revs. C. S. Hilyard and H. Smith Dow. We had many more preachers than we had services. Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen sung the gospel with increased vigor and richer melody. The attendance at all the services was without question the best we ever had throughout a meeting.

The temperance agitation and going home to vote diverted the people's minds to a considerable extent, but the meeting was good, a real success and blessed of God and hundreds witnessed to receiving real help. A large number attended for the first time, and we had applications from people that we were compelled to tell that every place was full and we could not accommodate more, and the brethren ordered cots and mattresses and fitted up the large tent and every bed was taken. This simply reveals the fact that more room must be provided for the accommodation of the increasing attendance at Beulah Camp Meeting, and it also reveals that Beulah Camp Meeting has a great work and great possibilities ahead.

The financial needs were met, and the many hundreds of people departed to their homes happy and saying "I am coming again" if the Lord so wills.

We go to our homes to get ready for Riverside Camp Meeting, where we are expecting a larger and more blessed meeting than ever before. Many are looking forward with pleasure to meeting and hearing Evangelist Joseph Owen again. Pray for Riverside.

THE FOREIGN MISSIONARY NEEDS AND PROVISIONS.

This has been by far the most generous year for missionary contributions in our history.

We believe this to be a direct answer to prayer that has resulted in a response from our people and the friends of the holiness work.

We have made no drives for money and most of our appeals have been via of heaven, and we feel certain of the will of God in the increase of missionaries as most excellent missionary candidates have stepped to the front saying: "Here am I, send me." And corresponding with this splendid provision, generous contributions have come from unexpected sources, and at times when we were not looking for them in particular, but some of us live in the happy attitude, and atmosphere of expectancy that our Father will suggest, or unmistakably reveal some new thing in his will for us. So now other provisions are pressed upon us, viz., two excellent nurses have been given us for our South African Mission, and word has reached us from Dr. and Mrs. Sanders that very needy patients are lying on the ground about their door—and an inevitable need of is pressed upon them and the provision is pressed on us in the home land. So the Mission Board has authorized us to open a Hospital Fund, to build a suitable shelter for the needy sick who come to our mission station for treatment.

Contributions have already begun to come in and we hope to be able to forward to Dr. Sanders right away, for the need is pressing, sufficient money to begin the erection of a building.

A NEW CHURCH.

A new and larger church at the Mission Station is also to be built at once for which we need generous contributions.

The Mission Board also voted to have a
