

DONATION.

At our home on the evening of Jan. 14th, having invited the young people of the village in, while we were engaged in singing, we were taken greatly by surprise by a considerable party; I don't know how many; from Greenbush, by single and double teams, came in until our house was filled. The weather was stormy but they came just the same. The singing went on with more voices to join the chorus and we spent a very enjoyable evening. The ladies were most generous, as well as good cooks, and no charges for the good things they brought and before leaving they presented the pastor and his wife with the good sum of $67.00. The people of Greenbush Church had previously given us $75.00 donation and $15 has since been added. We did our best to thank these kind hearted people for being so mindful of us. We had a blessed time in prayer, and thanked God for a people that know how to take care of their pastor. We do not think that any of our ministers need fear of wanting while on this field, whether their family is large or small. There are four in our family, beside our visitors, and we have had no lack in any thing as yet, and I do not have to go to the woods to cut my wood. Bless the Lord! "He is all in all to me," and I thank him for all his goodness to me. We thank all who gave, and we only desire to be able to minister to them as well in spiritual things. Brethren, pray for us.—H. S. Mullen and wife. Meductic, N. B.

A LETTER FROM JAPAN.

From Miss Anna McLeod, a missionary in Japan, the whole letter is a yard long, written on beautiful Japanese paper. But we will give you an extract describing the place where she was resting.—Ed. (Karmzawa, Sept. 5, 1920.)

This summer we have been a family of seven, one of whom was the Secretary-Treasurer of our mission, that means the same as president with us. She is a splendid big woman. Her home is in St. John. Her name is M. A. Robertson. She goes home next spring so if you hear of her speaking next summer, I think she will be worth hearing.

You of course have seen many wonderful places and much beautiful scenery, but you haven't seen Japan yet. This place where we spend the summer is a perfect gem. A gentleman who came here this summer, a delegate to the S. School convention, is an artist of Toronto, a famous portrait painter. He has been requested to paint the portrait of Japan's Emperor. He says this is the most beautiful place he has ever seen and he has seen Europe with the artist's eye.

It is a saucer-like valley, quite broad and surrounded with mountains of many fantastic shapes. At the west is the famous volcano, Mt. Asama. It is an active volcano not obsolete. About six or seven years ago it was tremendously active while we were here.

OBITUARY.

Herbert Leslie Marks.

At the home of his parents, Walter and Lettie Marks, Victoria street, Fredericton, N. B., Herbert Leslie Marks, their youngest child, died of pneumonia, Jan. 15th, 1921, aged 2 years. The funeral was held at the home Monday at 2.30 p. m., the three brothers and four sisters remain. writer officiating. Besides the parents, P. J. TRAFTON.

Enoch M. Campbell.

Enoch M. Campbell died at his home in Woodstock, Jan. 18th, after a lingering illness, aged 78 years. He was born and lived at Grafton, but for a number of years conducted studios in Woodstock and different parts of Carleton, Victoria and York Counties.

He professed religion a number of years ago and was a member of the old Baptist Church of Woodstock, but during the pastorate of Rev. S. A. Baker he united with the Reformed Baptist Church of the town and embraced the doctrine of full salvation, and gave testimony to the last of enjoying this blessed experience. He greatly enjoyed instrumental and vocal music, and was for years a member of the choir and of a man's quartet in connection with the church of his adoption.

He is survived by his widow, four sons, Grover and Gerald, or Toronto, Harold, of Houlton, Me., and Norman of Calais, Me., and one daughter, Mrs. Herbert Kellaway, of Newton Centre, Mass. The funeral services took place on Thursday afternoon, January 2th, conducted by his pastor, W. B. Wiggins. The choir of the church sang several hymns that were favorites with the deceased, namely, "Alone with God," "The last mile of the way," and "Under the Cypress." The burial took place at Grafton in the old graveyard near his old birthplace and home. Only two sons, Norman and Harold, were able to be present at the services. The sympathy of the friends and neighbors is extended to Sister Campbell and the children.

Mrs. Norman Allen.

The death of Mrs. Norman Allen occurred at Vancouver, B. C., on Monday, Jan. 10th, of paralysis. She was in the 50th year of her age and leaves to mourn their loss one son, Leonard, of Pembroke, N. S., and two daughters, Margaret and Florence, both of Vancouver. The deceased was a sister of Rev. H. C. Archer, of Millville. She was a member of the Methodist Church and had been a consistent follower of Christ for a number of years, having professed religion when quite young. Her end was peace. Interment took place at Vancouver.

Mrs. Levi Mullen.

On Jan. 21st, after an illness of several months, caused by cancer, Rachel, wife of Levi Mullen of New Tusket. The deceased is survived by a husband, several children, and other relatives. Before departing this life she gave testimony that the blood of Jesus cleansed her heart and that she was ready to go. The service was held at the home, conducted by the writer, assisted by Elder R. C. Potter. We sympathize with the family in their sorrow and pray the God of all grace will comfort their hearts. PERLEY W. BRIGGS.

Mrs. Eliza O. Brown.

Mrs. Eliza O. Brown, wife of the late Isaac Brown, died very suddenly. She was 78 years of age. She leaves to mourn her loss one brother of Middle Southampton, Mr. eLeonard Miller, and many friends and relatives. The writer attended her funeral. Sermon preached in the Middle Southampton R. B. Church. Interment was made in the Middle Southampton cemetery. We extend our sympathy and prayers to the bereaved ones.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Rev. S. A. Baker:

My precious brother in Christ and all the dear readers of the King's Highway, one of the best papers on earth for the true gospel, I thought you would like to hear how I was coming on.

While I am not so well in body, I am gloriously saved and kept in the spirit, for which I can give the dear Lord all the glory. He has redeemed us through his life of suffering, and if we suffer with him, we shall reign with him, so I praise God our Father for his unspeakable gift.

Go on dear ones; I was blessed in my soul to hear your testimony. "Be of good cheer. I have overcome the world." This world is an enemy to God. A great many people in their prosperity, do not have much to do with their fellow men, but in adversity they do. "Let us come to the conclusion of the whole matter, fear God and keep his commandments, which is the whole duty of man." The wisest man that lived came to this conclusion. The Holy Ghost within is true spiritual life.

With much love, I remain yours in Christ—S. O. Kinney, Blaine, Maine.

Dear Highway:

A line from this part of the Master's vineyard may be of interest to your readers.

We held special meetings during the month of December, assisted by Brother Potter. He gave us a lot of truth in a forceful manner and I trust a number were helped by our effort though none were willing to surrender themselves to the Lord and seek salvation.

Brother Potter worked faithfully in the neighborhood, going into the homes and dealing with individuals and we believe a number will have to give an account in the day of judgement for the opportunity given them to receive Christ and His salvation. Let us all pray earnestly for Brother Potter that special grace and wisdom may be given unto him to the end that his self-sacrificing labour among us, while he remains working among our churches and also when he returns to the West, may be abundantly blessed of God in the salvation of souls.

We are still pushing the battle here as best we can and believe victory is coming in the name of our God.

Yours in the Master's service,
I. F. KEIRSTEAD.
