

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Highway:

We wish space to give a brief report of special meetings held at Gordonsville, N. B. We began there on July 14th, just after the close of Beulah Camp Meeting. Rev. H. H. Lee was our evangelist and he proved himself to be a sane and efficient worker, preaching the Word of God without fear or favor, in the power and demonstration of the Spirit. The meetings continued only two weeks but were big in interest and results. God's blessing was upon us from the start and victory and blessing came in spite of many hindrances. We did not count seekers but upwards of fifty were at the altar. Some real cases of reclamation and sanctification were witnessed. One Friday night's meeting was mighty in power and conviction, when seekers rushed to the altar and began to cry for mercy before any call had been given, or the sermon finished. We do not recall ever being in a more powerful meeting. There was not a meeting held but someone was blessed in one way or another.

The work at Gordonsville is pretty well split up and the situation is complicated indeed, but God has some genuinely good people out there, and we believe there is yet a prospect for a good work in that section. The financial part of the meeting was easily and generously met; the people were blessed spiritually, and gladly gave of their means. We wish to again thank them for their generous support. We give God the glory for His faithfulness in answering prayer and sending conviction upon hearts.

Yours in the work,

H. C. MULLEN.

Dear Brother Baker:

Please find enclosed my renewal for Highway. I like the Highway and think it well worth a dollar and fifty cents a year. May God's richest blessing rest upon you and yours is my prayer. My testimony is, The eternal God is my refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms.

Your brother in the Dear Lord,

CHARLES WEBB.

Westchester, N. S.

ORDINATION.

An ordination service was held at Riverside Camp Meeting Tuesday afternoon, the 10th, when Robert C. Potter, of Ontario, was set apart to the gospel ministry in connection with the Reformed Baptist Denomination. The editor of the Highway has been in correspondence with Brother Potter for about five years who seemed to be drawn to us as a people; and after prayerfully considering the matter, and becoming acquainted with our doctrines decided to visit us, and finally asked for membership and ordination as a Reformed Baptist minister. Brother Potter has been teaching school and preaching in Saskatchewan and Alberta and is an educated and deeply devoted Christian, and a very earnest worker. He will spend some time in New Brunswick assisting our pastors in special revival services, and later on will return to the Canadian Northwest as a representative of the Reformed Baptist Church of Canada.

The following was the order of the service. Rev. I. F. Keirstead presided and gave out the opening hymn:

Prayer by Rev. J. H. Coy.

Scripture Reading—Rev. H. C. Archer. Hymn.

Sermon by Rev. W. B. Wiggins, B. A.

Ordination questions—Rev. L. T. Sabine.

The ordaining prayer—Rev. C. S. Hilyard.

The hand of fellowship—Rev. S. A. Baker.

The charge to the candidate—Rev. H. S. Dow.

The charge to the church—Rev. E. W. Lester.

Closing Hymn—Rev. F. T. Wright.

Benediction—Rev. R. C. Potter.

* FUNDS WHICH IS OF LIVE IN- *
* TEREST TO OUR PEOPLE *
* AND FRIENDS. *
* The Hospital Fund—A pressing and *
* immediate need at African Missionary *
* Station. *
* The New Church Fund, Missionary *
* Station, South Africa. *
* The House Fund—For the Misses *
* Helen and Alice Sterritt, our new *
* Missionaries. *
* The Students' Fund—To help *
* young men in their preparation for *
* ministry. *
* REV. S. A. BAKER, *
* Treasurer. *
* Moncton, N. B. *

TALK SUCCESS, NOT FAILURE.

"If I sell but two tons of coal a day," said a coal dealer to me on one occasion, "no one will ever know it. Men are so constituted that they like to do business with a firm that is prospering. To call attention to business depression is to invite further depression."

This coal dealer was an officer of the church of which I was pastor and he went on to give me this counsel for my work, "In your work of religious leadership never speak of failures and disappointments which may occur; put emphasis upon whatever is succeeding.

If some Sunday morning only a small congregation is present do not scold the faithful few because of the stay aways. Wait till some Sunday when there is a large congregation present, call attention to it, and commend it.

There can be no doubt as to the great common sense in the suggestion of this Christian business man. His words were an illustration and an explanation of the familiar proverb. "Nothing succeeds like success." To put the point in a more colloquial way everyone likes to ride on the band wagon.

An atmosphere of discouragement which is created by calling attention to failures, is very certain to invite more failures, while the atmosphere of cheerfulness created by calling attention to successes is the best preparation for further successes.—Rev. James Elmer Russell in Westminster Teacher.

God pity a boy or girl when all the Christianity they hear is from the lips of strangers, not from their own parents.—Billy Sunday.

RIVERSIDE CAMP MEETING

PERSONALS.

The first Sunday—Rev. J. H. and Mrs. Coy, Rev. C. S. and Mrs. Hilyard, Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer, Rev. L. J. and Mrs. Alley, Rev. L. T. Sabine and wife, Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Mullen, Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Dow, Rev. S. H. and Mrs. Clark, Rev. F. T. and Mrs. Wright, Rev. S. A. and Mrs. Baker, Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen, Revs. E. W. Lester, I. F. Keirstead, R. C. Potter, Misses Helen and Alice Sterritt; T. W. and Mrs. Whitten, L. S. and Mrs. Kinney, F. T. and Mrs. Kimball, John and Mrs. Mantor, Rev. Stephen Kinney, Bruce and Mrs. Mitchell, Thos. and Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Anie Wiggins, Mrs. E. H. Boone, J. C. Smith, Miss Laura Crouse, Mrs. Christie W. Hill, John and Mrs. Jamieson, G. W. Bates, Mrs. Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. F. Robinson, Miss Nellie Hartt, Mr. and Mrs. Turner, F. C. Deeves and wife, Silas and Mrs. Burt, Mrs. S. Hayden Shaw, Rev. L. R. Foster and wife, Rev. M. L. Turner and wife, Charles N. Goodspeed and wife, Wm. Cogswell and wife, Howard Cogswell and wife, Mrs. George H. Hartley, Mrs. B. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nye, Israel Craig, J. W. Sabine, H. F. Sabine, Jas. Rogers and wife, A. L. Baird, O. R. Esty and wife, B. M. Colpitts and wife, Mrs. L. Brooks, Thos. Esty, Miss Clara Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, W. T. Andrews, Whitfield Orser, C. R. Hagerman, C. P. and Mrs. Phillips, Ziba Orser, Willie Rideout, Wm. J. Jones and wife, David Phillips and wife, F. M. and Mrs. Boyd, Bruce Brown and wife, Russell N. Brown, Arnold Brown, Miss Rhena Brown, H. F. Nevers and wife, Mrs. M. E. Thornton, Mrs. Charles Jones, Miss Annie Tompkins, Barry Tompkins, M. L. Estabrooks and wife, J. R. Carl and wife, Mrs. F. W. Foster, Chas. Churchill, W. H. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Foster.

Brother Guy McCreeley, of Calais, had his foot badly hurt in one of the lumber mills recently, but is improving at last reports from Chipman Hospital, St. Stephen, N. B.

We regret to learn of the serious physical condition of Rev. H. C. Morrison, D.D., the Editor and Publisher of the Pentecostal Herald. He is said to have leakage and enlargement of the heart.

Much sympathy was felt for a sister from Houlton, Maine, who was attending the Riverside Camp Meeting, who received the sad news of the accidental death of her son with whom she lived, and who just two days before had brought her to the camp meeting.

It is not so much stated prayers that keep us in touch with the Lord as the habitual uplook in every call and emergency that the days bring. There are many busy persons who answer innumerable demands through crowded hours, who yet continue "steadfastly in prayer" for wisdom, strength and guidance through every duty that comes. They are giving heart, hands and thought to their work, but the wires connecting them with the Source of power are never down, and wordless messages flash to and fro continually.—Forward.