BEULAH SAYINGS.

"Saints are people who are eminent for piety and virtue."

"We are failing to urge the call to saint-hood."

"Institution frequently supplants inspiration."

The baptism with the Holy Spirit is the great cure for preachers' burdens and church ills."—C. S. Hilyard.

"Holiness unto the Lord is God's first and centre thought."

"A minister may preach words, and not preach 'the Word.'"

"A brother who was seeking the gift of the Holy Spirit obtained the blessing while working in a refrigerator"—but he did not have cold religion.

TO OUR MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

We have had a booklet printed containing a sketch of the history of the origin of the Reformed Baptist denomination, doctrines, church covenant, directory and act of incorporation. Single copy 10 cents. One dollar per dozen—reduction to pastors. Address Rev. W. B. Wiggins, B. A., Elm street, Woodstock, N. B.

Note.—When sending for single copy, postage stamps may be sent. 2 copies send 20 cent postal note.

MARRIED.

Pattersn-Sterritt.

An interesting event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton A. Sterritt, Grey's Mills, Kings Co., on June 23rd, when their daughter, Mabel Jeanete, was united in marriage to Mr. W. Lloyd Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Patterson, of Grey's Mills. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. W. Howe in the presence of a large circle of relatives and friends. The bride was given away by her father. Miss Hazel Sterritt acted as bridesmaid while Mr. Fred Patterson supported the groom. The many costly and beautiful gifts received attest to the esteem in which they were held. After a dainty luncheon the happy young couple left for a trip through upper Canadian cities. On their return they will reside at West St. John.

Flemming-Watson.

At the Grand Hotel, Fredericton, N. B., Tuesday, June 22nd, at 3.30 p. m., Elmer E. Flemming, of Millville, and Mina Watson, of Edinburgh, Scotland, were united in marriage by Rev. P. J. Trafton.

Young-Alley.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the Reformed Baptist parsonage on the evening of the 22nd of June, when Miss Virgie rAlena Alley, of Beals (niece of the writer) was united in marriage to Kenneth E. Young, of Robinson, Me. The groom has been the principal of Beals Grammar School the past year. The bride was attended by her sister Nella. The single at Beals Mr. and Mrs. Young will reside at Robinson, Maine.

L. J. Alley, Beals, Me.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE REPORT.

Your committee on Sabbath observance beg leave to report that we deeply regret the desecration of the Lord's Day as manifested by so many of our land and especially by those professing to be the followers of our Lord Jesus Christ. At present the Lord's Day is interpreted by many to mean a day of sight seeing and pleasure seeking, but not in the things of God.

And inasmuch as our churches and Sunday Schools are depleted in numbers on this day, and remembering that divine wisdom has decreed that one day in seven is best and necessary for mankind in temporal and spiritual need, and further that at the command of God we therefore urge that by precept and example we "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy."

Respectfully submitted,
L. T. SABINE,
C. S. HILYARD,
J. H. COY.

BEDDING FOR RIVERSIDE HOTEL.

There will be extra rooms added at Riverside Camp Ground and more bedding will be needed. Will the sisters in Aroostook County and Carleton and Victoria and York Counties please take this appeal into consideration.
