THE HIGHWAY LATE.

THANKS.

We heartily thank our sisters all over our country for their very generous response in contributing such a splendid lot of really excellent bedding for Beulah Hotel and Dormitories and hope Riverside will also be provided for.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. G. O. Nevers says: I am sending my renewal for the much loved Highway.

We were exceedingly glad to meet hundreds of our members and friends from far and near. Among them were Mrs. Mary H. Frizzle, of Truro, N. S., Mrs. R. N. Dow from the West.

Sisters Helen and Alice Sterritt, our missionaries-elect, will rest at their home at Grey's Mills until they go to Riverside Camp Meeting, after which they will visit all our churches to hold meetings and to become acquainted with our people. A committee has been appointed to consult with them and assist in arrangements for the meetings.

Rev. M. Vayhinger, of Upland, Indiana, spent a few days at Beulah Camp Meeting, and delighted the people with two very excellent, inspiring and stirring sermons.

The people were much helped and blessed with two sermons by Evangelist R. C. Potter, of Ontario, who is to be ordained at Riverside Camp Meeting as one of our ministers. The Farmer Evangelist, Brother F. W. Foster, spent a week at Beulah Camp Meeting, preached twice, once in the Tabernacle and once at an overflow open air meeting. Miss Lilly Young, of Ripples, Sunbury County, who comes in her wheel chair, was again at the camp meeting, as bright and patient as ever in her christian life despite her tedious affliction which renders her helpless.

Treas.

A Church, a Hospital and a Residence are the pressing needs of our missionary station in South Africa. "A word to the wise is sufficient." "The King's business needs haste," immediate action.

Think over the importance of a Students' Fund. We are praying for laborers, but God requires us to fit them educationally.

SOUTH AFRICAN HOSPITAL FUND.

Mrs. D. H. Nixon	$10.00
Miss Belle Cummings	5.00
Mrs. P. A. Thornton	5.00
Mrs. J. F. Perkins	1.00
Miss J. Betts	1.00

Let us consider our home needs as well as our foreign. The home work must be kept vigorous if our foreign work is successful. The home feeds the foreign.

We have been praying about the enlargement of our work. God has answered by giving us workers, it is ours to place them and provide their temporal needs. He has given us the means. Let us respond.
