

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Malcolm Lowell

Our community was shocked on Saturday morning to learn of the sudden death of heart failure of Sister Ruby Lowell. Our sister retired Friday night in seemingly good health, but was awakened with a severe choking spell. Kind friends were called and all that hearts and hands could do was done, but with no avail. In less than an hour she had departed to be with Jesus.

Sister Lowell has been a member of the Reformed Baptist Church at Beals for a number of years, always being faithful in attending when circumstances permitted. Best of all she was faithful to her God. She leaves a testimony of a devout, conscientious life. The writer has always noticed her definite testimony to the saving and sanctifying power of the Blood.

Sister Lowell leaves a husband, two sons and two daughters, a father and two sisters besides a host of friends to mourn their loss. The church at Beals deeply feels their loss.

The funeral was conducted Sunday, the 20th, by the writer, assisted by Rev. M. Ella Slipp. Interment at Beals cemetery.

Mrs. Julia Louise Peterson.

Mrs. Julia Louise Peterson, wife of Augustus Peterson, of Jonesport, Maine, passed from this world to the great beyond on Thursday evening, June 10th, 1920, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Peterson was 62 years of age, a woman of quiet lady like manners, a home lover and devoted to her family. She leaves to mourn their loss her husband, Mr. Augustus Peterson and one son, Mr. Marcus Peterson, who was the only child; two grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Margaret Welch, of Deer Island, N. B., two brothers, Mr. George Rogers, of Jonesport, and Mr. Will Rogers, of Providence, R. I. Mrs. Peterson had been a great sufferer for a number of years. It was our privilege to visit her frequently during her last weeks of her illness. We earnestly endeavored to point her to the Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world. She seemed anxious to find him and we hope that she did. Funeral service by the writer.

PRESENTATION.

The Sunbeam Bible Class of Royalton held their last meeting for the year at the parsonage on the twenty-ninth of June.

After the lesson, refreshments of cake and ice cream were served.

I was then presented with a French ivory manicure sett and the following address:

Dear Miss Cummings:

We as members of the Sunbeam Bible Class are reminded that another year has come to a close, a year of pleasant associations and good fellowship.

As we have met together from week to week to study the Word, we believe we have been much benefitted spiritually and have enjoyed our social functions. And now that you are leaving us for a time, we wish to express our regrets, for you will be greatly missed from our class, our church and Sunday school where you have ever been an active member.

We beg you to accept this manicure sett as a little token of our love and appreciation of your services as our secretary.

We trust as you may have occasion to use it you will often be reminded of the Sunbeam Bible Class and that your prayer may be for us.

We will endeavour with you to live up to our motto to "Brighten the corner where you are."

In behalf of the Class,
MRS. I. F. KEIRSTEAD.

I appreciate very much the kindness of these friends and trust that the blessing of the Lord which maketh rich may ever be theirs.

LUCY CUMMINGS.

BEULAH ON THE ST. JOHN.

As one enters these sacred grounds the very atmosphere seems charged. All are agreed that Beulah was never more beautiful than this year. The sparkling fountains, the beautiful lake, the shrubbery and trees, and all nature seems in an attitude of praise to God.

The attendance surpassed that of other years. More came for the first week, and although many went home to vote for prohibition most of them managed to get back for the last great day of the feast.

Hundreds testified to being greatly blessed in the services. There was a ready response to the altar calls. Sinners were saved, backsliders reclaimed and believers wholly sanctified.

The preaching was definite and full of spiritual food.

The children's and young people's meetings were well attended. We trust all are going to their homes with a better understanding of the Word, deeper experiences in their own souls and to live the victorious life.
