THE KING'S HIGHWAY

DECEMBER 15TH, 1920

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Good meetings have been the rule in the Moncton Church, and a good interest manifested, with requests for prayer have frequently been made. Two new members were received into the church on Sunday evening, the 12th inst.

The Sterritt Sisters left Moncton for St. John on the 15th. Address them at Greys Mills, Kings County, N. B.

Wood Island Church is to be deeded to the Alliance. These dear brethren are among our most liberal contributors and it will only be fair that we help them finish their church so they can use it. Contributions can be sent directly to Eugene E. Wilcox, Wood Island, Grand Manan, N. B., or to the Editor of The Highway.

Rev. L. J. Alley states: We had a grand quarterly meeting at Jonesport. All the ministers were present. This includes Revs. C. S. Hilyard, S. H. Clark, T. W. Moses, M. Ella Slipp and L. J. Alley.

Rev. G. B. Trafton will continue the special services at Norton until the 19th. The Farmer Evangelist, F. W. Foster is the special workers. A good interest has been awakened.

Rev. W. B. and Mrs. Wiggins was called to Penniac last week on the sad errand to attend the funeral of their niece, Miss Alice Goodspeed.

Rev. W. B. and Mrs. Wiggins expect to spend Christmas at Fredericton with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Goodspeed and family, who have taken up their residence at 722 Brunswick street, Fredericton, for the winter.

Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer expect to visit friends in Moncton from the 21st inst. until after Christmas. Brother and Sister Archer always find a warm welcome in Moncton from many friends.

Revs. A. H. Trafton, J. H. Coy, H. S. Dow, H. C. Archer and P. J. Trafton attended the quarterly meeting at Hartland last week. Special services were in progress there, the pastor being assisted by Rev. W. E. Smith, who preached twice on Sunday, thus giving several ministers a rest day. Rev. P. J. Trafton returned home for Sunday.

PERSONALS.

Brother A. G. Good went to Killam's Mills, N. B., on the 7th inst., to attend the funeral service of his brother, William Good.

Brother S. N. and Mrs. Grass spent Sunday, the 5th inst., in St. John, returning Monday, the 6th.

Sister George Brown in sending her renewal for the Highway says: "We love the paper and look forward to its coming."

Brother G. Springer Cosman spent Sunday, the 5th inst., with friends in Moncton. We are always glad to have Brother Cosman in our meetings.

The Highway is worth its weight in gold. We cannot do without it.—D. P. Tompkins, Star City, Sask.

Please find my renewal for the Highway. I enjoy reading it so much that I do not feel like doing without it in my home.— Mrs. John White, Lower Hainesville, N. B.

Mrs. D. H. Nixon returned on Saturday from Boston, where for several weeks she was taking treatment for eye trouble at the hands of a specialist. Her friends are pleased to know that her sight is much improved.—Observer.

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!

The Highway was delayed this issue by a bad fire in The Times Printing Office, which took palce on the night of the 15th. The Highway was partly printed but was destroyed.

MARRIED,

Hicks-MacCallum.

A very pretty church wedding took place in the Reformed Baptist Church at Moncton, N. B., on the evening of Nov. 29th, when Mr. Manford E. Hicks, of the C. N. R., and Miss Mary E. MacCallum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacCalhum, of Nixon, Albert Co., N. B., were united in marriage by the Rev. S. A. Baker in the presence of a large number of the friends of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks reside at 220 Dominion St.

Many of our readers will be surprised when they read this announcement. The Highway joins in congratulations.

Mrs. Amos Downey announces the marriage of her sister, Mrs. Alice A. Estabrooks, to Mr. M. O. MacKenzie on Wednesday, Nov. 10th, nineteen hundred and twenty, Wodstock, New Brunswick.

At home after December 1st, Salmon Rock Farm, Nerepis, N. B.

MISSING LETTERS.

We have missed a considerable number of letters sent us by our friends and subscribers and doubtless many have concluded we were at fault because changes were not made on our mailing list. Some have written us in that way. One or two have called to have their paper discontinued. Now the secret is out by the arrest of several of the employees of our local post office. So far, one man has been sentenced to penitentiary for three years. Another has been granted bail for a short time under $9000.00 bonds and the remainder are in jail. All for tampering with the mails. We have lost several small amounts, but no large amounts that we know of. We have notified our people of the danger of sending money loose in letters. All money letters should be registered or Postal Notes, Post Office orders or express orders, Bank Drafts or checks should be used. S. A. BAKER.

The church and congregation of the Fredericton Church and other friends of Rev. P. J. Trafton gathered at the parsonage, giving him and family a surprise, and presented him with the snug sum of $144 —a pre-Christmas gift.

PARCELS FOR OUR MISSIONARIES.

All parcels for our missionaries will be sent to Mrs. G. S. Cosman, 31 Queen Square, St. John, N. B. Small parcels can be sent by parcel post (registered) and the larger ones by express (pre-paid). We want a large quantity of good second hand clothing for men and women, boys and children for the natives. We want to get all the freight gathered up so we can ship it about the 20th of January.

S. A. BAKER.

This city is an excellent refuge for people with a strong aversion to sawing wood or shovelling coal, but one of the poorest places in New Brunswick for disloyal agitators against British rule.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

Another excellent meeting of the Woodstock R. B. Missionary Society was held Nov. 12th, 1920. After the opening chorus folowed by a season of prayer, led by Brothers Colpitts and McLean, the Scripture was read by the President, Mrs. C. O. Mutch. Then the following programme was given by the Friendship Class, of which Mrs. Mutch is teacher, assisted by Miss C. M. Scott, pianist:

Missionary exercise, by the Class. Reading, "A Little Missionary," by Nellie McFarlane.

Chorus, "Gathering Sheaves,' by the Class.

Reading, "India's Plea," Nina Blaney. Chorus, 'Scatter Sunshine,' by the class. Reading, "When the Minister Comes to Tea," Bertha Clark.

Duet, Grace Clark and Rilla Shea. Proceeds of evening $4.05. Yours in the work, MRS. ORISON R. ESTEY.

'SHIP DRIVES EAST"

Author Unknown. One ship drives east, and another west With the self-same winds that blow;

'Tis the set of the sails And not the gales Which decide the way to go.

Like the winds of the sea are the ways of fate.

As we voyage along through life; 'Tis the will of the soul That decides its goal, And not the calm or the strife.

There are only about one hundred thousand professing Christians among the more than sixty millions of Japan, or one to every six hundred.

Bulgaria is one of the most sober nations in Europe, and one in every 1,000 of the population lives to an age of 100 years. In Germany, where the people do a tremendous amount of beer drinking, one in every 700,000 lives to be one hundred years of age.
